So I appeal to you ladies and gentlemen, to consider this very, very carefully, because of the very nature of the thousands and thousand of cases that we have in this State who are employed by industry, many of them in coal mines, many of them in steel mills, and not only adults but children, and I submit to you that you cannot do anything which is too great to protect the eyes of these people.

I have had numerous letters from various opthalmologists, and they have all opposed this bill and speak of it as being fallacious regarding court work and compensation work, and to show you just how important it is that these people should be carefully cared for, within the past few weeks I had an individual apply to me who has had a serious injury to the eye. He was referred to one of the best eye men that I know of and that man, who has had years of experience in opthalmology, one of the highest class men in Pennsylvania, refused to treat him because his condition was so serious, and he referred him to another man, who was, he felt, more proficient in that particular kind of work. Ladies and gentleman, this was a young man; his eye was at stake. Do you think he should have been treated by some one who is inadequately prepared when a man who is admittedly one of the highest class specialists in the western part of the State referred him to another man?

I had another case quite recently in which the testimony of an opthalmologists would determine whether a coal miner would receive compensation or not. Now ladies and gentleman, if you have any regard for the laboring man, if you have any regard for the men who have been or who are engaged in industry, certainly you cannot vote for this bill, and I appeal to you in the interests of those who are so unfortunate as to lose their eyesight, to vote this bill down regardless of the amendments that might be made. In the interests of labor, the great army of labor in industry in this State, I urge you to vote against this fallacious bill.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to thank the gentleman for his kind remarks about my sincerity in presenting this bill. I would like to call to the attention of the members that a few days ago when this bill was on second reading, amendments were offered by members of the medical profession. At that time I arose and asked the members to vote in favor of those amendments. I wanted to be entirely fair to the medical profession. Furthermore, there were objections raised as to this bill by members who represented the laboring class in this Legislature, and we proposed, as my colleague Mr. Cohen has stated, to offer an amendment in the Senate which would take care of that objection. We have tried to play fair and square with everybody who asked to amend this bill, and I ask the members to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I have been listening to the debate on this bill from the medical side; I have heard them say that they cannot offer evidence; and from the legal side I heard the lawyers say that it is impossible to offer this before a court or a compensation board, and I am at a loss to know how to vote. I think somebody ought to decide as to whether medical profession is right or whether the legal profession is right as to whether this can be offered as evidence.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1934 as follows:

An Act for the public safety requiring and regulating the installation of gas shut-off valves and accessory appliances in and in connection with certain buildings and conferring powers and duties on the Department of Labor and Industry and cities of the first class

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That every building hereafter erected and also every existing building (except buildings three stories or less in height in addition to the basement thereof when occupied exclusively for residential purposes) which may be supplied from some outside source with gas shall be equipped by the builder or owner of such building with a gas shut-off valve attached to the gas supply pipe or pipes on the inside of the building at a point where said pipes enter the building and before they reach the gas meter which valve shall be connected with a conspicuous and conveniently accessible control box at a place on the exterior of the building so arranged as to allow the gas supply to be shut off by any member of any fire department immediately wherever the necessity arises The fire department of any municipality shall have the exclusive use of gas shut-off valves and their operation in the event of fire or other emergency No person firm or corporation supplying gas to any building shall in any way prevent hinder or interfere with the installation or operation of the apparatus hereinbefore required to be installed Such shut-off valve and said control box for the shut-off valve shall be so marked as to indicate their respective purposes The gas shut-off valves shall be so constructed as to automatically shut-off the gas when subjected to sufficient heat

All gas shut-off valves and necessary appliances shall be designed to minimize the danger of explosion and to prevent or retard the escape of gas in case of fire and be of types approved by the Department of Labor and Industry of the Commonwealth

Section 2 All existing buildings and every building hereafter erected subject to the provisions of this act shall be equipped with such device and necessary appliances within six months after the effective date of this act

Section 3 It shall be the duty of the Department of Labor and Industry except as to territory in cities of the first class and the bureau or agency in charge of building inspection in cities of the first class to enforce the provisions of this act and to adopt and promulgate rules and regulations for the installation of gas shut-off valves and necessary appliances Such rules and regulations shall provide for the inspection of the installation of the gas shut-off valve after the same has been completed either by the agent of the department or city as the case may be or by any local board of fire underwriters or its agent Such rules and regulations shall provide for an annual inspection of such gas shut-off valves and appliances by such persons or agencies as may be provided therein

Section 4 This act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1952 as follows:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 485) entitled "An act to provide for the better protection of life and health of the citizens of this Commonwealth by requiring and regulating the examination licensure and registration of persons and registration of corporations engaging in the care preparation and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons and providing penalties" providing for the qualification of additional persons as undertakers

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 485) entitled "An act to provide for the better protection of life and health of the citizens of this Commonwealth by requiring and regulating the examination licensure and registration of persons and registration of corporations engaging in the care preparation and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons and providing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 An applicant shall not be entitled to an examination if

(a) The applicant is not a citizen of the United States

(b) The applicant is not at least twenty-one years of age

(c) The applicant is not a graduate of an approved high school of this Commonwealth or has an education equivalent thereto under the rules and regulations of the department Provided however That this clause shall not be construed to apply to any person who has been engaged in the business of undertaking at least ten years

(d) The applicant has not had practical experience in the business or profession of undertaking for two years continuously as a student apprentice and shall have completely embalmed at least twenty-five bodies

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on account of the fact that I have received a number of requests to oppose this bill, I desire that the sponsor or someone understanding the bill explain its provisions in order that I may vote intelligently on the matter.

The SPEAKER The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scanlon, who will explain the provisions of the bill.

Mr. SCANLON. Mr. Speaker, the only thing this bill does, it permits men who have been working at the undertaking business ten years to take an examination. It does not license anyone.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. ALLMOND filed the following reason for his vote:

I am opposed to House Bill No. 1952, Printer's No. 1090, because I feel there is no reason why at this time any exception should be made in the present law.

The requirements set up by the Act of 1931 are reasonable and have helped to uphold the standards of the profession. The work of undertakers is one in which the health of the public is greatly concerned, and the rules and regulations should be kept rigid. No such exceptions are allowed in other professions and I see no reason why the same should not hold true for the undertakers.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1073, as follows:

An Act to amend section one thousand and one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 359) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" as amended providing for the payment by the Commonwealth of a bounty for each rattlesnake killed the Commonwealth

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one thousand and one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 359) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" as amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1721) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1001 Bounties on Certain Animals A reward or bounty shall be paid for the killing within the Commonwealth only of the following animals For each Canada or bay lynx commonly called bobcat or wildcat fifteen dollars for each gray fox four dollars for each weasel one dollar [and] for each goshawk killed within the Commonwealth between the first day of November and the first day of May of the next following year and shipped to the office of the Board at Harrisburg within thirty-six hours after killing five dollars and for each rattlesnake killed within the Commonwealth and the rattles thereof and one inch of the tail shipped to the office of the Board at Harrisburg twenty-five cents Bounties shall be paid for only those rattlesnakes which are killed within areas defined by the Department of Forests and Waters and proof of the killing of rattlesnakes within such areas shall be furnished in such manner as the board may require

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. SARRAF asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation to meet during the session of the House.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. HAGERTY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 670, Printer's No. 1015, was dropped from the calendar last Thursday, be reconsidered.

Mr. FLANAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hagerty, vote on the motion?

Mr. HAGERTY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Flanagan, vote on the motion?

Mr. FLANAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, under what rule can you re-instate a bill on the calendar, once it has been dropped?

The SPEAKER. Under Rule 81 of the House.

Mr. TURNER. Will the Chair please state the rule?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will read the rule for the information of the members. Rule 81: "Reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration shall be permitted when made and seconded by members who were in the majority on the original question and within five days in which the House is in session after the decision, excepting when a bill or resolution shall have been recalled from the Governor in which case a motion to reconsider shall be entertained though more than five days shall have elapsed. It shall be decided by a majority of those voting. No motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after a bill, resolution, report, amendment or motion upon which the vote was taken shall have gone out of the possession of the House. When a motion to reconsider is lost, it shall not be again renewed on the same question, nor shall such a motion be entertained until other business has transpired."

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I state the procedure as I understood it the other evening? The gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, read a list of bills which he asked to have dropped from the calendar. The Chair stated to the House that unless there was objection the following bills as stated by the gentleman from York would be dropped from the calendar. There was no objection, and as I recall it, there was no vote taken on the question. Therefore, there is no vote here to be reconsidered. The action was by unanimous consent of the House to drop the bill from the calendar, and it seems to me that the bill would then be in the same position as if the sponsor of the bill had himself personally arisen and said that he wanted to drop the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair believes that the gentleman is in error. The Chair is of the opinion that a vote was taken on the motion of the gentleman from York. If it had not been taken and unanimous consent had been given, unanimous consent would have meant the same as a unanimous vote in favor of the motion.

Mr. TURNER. But, Mr. Speaker, does not the rule referring to reconsideration mean the reconsideration of a vote?

The SPEAKER. The bills were dropped either by motion which was voted upon by the members of the House or by unanimous consent, which, in other words, is a unanimous vote in favor of the motion. The Chair feels that in either case a motion to reconsider would be in order on the action taken by the House to drop bills from the calendar.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, there are three committees out at the present time, and I know that some of the members, at least of one of those committees, are interested in this measure. It seems to me it would be unfair to lay before the House now the question of reinstating a bill on the calendar, with three committees out.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman wish to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia to withdraw his motion at this time?

Mr. TURNER. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hagerty, withdraw his motion at this time?

Mr. HAGERTY. At this time, Mr. Speaker, if I may renew it later in the evening.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 2372, Senate Bill No. 770, Printer's No. 246, on page 7 of today's calendar, bill on second reading which was passed over.

On the question,

Will the Houes agree to the section?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 1, page 10 by striking out lines 1 to 21 inclusive, and inserting in lieu thereof the following new section:

"Section 4. As much of the money from time to time in the Motor License Fund is hereby appropriated to the Pennsylvania Motor Police as shall be deemed by the Governor to be apportionable to the work of the Pennsylvania Motor Police in enforcing the laws regulating the use of the highways of this Commonwealth, and in assisting the Department of Revenue in the collection of motor license fees, fees for titling vehicles and tractors, operators' license fees and the tax on liquid fuels, and the issuance of certificates of title and motor and operators' licenses. Such moneys shall be transferred from time to time out of the Motor License Fund to the General Fund, shall be credited to the current appropriation out of the General Fund to the Pennsylvania Motor Police and shall be available for the purposes for which such appropriation is appropriated by law."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, whether he would kindly explain the provisions of the amendments which have just been offered.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Hr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman kindly explain the purpose of the amendments?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, the amendments that have just been presented to Senate Bill No. 770 are presented in an effort to obviate any criticism being laid against this appropriation bill or any State police merger bill on the grounds that it is a diversion of motor funds and therefore a violation of the Hayden-Cartwright Act. This amendment will follow through in the other Highway Police Bills, so that there will be no diversion of motor funds as a result of the consolidation of the State Highway Patrol and the State Police.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman from York just what the set-up will be after this amendment passes so far as the number of State Police and the State Motor Patrolmen are concerned.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Lancaster, I wish to state that the personnel of the Motor Patrol who are assigned to highway duty would still be within the purview of the Executive branch of the Commonwealth. At the present time it is within the control of the Executive officers of the Commonwealth either to increase or decrease the personnel of the State Highway Patrol as the executive in his wisdom sees fit.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, whether I am correct in my thought that only a portion of the expenses for what might be termed the State Police is to be taken out of the general fund?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker, only the portion of the consolidated patrol which are not engaged in highway work will be paid from the general fund. The consolidated police, that portion of the consolidated police that will do highway work will be paid from the highway fund.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask where the money that it is to be used in the payment of the police will be taken from, or from what source rather, will it be derived?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, as I tried to explain, the money that will be utilized to maintain the consolidated Motor Patrol of the Commonwealth will be contributed from two funds, one the General Fund will contribute the expenses and the cost of maintenance of the Motor Police for non-highway activities. For highway activities of the police the funds will come from the Highway Fund, the Motor License Fund and other funds that are earmarked for highway purposes.

Mr. TROUT. Can the gentleman tell me, Mr. Speaker, how many men approximately will continue to do criminal work?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I might state that the criminal work of the combined Motor Police, the number will be determined by the amount of work that is to be done, the same as the highway work of the combined Motor Police, the number of the personnel will also be determined by the amount of work which is required to be done.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, then the number of men will be determined by the amount of money available, rather than the amount of work to be done?

Mr. HERBEBRT B. COHEN. Of course, Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogation of the gentleman I would state that there is that financial limitation, that irrespective of the amount of work to be done, if the moneys are not available with which to do it, the work will not be done.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, am I correct in this, that the money to pay the police is to be derived from fines and penalties and forfeited bail?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, the moneys that will pay for the non-highway activities of the combined motor patrol will come from funds that are not earmarked under the Hayden-Cartwright Act. They will come from funds that are not considered to be road funds from which no diversion could be made without a loss of Federal contributions in the building of our roads.

Mr. TROUT. In that case, Mr. Speaker, would it not be necessary for the Legislature to make an appropriation for that purpose?

Mr. HERBERT B. CCOHEN. Mr. Speaker, I think the power to utilize those moneys has already been vested in the Governor without the necessity of any additional legislative authority.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, am I not right in this, that the only power vested in the Governor is to increase the State Motor Patrol, but that the appropriation for the State Police is purely a matter for the Legislature?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I might state that the gentleman is in error, that our legislative enactments give the Governor full power and control over the funds that are utilized in making the appropriations without the necessity of any additional legislative enactment.

Mr. TROUT. Am I wrong in this, Mr. Speaker? May I ask the gentleman from York if in the appropriation there is an item of $2,500,000 for State Police?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, before answering that question I am forced to question the gentleman myself. Does the gentleman refer to the appropriation bill?

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I do not have that bill in my possession here, but as I recall, there is an item of about that amount in there.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I might say, Mr. Speaker, in answer to that interrogation, that there was an item carrying an appropriation of some two and a half million dollars for the State Police, which was allowed to remain in the appropriation bill as it passed the House, pending final determination as to what action the House would take on the consolidation of the State Police and the State Highway Patrol.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I do not know that this is the time to discuss this matter, being an amendment to the bill which, however, contains the nucleus of the entire proposition of the consolidation of the State Police and the State Motor Patrol. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe that any legislation at all which will interfere with or lessen the efficiency of the State Police is wrong. I believe that every member of the House will agree with the statement, that Pennsylvania has a fine organization of State Police, as fine as any that can be found in this country or in Canada. Their record bear out that statement. You may recall that Mr. Hoover, the G-man, came here, investigated the State Police of Pennsylvania, and followed largely what they learned here. They are thoroughly acquainted with the criminals that harbor themselves in the various cities and various sections of Pennsylvania. There are four hundred of these men; they have but one duty to perform, and that is the criminal side in Pennsylvania. On the other hand, we have the State Motor Patrol, trained for the specific purpose of controlling the highways, and they too are as fine an organization of men working along their particular line, as any state can produce.

Now, we are about to merge these two organizations. It is the purpose to reduce the State Police from four hundred to one hundred and to have the remainder divided between criminal work and the patroling of the highways. I do not believe that the people of Pennsylvania are willing that this shall be done, and I do not believe that the motorists of Pennsylvania are willing to have their money, which has been definitely allocated for specific purposes, be used partly for policing and partly for patroling the highways.

I should like to call your attention, if I may, Mr. Speaker, to a few of the provisions of the bill, and what it provides, and what the money is to be used for. First it provides for the payment of salaries, wages or other compensation and traveling or other necessary expenses of the Commissioner of Pennsylvania Motor Police, Deputy Commissioner of Pennsylvania Motor Police and such chiefs, statisticians, clerks, experts and other assistants as may be required for the proper conduct of the work of the Pennsylvania Motor Police. Then it provides for the payment of salaries, wages or other compensation, for the purchase of uniforms, arms and equipment and for the maintenance and traveling and other necessary expenses of the Pennsylvania Motor Police force, and for medical attendance and hospital charges not covered by insurance for members of the Pennsylvania Motor Police force injured in the line of duty.

Then it provides for the purchase, maintenance and repair of furniture, furnishings, stationery, supplies, material, equipment, fuel for motor vehicles, printing and binding, and for the payment of the premiums on policies insuring the Commonwealth against workmen's compensation liability to employes or dependents of employes of the Pennsylvania Motor Police and for the payment of premiums on policies of insurance covering motor vehicles operated by employes of the Pennsylvania Motor Police, and surety bonds for the employes of the Pennsylvania Motor Police.

Then it provides for the payment of postage, telegrams, telephone rentals and toll charges, and rents or royalties upon leased office equipment or other devices or machines. Then it provides for the acquisition of land, the construction and maintenance of buildings for the use of the motor police, and for the operation and maintenance of a training school, including any branches thereof.

It provides for the maintenance and operation of a radio broadcasting station or stations, and for the purpose of installing, operating and maintaining a teletype or other inter communication system linking the central office of the Pennsylvania Motor Police with the offices of the various organized police forces of the cities, boroughs and townships of the Commonwealth. Then in paragraph one is provides for the payment to the Department of the Auditor General of the cost incurred by that department in auditing requisitions drawn on the Motor License Fund and in auditing annually, periodically or specially the affairs of the Pennsylvania Motor Police in such amounts as the Pennsylvania Motor Police with the approval of the Executive Board shall determine. It provides for payment to the Treasury Department for the cost of making disbursements out of the Motor License Fund on behalf of the Pennsylvania Motor Police in the performance of its work in such amounts as the Treasury Department with the approval of the Executive Board shall determine. It provides in Section (k) for payment to the Department of Property and Supplies for space occupied in the capitol building, and for water, light, heat, power and so forth in such amounts as the Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Executive Board shall determine.

Paragraph (1) provides for all other expenses of every kind and description necessary for the performance by the Pennsylvania Motor Police of its work.

The above expenses of the Highway Patrol are paid from the Motor License Fund.

Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that we are going far afield from the purposes as originally laid down for the State Police and for the Motor Patrol, and under the conditions it seems to me, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that this bill, before it passes on for final passage should be more carefully studied to see whether or not the use of these various items which were not a part of the original text of the Motor Fund should actually be enacted.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to call to the attention of the members of the House just four pertinent facts. The bill as drawn does not present a diversion of Highway Funds. The bill as it is drawn has the approval of the Executive heads of both the State Police and the State Highway Patrol in an effort to give the citizens of our Commonwealth increased and additional police protection, both on the highway and in criminal investigation work. With the passage of the merger of the State Police, Pennsylvania will have a police system that is not duplicating itself and exposing the taxpayers of the Commonwealth to additional tax payments. Under our present system the Commonwealth is maintaining the State Police and the State Highway Patrol as two separate and distinct organizations. The personnel of the officers is different, and the expense of maintaining the two separate organizations is such that under the merger contemplated the taxpayers of the Commonwealth will save approximately a million to a million and a half dollars a year in tax payments, without any loss of service, without any loss of highway funds, and without any diversion of those funds. In addition thereto the people will receive a higher type of service, a lessening of highway accidents due to increased personnel, an opportunity to have some of our highways and byways afforded the proper police protection rather than only the proper highway protection. It will relieve the Commonwealth of maintaining barracks for State policemen. As they are now presently situated they are at ease more or less awaiting the call to some duty as ordered by their head. Rather than have them at ease in those barracks, these men will be on the highway, affording protection to motorists, affording protection in decreasing accidents, giving the proper type of traffic control necessary at the present time in order to decrease the great loss of life and physical injuries attending our traffic on the highways.

I ask that the House vote in favor of the insertion of these amendments, which amendments are presented with the sole thought of obviating the diversion of highway funds, and of placing Pennsylvania in the position, with this State police merger, to continue to receive the benefits of the Hayden-Cartwright Act.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York on one point, please.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, in speaking of diversions, according to Section 12 of the Hayden-Cartwright Act, I understood the gentleman to say that under this arrangement you were assured there would be no diversion or no penalty for diversion. How are you going to, may I ask, take care of the expenses of the State police or those men who are serving in the capacity of State police, that is, separate the cost of those from the cost of those who are serving as patrolmen and who are paid out of the Motor Fund?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I will say that it will be necessary for the Motor Highway Patrol, when it becomes a combined unit, to make out payrolls and time sheets and cost records that will indicate just how much time the individuals are spending on highway work and how much time they are spending on non-highway duties. The amount of money that is expended on highway work, the payroll and the cost will be kept separate and distinct from the cost that is incurred by the combined unit in criminal and other non-highway investigations.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, then am I to understand that if a State policemen leaves his work at Harrisburg to go to Pittsburgh to investigate a crime, and on the way he serves as a State Motor Patrolman, and when he gets into Pittsburgh, he serves as a State Police, then after he has finished his duties there he comes back to Harrisburg, and while he is going back he serves as a State Patrolman, and then he keeps his time sheet, while he was in Pittsburgh, he spent five hours investigating crime, he spent six or seven hours going out and six or seven hours coming back, then we are going to set up a system of bookkeeping that will indicate to the Department at Washington that we are not using any of the Motor Funds for police work, but that we are segregating them so that there will be no penalty or possibility of penalty—am I right in that thought?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I might say to the gentleman from Lancaster that under the present system, if the State Police have a problem to solve in the City of Pittsburgh and they go right out from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh, that that time they are spending on the road from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh is a loss to the citizens of the Commonwealth. If on their journey from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh they are performing highway duty, I would say that their wages could properly and justifiably be charged against the motor section of the act. When they get to Pittsburgh, if they discontinue their motor vehicle activities and engage solely in criminal investigation work, then I would say that they would be paid out of the General Fund or out of funds that do not constitute a diversion of the Motor Fund.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, if such a system is possible, and if such a system of timekeeping could be set up it might be possible to avoid a penalty under the Hayden-Cartwright Act, but it looks to me as though this is very far-fetched and very difficult to accomplish.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I might state that the gentleman well knows, as the membership of this House well knows, that decidedly more complicated costs systems are now in vogue, and that certain manufacturing concerns are able with greater complexity of set-up to determine just how much is spent in the production of any particular job or in the doing of any particular work in their factory or concern, and the bookkeeping that will be necessary in order to differentiate between highways activities and criminal investigation activities would be a very simple accounting problem in comparison.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 2 This act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven

The title was read as follows:

An Act to re-enact and amend the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand forty-six) entitled "An act appropriating the moneys in the Motor License Fund" as amended by making the moneys in the Motor License Fund available to the Pennsylvania Motor Police to defray all expenses required by such agency in the proper conduct of its work

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend page 1, line 7 of the title by striking out after the word "defray" and before the word "expenses" the word "[all]" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "the"

Amend page 1, line 8 of the title by inserting after the word "of" and before the word "its" the following: "part of"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title as amended?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1840, Printer's No. 1054, on page 18 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, which was passed over.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1840, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand one hundred two of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended providing that county district assistant and associate superintendents shall not be otherwise employed for remuneration

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I dislike at this time of the night to make any comment upon this bill, but I ask you to note that it was not my fault that the bill was called up. If the gentleman from Allegheny had been an hour earlier in the evening we would have had this out of the way. This bill provides that county, district, assistant and associate superintendents shall not be otherwise employed for remuneration. Under the provisions of this bill, as I understand it, if a county superintendent or assistant during the summer months would go and teach in a summer school, or if he would give a lecture in a summer school, or if during the winter he were asked to make an address before some body and was paid a fee of twenty-five dollars or fifty dollars for making that address, he would not be allowed to take any remuneration. I cannot conceive of the purpose of the author of this bill in so restricting the county superintendent or the assistant superintendent. I think that they receive fair pay, but I do not see why we should prevent any man who has the opportunity to earn some money because of his particular knowledge of a subject from going somewhere and teaching or making a speech and receiving some remuneration. Therefore, I believe that this bill is unfair to our county superintendents and the assistant superintendents and it should be defeated.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I want to apologize to the members of the House, because it seems that every time I call a bill up the floor leader on the other side of the House does not fail to say that it is being called up. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is not intended to work a hardship upon those superintendents of schools who have to depend upon their speeches for a livelihood. It is the thought of this bill that good superintendent of schools is amply paid by the district which he serves, that his job is a full-time, year around job, and that if he has any leisure time he ought to devote that time to improving himslf. This bill is designed to prevent county superintendents or district superintendents from spending their spare time and part of the time that should be spent on their jobs or duties for which they are hired, in the diversion of selling insurance or in selling school text books or other types of endeavor. This bill also will prevent superintendents, district superintendents and county superintendents from being in the employ of corporations which may control these various industrial towns. This bill is a good bill, and the only objection that I can see can very easily be overcome, because any school superintendent who makes a speech certainly knows that he will be entitled to recive an honorarium in the nature of expense, and I imagine he will be able to take care of any proper amount in that way without any difficulty at all. So, Mr. Speaker, I ask the membership of the House to vote favorably upon this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

STATEMENT BY MR. TURNER

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House.

This Session is going to end within a few days and it is now patent that there will be no legislation, nor action to assist the stricken coal indusry in Pennsylvania, unless the Democratic majority in this House are willing to abandon its obstructive tactics and permit the consideration and passage of the only measure introduced at this Session looking toward the permanent solution of the difficulties facing both anthracite and bituminous coal.

On January 13, I introduced a measure providing for a well financed commission of action to deal on a broad scale with all the related problems of the coal industry in Pennsylvania and to formulate a long-range program of recovery. For it must be clear to any sensible person that the ills of the coal industry cannot be cured in a day nor perhaps in a generation. But we must start at some time and the longer we delay, the sicker the patient will be.

On two different occasions during the last five months, I have urged the Committee on Mines and Mining to report my bill to the Floor of the House. As a last resort, a week ago, I moved to discharge the Committee on Mines and Mining from further consideration of the bill. At the direction of the Democratic majority of this House, my motion to discharge the committee was tabled to prevent further consideration of the question.

On May the 18th, Governor Earle, submitted what was termed "An Ad-Interim Report", from the Anthracite Coal Industry Commission named by himself on February 16, 1937, "to make a careful and thorough investigation of the economic and social condition in the anthracite coal region, the causes underlying the present dislocation of the anthracite coal mining industry, the extent of illegal mining and he causes therefor, the methods and means by which the existing economic and social conditions in said district may be alleviated or remedied".

After spending $33,000.00, the Commission reported that it was in irreconcilable disagreement on fundamental problems and therefore three separate reports were submitted.

Three of the Commissioners wanted the State to go into the coal mining business to absorb about 7000 workers engaged in illegal mining. One of them even going so far as to hold that the only future for the coal industry lay in Federal and State ownership and operation. The two remaining Commissioners were opposed to this extreme course and suggested a number of practical proposals.

If you will re-read the statement I made when I introduced my bill in January, you will find that at that time I suggested every one of the recommendations of the Commission, with the exception of government ownership and operation.

A careful reading of the report of the Governor's Commission and the recommendations of the different members will bring you to the conclusion that what the coal industry needs is a well-financed commission backed by the full authority of the State to go out and attack the manifold evils that have beset the coal industry and to be the driving force as well as the coordinator of all agencies that can be brought into play, whether governmental or private, for the rehabilitation of coal.

Aside from the undesirable proposition to put the State into the coal mining business at this time, there is practically no legislation necessary to enable any commission to begin work on a program.

As an illustration, vocational schools, CCC Camps, reforestation and other public works in the area can be procured without further State legislation.

One of the Commissioners dwells at great length, and all of them touch upon, the necessity for the reduction in the price of coal to the consumer. Here again action and not legislation is necessary. Also they emphasize the necessity to advertise the improvment in the methods of handling coal, and the mechanical equipment for burning it efficiently. Here again, legislation will not accomplish the objective. The industry itself must do the greater part. However, a commission of action could correlate the disorganized agencies now dealing in the distribution of coal and in the manufacture of appliances necessary to promote its consumption on a larger scale.

We have now lost five months that could have been devoted to this. If we end this Session with nothing but the report of the Governor's Commission, it may be another year or two before anything is done. On the other hand, the prompt passage of my bill will afford the only early and effective manner of beginning the campaign for rehabilitation. No greater problem confronts the people of Pennsylvania. Will you lightly toss it aside?

SENATE BILLS MADE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that all Senate Bills on third reading requiring amendments be called up in their order.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2499, (Senate Bill No. 1358), entitled:

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. HAGERTY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 670, Printer's No. 1015, was dropped from the calendar on Thursday, May 27, 1937, be reconsidered.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hagerty, vote on the motion?

Mr. HAGERTY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominisky, vote on the motion?

Mr. OMINSKY, Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, is it proper procedure to call the bill up at this time? I believe the bill is on the calendar improperly and, I believe, cannot be called from the calendar. The motion, I believe, is to reconsider the vote by which the bill was dropped from the calendar.

The SPEAKER. That is the motion; to reconsider the vote by which the bill was dropped from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. McARDLE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 588, Printer's No. 855, was dropped from the calendar on Thursday, May 27, 1937, be reconsidered.

Mr. PIOLE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McArdle, vote on the motion?

Mr. McARDLE. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Piole, vote on the motion?

Mr. PIOLE. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the noes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, fifty members having voted in the affirmative and sixty in the negative the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HAGERTY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 670, Printer's No. 1015, on page 11 of today's calendar, bills on third reading which was just placed on the calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 670, entitled:

An Act to promote the safety of travelers upon street railways and buses and others in cities of the first class by requiring a crew of two on each street railway car and certain buses.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, speaking officially for the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor and the Trolleymen's Union of Philadelphia, I ask all members of the House, friends of labor to vote for this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. YOURISHIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Luzerne whether this is lobbying on the floor of the House?

Mr. YOURISHIN. No sir, Mr. Speaker, it is not.

Mr. TURNER. I would like to ask the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Speaker, whether he heard the Governor's address to the House the other night?

Mr. YOURISHIN. I did not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. I would then ask, Mr. Speaker, that a copy of the address be supplied to the gentleman from Luzerne.

Mr. YOURISHIN. I would be glad to have it, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

POLL OF HOUSE.

The SPEAKER. Less than a quorum having voted on the last roll call, the Sergeant-at-arms will close the doors of the House; no one will be permitted to enter but members, and no members will be permitted to leave. The Sergeant-at-arms will take their stations at the doors.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 2, 1937. No. 69.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, June 2, 1937

The Senate met at 2 o'clock p. m.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Harvey Huffman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Our Father, we draw near unto Thee in deep humility, with sincere thanks. Some sorrows have come, yet the sickle of the grim reaper has not entered here. With a measure of health and vigor, a half a hundred of men have ascended this hill from day to day, seeking honest service. Soon the finished fabric of their collaborations will go forth, and their transactions here become history.

Imperfect mortals, we have made mistakes. We commend to Thy gracious favor our motives, our impulses, our efforts. Bless that which we have tried to do. We have sought to remember the forgotten man; to lighten the burdens of the weak; to repay the sweat of honest toil; to banish want in a world of plenty; to cure the sores on Lazarus, and to save the rich man from hell.

God hasten the day when our faith shall merge with vision—our hopes lost in glad fruition. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. RANKIN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in view of the fact that the committee appointed to investigate governmental functions in the City of Philadelphia will be unable to make a final report at this session, and since the functions of the committee have been continued, by Senate Resolution No. 102-A, during the interim, I feel it incumbent to make a financial report on behalf of the committee at this time, so that the members of the Senate and the public may know just what is being done with the money appropriated to this committee; and I should like to read into the record a statement of the expenses thus far incurred.

The committee spent in railroad and traveling expenses for two of its members, to Detroit and Cleveland, a total of	$126.23
A. Pomerantz & Company, for stationery and supplies,	36.30
Victor E. Carlin, an expert witness from Chicago,	74.50
Weintraub, for photographs,	3.50
Kenneth McCarron, expert witness from Detroit, (Chief Appraiser of the City of Detroit)	125.00
Whiting-Patterson Paper Company, for supplies,	137.20
Bond Brothers, carbon paper,	20.00
U. S. Typewriter Ribbon Company,	12.00
Maurice Memerow, an attorney, in preparation of reports by the committee to this Senate,	150.00
Railroad and traveling expenses to Cincinnati, for three members of the committee,	151.78
Thomas Devine, an accountant, for services,	160.00
Stenographic Service,	6342.00
A total expenditure to date of	$7338.51

In addition to this the committee expects that the stenographic services will entail a further expense of approximately $5,000, which includes the furnishing to each member of the committee of a complete copy of all the testimony taken at the hearings, as well as a complete copy each to the Senate and House of Representatives, and a copy to be incorporated with the final report. This stenographic transcript of the testimony taken at the hearings runs into thousands of pages, and the agreement was made with the stenographer, at the beginning of the committee's work, that the transcript would be furnished at twenty cents a page.

The committee hopes to be able to return to the treasury a considerable sum after its work is completed. Its expenses will probably be not more than an additional $2,000; and therefore the expectation is that approximately $10,000 will be returned to the treasury, so that the total expenditures by the committee will be in the sum of about $15,000.

Mr. REED. Mr. resident, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, in 1934 the people of my district elected me to a seat in this Senate, and for whatever honor this office has brought me, my sincere appreciation and gratitude go back to those good folks at home who made it possible.

Mindful of this glory, be it what it may, I wish to say that I have never enthused myself with a desire for publi office, because study and observation have convinced me that the innumerable incidental and collateral activities that have grown up around it back through the years have rendered independent and pure public service almost impossible of performance.

A public office is a public trust, but when it becomes burdened with political affiliations, like a sick man, it cannot freely function, and woe is the people when politics alone control the field. Time has taught the story that the longer one remains in public office the more submissive must he become to the political will, and the independence he once cherished and enjoyed is lost forever from public service.

My life has been moulded in the open, disciplined to respect and consider the opinions of others, but trained to never surrender the inherent right to think and act in accordance with the guiding impulses of mind and conscience. I desire, at the end of my term, to go back to my people free and discharged of any restraints or mental reservations imposed by this political office. I shall go back fully determined not to seek re-election, leaving it to another to fill the office vacated by me. Due to this decision, and feeling that we may not again meet together as Senators in this Chamber, I desire to avail myself of this opportunity to make a few observations concerning our relations in this body, and then to present a matter which should lie close to the heart of every true and loyal citizen of this great Republic.

Upon my advent into this Senate, I was at once impressed with the courtesy, honor and helpfulness that existed among the members, and time has ripened these relations into inseparable and imperishable friendships, which shall grow sweeter and dearer in memory of each succeeding year. True, many sincere and well-defined differences of opinion have arisen in this hall, but such must be the case under our free form of government, and may it be our hope and desire that such freedom of thought and independence of action shall never be suppressed or enslaved by any system of political or social despotism. Our future depends on men of independent thought and action, and as I leave this Senate I admonish those who follow to give serious consideration to their own individual mental impressions and permit them not to be overcome or destroyed except when fully proven to be in error.

I leave this Senate fully conscious of my many errors and short-comings, but relieved by the thought that in my efforts to serve the people I have sincerely tried to represent my district and my State in a manner consistent with my ability and strength, and in this respect I desire no other judge than the just and pure judge of public opinion.

I shall carry away with me many fond and lasting impressions arising out of the activities on the floor of this Senate: such as Senator Woodward's subtle discourse on the subject of "Forget-me-nots", and Senator Cavalcante's powerful argument on the "Change of Venue", but no hatred, malice or ill-will shall be permitted to tarnish or efface in the slightest degree the beautiful memories that shall arise from our relations here; and as we separate at the close of this Session may a wise and just Providence guide and direct the course of us all.

Before closing, Mr. President, I want to call to the attention of the Senate, that one hundred and fifty years ago there was established upon this continent a small and weak Republic. Its formation had been effected through the courage and determination of an independent and energetic people scattered along the Atlantic Seaboard, from the Province of Canada to the Domain of Florida.

From a long and devasting war with the Mother Country the Thirteen American Colonies had emerged victorious and free, charged with a indomitable spirit and a just desire to eliminate forever from the rising Republic every root and vestige of tyranny and oppression, so that the colonists and their descendants to the last generation would be forever relieved from the suffering and destruction incident to despotic rule.

From noble minds and pure hearts had come a Constitution, preserving and protecting the rights and liberties of all. Under this Constitution a weak American Republic grew in strength and grandeur, until its domain extended from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf, and peoples from all nations found within its borders freedom, opportunity and peace. Under the Constitution, with territorial expansion, also came the growth and spread of agriculture, the gradual development of manufacturing, the rise and extension of commerce, whereby a weak and struggling Republic of 1787 was transformed into a strong and powerful nation, respected at home and revered abroad.

No people ever enjoyed under any Constitution the broad rights and beneficient powers granted and guaranteed to the people of the United States under this Magna Charta, which provided for the establishment of justice, the promotion of the general welfare and the securing of the blessings of liberty to all.

Under this Charter of liberty and opportunity, the weak became strong, the poor became prosperous and the unknown became great.

We honor and respect today the Constitutional Fathers; we cherish and revere the Constitution they have given us, and as we contemplate and consider the millions that have found peace and tranquility under its protection, we are led to inquire how long will it continue to guard its people against the tyrant and the despot. The answer comes back through a million vibrant, patriotic throats, so long as justice, honor, uprightness and equity continue to permeate and direct the people.

One hundred and fifty years have elapsed and the Republic still lives. A great British thinker once said that the American Commonwealth would not live more than one hundred and fifty years under its republican form of government. Are his opinion and prophecy to come true? This is a matter of grave concern. Many evidences appear today on the horizon to support his view, calling for the most penetrating and extensive investigation and consideration.

The guiding principle of our Republic is freedom and equality for all. In support of this principle many of the patriotic fathers sacrificed their lives upon the altar of their Country. No time brings this though more forcefully before us than this Memorial Season when we go forth to respect and commemorate our honored dead.

Great and powerful forces in the past have collided for the division and destruction of our Republic, but a wise and courageous people have on all such occasions stood by the Constitution and saved the Union, and brought the Ship of State back to the middle of the stream. Great was their sacrifice and great must be the sacrifice of any sincere citizen who wills to stand for his Country against the tyrant and the despot. Today when so many cross-winds of opinion, fostering discord, hate and tyranny, beat against the Republic, alarm and disturbance seize us, but faith reassures us that the course advocated and effected by our fathers will continue to be the course demanded by our people.

We know that there are at work today strong political and social forces that would drive our country into tyranny on the left; we know that there are also strong political and social forces at work to pull our country into despotism on the right. The surging tide of social unrest is rolling this vexing problem immediately before you, and as a result you must choose this day whom you will serve. As for me, I shall stand by the fathers and pursue the middle course: justice for all, tyranny for none.

Let us not be deceived; let us apply ourselves to this complicated problem; let us call back for use the common sense of Franklin; the wisdom of Jefferson; the charity of Lincoln; the courage of Cleveland; and, ignoring all other considerations, do equity and justice alike to all.

Keep also in mind the three departments of government—executive, legislative and judicial; and remember that when any one of them is subjected to the control of any of the others, then our democratic system of government is thrown out of balance and heads toward a dictatorship.

Let us set out at once, ere it is too late, on this sacred and patriotic mission, pledged and determined to cast aside all bias and prejudice; all hatred and ill-will; and, standing on the Constitution, guided by right alone, direct the Republic away from the tyrannical forces that at present infest it, and lead it back into the temperate or middle zone, where justice and equality prevail, where peace and security abide; and by so doing we shall reawaken and engender the true and unselfish spirit of the Constitutional fathers, and thereby preserve the Union for future greatness and glory.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am encouraged to rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, our distinguished floor leader, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, would make this speech if he were here. He has, however gone to Missouri to celebrate a wedding anniversary. It is one of the few occasions in the life of the Senator from Bucks when he was not either willing or able to postpone the action indefinitely. Perhaps the elder statesman, who sits before me, the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher, ought to be on the floor making this reply to triumphant Democracy; but he is naturally so modest he will not do it. I dare not call upon the Senator from Blair for fear he will devote the entire afternoon to a description of Altoona. I had planned my summer to go to Oxford, England, or Edinburgh, Scotland, but I am changing my reservations to Altoona.

I represent the minority; I am not, however, making a valedictory, my valedictory will only be made in case the mutilation of my district forces me to be absent this fall.

We have in the minority a man who has said very little about leaving the Senate, but who will leave the Senate at the end of this term; and he is a man who can ill be spared. He never exploits himself; he reads the bill, and he has reasons for what he says. He generally votes "Yes"—I always vote "Yes,"—and I am sure I speak for not only the Republicans but for the Democrats in expressing much sincere regret at the future absence from the Senate Chamber of the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Charles H. Ealy.

Now, as to the deeds and the misdeeds of triumphant Democracy in the past five months, I visualize our Governor as a busy bacteriologist, with a very able assistant, the Secretary of Labor, and, it might be said, a laboratory; and we are, more less, his guinea pigs—we are lined up and have to extend our arms, and we receive the following hypodermics: Serum number one, the Workmen's Compensation Act. As this has left the laboratory, it has increased the cost of doing business in this State 360%. Some Democrats somehow sterlized part of this bill, and they brought the cost of doing business, of ordinary industry, down 60% and the cost of doing business for the mining industry 106%.

There is a companion bill which does not seem to receive very much attention, but you have all heard of occupational diseases, and when I read in Secretary Bashore's new pamphlet that there were four hundred diseases listed, and that no man may be driven back to his work before he was well, and that he would receive aid and compensation before he was well,—and I thought of the four hundred diseases—I confess I felt somewhat appalled.

Serum number two is the Chain Store Tax. I received seven thousand letters of protest against this tax. There were nine thousand unchained grocers who did not want the tax. The parties in interest did not want the tax—except the Governor, and he refused to practice birth control.

This tax is weighted with the sin of punishment. You may have heard there are one hundred and thirty, I believe, chain stores that have already shut their doors. Many people have been thrown out of employment by the chain stores. This tax illustrates the dictum of John Marshall that "The power to tax is the power to destroy."

Serum number three is the Full Crew Bill. The crew is to be so full that there will be forty-five thousand additional hands with the equipment of a train. In Senator Homsher's district there is a railroad with only one locomotive, but this is a security measure—their cars must be fully manned, to prevent this one locomotive from doing something—I do not know what. There, is another railroad where there are two locomotives, and, therefore, danger of collision; but when the crews are fully manned the man power will be so great that as one locomotive approaches the other the crews can dismount and, by man power, restrain the trains from any collision.

Serum number four is the Governor's "ability to pay" tax on intangible personal property. This is a capital tax. It is, if anything, a tax on "inability to pay." When all the intangibles of Pennsylvania have been driven out of the State, to our other, sister States, this tax will cease and determine.

I have not time to take up all the commissions. I regret very much that the Senator from Berks, Mr. Ruth, is spending twenty-five thousand dollars on Chet Keyes. I hate to see twenty-five thousand dollars of Pennsylvania money banked in Kansas City.

The only commission I will refer to is the Anthracite Bootleg Coal Commission, which began in the Racquet Club in Philadelphia, and which seems to have sterilized itself by so many diverse reports. This commission illustrates the fallacy of hiring experts. An expert, you may have heard, is a man who knows exactly what we know already, but who comes from a distance at great expense.

As I wish to be perfectly fair to triumphant Democracy, I have to admit that there are at least two constructive measures—there may be more—and one is the Goodrich plan of centralizing relief. I could not vote for the one hundred thirty-seven million dollar appropriation because it was in a lump sum, but I heartily approve of the Goodrich plan. The other constructive measure, in my opinion, is the consolidation of the Highway Patrol with the State Police.

I have, perhaps, forgotten the alcohol bill. There are three alcohol bills. I sat in the committee—was a member of the committee—and never before had I had the honor of being in conference with Mr. David Lawrence. It appears that the Chairman of this Committee, the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe, discovered that Mr. Lawrence was of Swedish ancestry, and this was the opening step, perhaps, of the tri-centenary celebration of the Swede's landing on the Delaware River. Mr. Lawrence was present with that committee, and I fell under his influence; in fact, I became a near Democrat, he was so pleasant, and I voted "Aye" on all three liquor bills; so that, I think I am in line for an appointment— I may yet be in the new White House with the third Earle of Haverford, second labor President of the United States; I may get an appointment, and I may be chief or second butler or only doorkeeper in the proletarian menage of our next Labor President.

I have composed a brief prayer, which I have not committed to memory, and it is truly a Democratic prayer of benediction. It is called:

NUNC DIMITTIS

Lord now lettest thou thy servants depart in peace, according to thy word and the word of all our masters in the Executive departments. For our eyes have seen our salvation in doing as we are bid. For he the Chief Executive hath regarded the lowliness of his hand workers. For he that is mighty will magnify us (some of us) and we shall have patronage. He hath showed strength with his arm, he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath risen from the rich and filled the hungry with good things. He hath holpen his servants Israel. He hath holpen himself which is the main point and will come (perhaps) into the promised land of milk and honey, the happy land of Canaan.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I am very sure whether we will publicly admit it of not, we all of us agree one hundred per cent, with the utterances of the distinguished Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, when he tells us that there should be three Departments of Government; and I am also equally sure that we hope he will determine not to retire at the end of this esssion, but to come back to this body two years hence with the thought of carrying out some of the convictions that he has now been giving to us as to what this body should do.

I have a belief that every member of this Senate would, if allowed to work his own will, have attempted to enact legislation in this body with a thought single to the welfare of the people of Pennsylvania. Unfortunately, that has not been a position that some of the members felt that they could take. On Monday of last week, we were called over to the House to listen to a message of the Governor. During the course of that message, the Governor, knowing that he was broadcasting to the people of the State, as well as talking to the members of the House and the Senate, took occasion to say that on all sides were lobbyists, and calling our attention to the fact that lobbyists had invaded the rooms of the Senate. I had a vantage point where I could see the entire room, because I was sitting just under the Governor, and I want to say that in looking around the House I saw the faces of many lobbyists, they were very largely heads of the Departments of this Administration, and they were turning around to see just whom the Governor meant, apparently not conscious of the fact that the members of the legislature were very conscious of the fact that they were the chief lobbyists that were recognized in this session. On the other hand, I saw very few people that I knew as lobbyists, who were representing great businesses of Pennsylvania. There were social welfare workers, and there were heads of the Departments. I presume those who were representing business were listening to the talk of the Governor over the radio, down in the hotels, because he called attention to the fact that they had always been fearful to show their faces.

Mr. President, I have always had the idea that people had the right to come to the legislature if they represented the business industries of Pennsylvania, and tell us just what our legislature is going to do to them. Personally, I would like to have them come and place their cards on the table, and in the long time I have served in this legislature, I have never been conscious of any great amount of pressure that they have ever been able to put upon me. I have often been conscious of a pressure placed upon us by Administration heads, and in that connection I want to read briefly from one of the morning papers:

"EARLE CRUSHED HOUSE UPRISING ON RELIEF PLAN

"Action Insures Passage of $137,150,000 Program in Consolidated Aid and Assistance

"The Administration today crushed a House rebellion and forced an accord among the Democratic majority to assure passage of Governor Earle's $137,150,000 consolidated relief and assistance program.

"Agreements to enact the plan, which previously met Senate approval, was reached following a two-hour conference between the Governor, Democratic State Chairman, David L. Lawrence and Democratic members of the House Welfare Committee.

"The extent to which the Administration went in forcing the balky House Democrats in line was evident by the appearance of Democratic county leaders to the capital to threaten the rebellious members with the end of their legislative careers unless they backed the Governor's plan.

"Another "pressure" factor employed by the Administration in forcing an agreement on its program was to threaten dismissal of State jobholders sponsored by the rebellious legislators.

"In announcing the agreement, Lawrence, acting spokesman for the Governor, said the Legislature "will adjourn by Thursday unless there is some slip.'"

There, Mr. President, is the lobby by which this body is most conscious, and it is high time that we here in the Senate recognize that if this Republic to which Senator Reed has referred, shall survive, that we have got to maintain the three branches of Government, each respecting the other, but not fearing the other. We do not all agree with the thought of our beloved and distinguished colleague from Philadelphia that the one good thing the Earle Administration, or one of the good things the Earle Administration is doing in this session is to change entirely the present system of looking after relief, ripping out the time-honored institutions that we have back home, the Poor Boards. I have always thought that the reason for legislation should be a demand on the part of the people back home. We had no demand from the people back home for much of this legislation, certainly not any for the ripper of the Poor Boards of Pennsylvania. I happen to represent in my district the one county which has that ancient system of the Poor Boards in every borough and township in the county. Personally, I thought it ought to be the county unit. We had an election by the people on the question as to whether to become unified into a county unit and it was voted down by more than five to one. The pressure has been almost entirely from Harrisburg, and from the social welfare group for this legislation, and I contend that we should first listen to the people who elected us to represent them here.

Now Mr. President, I feel that while we are talking this morning about the three branches of Government, that we should write into the record the comments of one who for several sessions sat in the lower House some of the time as an official observer, representing a Democratic newspaper of which he is now the major editor, the Honorable Hiram D. Andrews, Editor of the "Johnstown Democrat", and part of the time as a member in House of Representatives here. He has some comments. here in the Harrisburg paper, under date of Monday morning, May 31, 1937, which I feel we all should read. One editorial is headed "Action, joint action", the other is headed "And Free Government be Re-established", an open letter to the Pennsylvania members of the General Assembly, and so that we may be able to read this letter when we get through with our work in this session, Mr. President, I offer it to be placed in the record:

The PRESIDENT. The matter will be placed in the record of the Senate.

"CAN PARLIAMENTARY GOVERNMENT BE RE-ESTABLISHED?

To the Honorable, The Members of the House and Senate:

The fate of Democracy depends wholly upon the efficiency of parliamentary government. As to whether Pennsylvania has ceased to be a Democarcy and has become a Bureaucracy is a matter upon which the members of the Legislature are peculiarly in a position to pass judgment. They know what part they have played and what part the Executive, the bureaus and departments have played in conceiving legislation and in determining legislative decisions and procedure.

That the Executive and the Legislative branches of the government can best serve the public interest by working together in all good faith is a fact that cannot be successfully questioned. The Executive is, indeed, directly charged with the responsibility of advising the Legislature concerning the needs of the State. In a Democracy, however, persuasion by the Executive must stop short of coercion.

Popular faith in parliamentary government has undoubtedly been impaired. It has become the practice upon the part of both the press and the public to speak of parliamentary bodies as groups of more or less malicious nitwits, constantly bent upon mischief, who are only restrained from committing unpardonable assaults upon political propriety by a forceful Executive. A cynical press has let the public to believe that the bad little boys in the Legislature seldom act as good little boys unless the Executive raps their naughty little fingers and compels them to be good.

As a result, whenever there is a disagreement concerning policy between the Legislature and the Excutive, unabashed comment runs to the effect the Executive is "putting on the heat," that party leaders are "clubbing" the "rebels" into line and that legislative rebellions are about to be crushed. Great newspapers, which are the advocates of particular policies and which profess their devotion to Democratic principles, are frequently the first to voice the opinion that only the Executive's will should be supreme in legislative halls.

In a Democracy, the Executive is no more justified in attempting to coerce the Legislature than the Legislature would be in attempting to coerce the Executive, when, in the performance of his duties, he is required to disapprove or approve legislative enactments. As to whether the level of patriotism, of intelligence, of disinterested devotion to the public interest is as high in Legislative Halls as it is in the Executive Chamber is, perhaps, an open question. That candidates for the Legislature, unqualified for public service, have been, upon occasion, swept into office by clinging to the coattails of other men is undoubtedly true. Political organizations frequently pay small regard to legislative personnel, since party leaders sometimes operate on the theory that the less a legislator knows of cares the easier it is to vote him.

There is a disposition in "regular" party circles to regard any disagreement between the Executive and legislative leaders as evidence of party disintegration, as a sign of disloyalty. On the contrary, however, such disagreements are healthy and natural developments. Disagreement vitalizes an organziation—particularly if there is a disposition to struggle through disagreements to a natural, inevitable compromise. Nothing is quite as deadly in an organization as complete harmony—which can only mean the absence, the dearth, the very death of constructive thought. When 300 men are forever agreed only one of the 300 is doing any thinking.

During the progress of the Legislature now in session the Executive, upon more than one occasion, has personally steered disagreement in the direction of compromise. Were the Executive and the Legislature the only factors involved many disagreements could be speedily resolved by a matching of ideas and minds. But there are other disturbing factors which enter the legislative arena, confidently sheltered beneath the Executive's official mantle. They are the various departments, bureaus and commissions of the State Government. Whereas the Executive is mainly interested in establishing certain principles with a view of creating "instruments of power," which can be used in the public interest, the bureaus, departments and commissions have more intimate ends to serve. They are interested in extending and solidifying their position, in increasing their power, in extending their domains by increasing personnel activities—desirable and undesirable. While the Executive and—presumably the Legislature—speak for the public the bureaus, departments and commission speak for themselves While the Executive and—presumably—the Legislature represents the public, the bureaus, departments and commissions represent the intrenched payroll.

There was a time when Capitol Hill executives were the agents and servants of the Legislature. Now, apparently, the Legislature is regarded as the servant of the executives. Instead of the Legislature telling the bureaus, departments and commissions what they should do, the bureaus, departments and commissions tell the Legislature what it should do. Of all lobbyists, the executive payrollers are the most active and pernicious. So active are they that they have convinced many a legislator that a department bill is necessarily a "must" measure.

Members of the House and Senate know that upon more than one occasion representatives of the bureaus, departments and commissions have entered legislative committee rooms—unbidden—to instruct and demand. Department executives have told members of committees they "would not stand for this," or "would not stand for that." There have been repeated evidences of a broad assumption that members of the Legislature were quite incapable of understanding departmental needs and that the business of a Legislature was to swallow the departmental "must" program as presented.

Upon more than one occasion members of the Legislature, as a result of pressure, have voted for measures which outraged their convictions and intelligence. There have been times when members of the Legislature, standing on the floor of House and Senate, have parroted phrases placed in their mouths by departmental lobbyists and have defended proposals with which they were actually not in agreement. Parliamentary government cannot continue to endure under such auspices.

If members of the Legislature are not acquainted with the structure of their government, if they have never given thought to problems of taxation and education, if their social philosophy is handed to them and accepted without question then, indeed, the Legislature must necessarily be subject to control. But, on the other hand, if the Legislature has actually ceased to be a body having original jurisdiction, if it is outmoded, why continue it? If we have ceased to be a functioning Democracy and have actually become a Bureaucracy let's be practical and create a Legislature composed exclusively of the bureaucrats.

One thing is certain, real parliamentary government cannot continue to function as an institution which is actually Democratic unless Legislatures decree for themselves a "new birth of freedom." Both the members of the Legislature and the people must make a choice between Democracy and Bureaucracy, between the public interest and the interests of the payroll.

The mounting costs of government are primarily the result of too much bureaucracy. Under existing conditions the Legislature is getting the blame and the bureaucrats are getting the appropriations.

The question. "Can parliamentary government be reestablished?" is not an idle inquiry. It, instead strikes at the very heart of many pending problems. This much is certain. The bureaus, departments and commissions have entirely too much to say about legislation. From the standpoint of a sound legislative program the power of the bureaucratic lobby should be broken once for all—and democratic parliamentary government reestablished."

"CAUTION, GENTLEMEN, CAUTION!

The army which fights on too wide a front is sometimes defeated because its lines are extended until they become so thin the enemy is able to break through and "roll up the line." There is just a possibility Democratic Party strategists have been—and are, perhaps, attempting to achieve objectives at one fell swoop which could be gained to better advantage by winning one particular fight at a time.

The Democratic organization has officially declared war on every local officeholder elected by the people. Many of the party's proposals are sound but the number of proposals pending may mark the campaign as unsound. Although the general public has, as yet, failed to realize the fact, the Democratic strategists are committed to a comprehensive ripper program.

A pending constitution amendment would, if eventually adopted, make it possible for counties to frame their own charters and rip every elective jobholder out of office, with the exception of the county commissioners and the controller. This proposal is sound—but it serves notice on elective county job holders that they are on their way out.

The enactment of the Ruth-Brownfeld Bill—which is admittedly a step in the right direction—is notice to the members of hundreds of school boards that they, too—are on their way out. The registry assessors have been ripped out of office. Legislation, which is now pending and which has had the indorsement of party leaders, makes marked inroads upon the powers of township supervisors. The Moomaw-Moran Bill would rip the local tax collectors out of office. Other pending bills would, if enacted, make a drastic reduction in the number of local magistrates and constables.

All of these measures may be sound but, taken together they certainly make a big bite. Oh yes, in addition to the county officers, township supervisors, registry assessors, tax collectors, local magistrates and constables there should be added members of poor boards. They are to be ripped. And so every local elective officer is under fire. Perhaps they all deserve to be, but whether it is good strategy to take them all on for a finish fight at the same time remains to be seen.

The particularly unfortunate feature of the situation is this. There seems to be a disposition in official circles at Harrisburg to centralize the appointive power in the State whenever elective jobholders are ripped out of office.

Party leaders seem to be rather confident they are in touch with public sentiment throughout the State. How some of them, who actually never get around very much, keep in such close contact with sentiment is a matter that has never been explained. However, judging by what we hear the people say, the impression seems to be that the leaders are biting off more than they can comfortably chew. Reform in Pennsylvania has always been a process of evolution rather than the result of revolution."

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I rise to a question or personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, it is difficult for me to allow the remarks of the last two speakers to go upon the record of this Journal without calling upon them to search the recesses of their memory somewhat and look back several years among the many years that at least one of them have spent in this Senatorial Hall. When we hear these tirades and Senatorial remarks as to the character of the present State Administration, when we hear the innuendo of chicanery and undue influence flowing out of the Executive Office and its collateral branches, my mind cannot help but go back over the history of this State four or five years, and I think of the disorganized ineffective makeshift Government that we had here in Harrisburg. I think that the legislature, meeting twice in one year to make special appropriations in special sessions for relief; I saw them appropriate ten and twenty million dollars when they knew at the time they were doing it that it was only a make-shift; they were kidding themselves, they were being blind to the actual situation that existed in our State and in our Nation. I saw the school districts all over the State of Pennsylvania with their appropriations unpaid, their teachers unpaid, their light bills unpaid, their coal bills unpaid. I saw our hospitals closing down, or materially crippled in their work, because of the financial policies of the Administration and the bickerings that existed right here in the Halls of this Senate, that were crippling at that time practically every function of our State Government, and I look back to the record of the preceding Administration, and no matter with what good intent and purpose that Administration may have been actuated, and no matter with what ideals the Party who opposed that Administration on the floor of this Senate may have been actuated, you saw in this State, on the 1st of January, 1935, a disorganized Government which had fallen down in practically all of its fiscal obligations to the people of this Commonwealth.

We have seen a great change come about in the past two and half years. We have seen the finances of this State being put on a business-like and a sound basis. We may be appropriating for this biennium $137,000,000 for relief and assistance, but, Mr. President, we are doing it in a business-like way, we are doing it in a way which we calculate will meet the needs of our people for the next two years. We are not gambling with prosperity being just around the corner, we are trying to underwrite the administration of our State Government for two years and not for six weeks. We want to do this work for the next two years. We have increased the appropriation to state aided institutions of practically all kinds in the budget that will be passed in the general appropriation bill. Our hospitals will not be closed and our institutions will not need to be crippled in their work the next two years, because we have increased the benefit to practically all the people of this Commonwealth. We have started out on a program which was hamstrung two years ago, and we are starting out in this administration now on a program which will organize to a large extent, our tubercular institutions, which will restore educational standards and educational levels in this State; we are trying to do something with the mechanics of our State Government for the people of the State of Pennsylvania, who are not satisfied with the interminable bickerings that went on on the floor of this Legislature for four years under the preceding Administration.

Mr. President, it is small matter to the people of Pennsylvania by what means these accomplishments are effected, the people of Pennsylvania have confidence in their Governor and his Administration. There is no more striking example of that than the endorsement the people of Pennsylvania gave his administration at the polls last Fall, and I am quite sure that the people of Pennsylvania do not resent any advice that the Executive of this State may furnish to the members of either branch of this legislature, because people of the State of Pennsylvania in every hamlet and town in the State of Pennsylvania know that the policies of this administration, Mr. President, have worked. The people of this State know the contrast that exists in this State Government today to what they had four years ago. The people of this State know today that they have a Government, they know that it is functioning, they know it is run on a business-like basis, they know that al the make-shifts and haphazard policies of the preceding administration have been thrown over-board, and I say to you, Mr. President, in spite of the remarks of the two preceding Senators, that the people of Pennsylvania will show by their action in the future that they approve the policies and the actions of this administration, and that the idle talk and the criticisms and unfair innuendos that have been flung at this administration and its Executive Branch will be forgotten on the base of the performance of the service that this State Government will render.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communications:

ASKING RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 534.

Telegram from John W. Adelman, Regional Director of CIO, and Maurice Tarr, President, Greater Philadelphia Pharmacists Association Guild, asking for reconsideration of Senate Bill No. 534 which was defeated.

An Act to prohibit any person firm or corporation not directly involved in a labor strike or lockout recruiting or securing or offering to secure employment for persons to take the place of employes where a labor strike or a lockout exists and providing for legally established employment service.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to call the attention of the Senate to this Bill (Senate Bill No. 1127. This is a bill of the Civil Liberties Union at Washington, D. C., and it is also a bill, badly framed, because it is impossible to get a definition of when a labor strike is "pending". I have a definition here, but they do not define it, and in the second place, I would like to know what is going to happen in the case of a general strike. You may remember in Great Britain, about twelve years ago, they had a general strike, and the wheels of all kinds of industry and every activity of service was stopped temporarily, and volunteers came forward to carry on, and I would ask whether this bill would prohibit the voluntary action of the people who are suffering to run their own industries in case of a strike?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have read this bill and tried to find out just what the provisions of this bill are. As I read this bill, it may be aimed at a good purpose, but the language used is not clear, and I am afraid that if the Senate would pass such a law, it would be doing something that might have serious consequences, and regret it later. When is a strike "pending"? When is a labor difficulty "pending"? And how many people under the terms of this bill would it take to tie up a factory if the people raise the question with the employer as to whether or not they are receiving proper treatment? Five people could create a condition when a strike is pending" and they could tie up a large industry, because no employer would have the right by himself to go out and engage other people to work, nor would he have the right to ask assistant superintendents, nor anyone else who has a job there to work, nor would he be permitted under this Act to engage other labor. He might be under the terms of the Act "subject to a fine or imprisonment, or both". Now I think, I am quite sure, that whoever sponsored this bill has not thought this thing out to its final conclusion. I can see by the way the bill was amended in its first form that any court would read that in the amendment. As it is now it still leaves the question up in the air, and I do not think even labor would call upon us to vote for this bill or criticise anyone for voting against it.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in speaking with the sponsor of the bill I find that what he has in mind is a commendable piece of legislation. In the past in many labor disputes and also in the present, it has been the habit of certain employers to go into a district where there is a strike. We have what is called strike breaking agencies, who for a consideration will bring into a particular plant that is on a strike what you call "strike-breakers" or "scabs". These men work for a rather large daily wage, and take their lives in their hands and go into a community where there is a local strike in progress and attempt to break that strike by working at the positions of the men who are out on strike. Now, the intention of this bill is to stop this wholesale strike-breaking that has been very much of a curse in the labor problem in the State of Pennsylvania for many years. I do not know just what the word "pending" may do to the bill but I do not see any difficulty in it. As I understand it, "pending" means that there is a strike in progress. Now if, there is a strike in progress, there is a legitimate difference between the employer and employee about their labor relations. You now have set up in the State, under the McGinnis bill a Labor Relations Board to settle that difficulty, but there is nothing under the McGinnis bill to stop an unscrupulous employer from bringing in strike-breakers, and they have been the cause of more strife and of great chaos in the labor legitimate disputes between the employers and the employees than any other cause. Now, I think the whole bill tends to strike at this evil of hiring professional strike-breakers to step into the employment of men who are legitimately out on a labor strike, and if there is any difficulty brought into the picture by the word "pending", I think that should be ironed out, naturally, but all in all I think the bill itself is aimed at a good cause and should be supported.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—25

Cavalcante,	Henney,	McCreesh,	Rodgers,
Dent,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Ruth,

Less than a majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1377 (House Bill No. 473), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for the construction of a masonry weir across the Shenango River near the Chestnut Street Bridge at Sharon and the construction of a shelter house for recording devices near the weir

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, may I venture to ask the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee whether this small appropriation went through his committee or not?

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, this went through Committee on Appropriations.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1387 (House Bill No. 1330), entitled:

An Act relating to magistrates and magistrates' courts in the City of Philadelphia imposing certain duties upon and prohibiting certain practices by magistrates imposing certain duties on the City Controller in regard thereto authorizing the employment by him of additional clerks and fixing their compensation regulating the practice in magistrates' courts the entering of bail and the issuance of discharges in criminal cases in the County of Philadelphia conferring certain powers over magistrates and magistrates' courts and imposing certain duties in connection therewith upon the judges of the courts of common pleas of the County of Philadelphia providing for the appointment and employment of stenographers to report proceedings in certain cases heard by magistrates fixing salaries of persons employed by authority of this act providing penalties for violations of the provisions thereof and repealing certain prior acts.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 1387, which is a Magistrate's Bill, applies only to Philadelphia. Now, there is nothing in this entire bill that in any way changes what is the present day procedure before a magistrate. It contains a lot of words and transfers some business from our present magistrates to the City Controller, and then establishes a court with one hundred dollar jurisdiction, which the magistrates now have, and the only thing that this bill does is create $20,800 worth of new jobs for deserving political followers. That is all this bill does, it does not do another thing. It places something like a $20,800.00 additional expense to the City of Philadelphia, and in these days, when everybody is telling everybody else how economically the government of the State and the City is being run, that is all this bill means, it means four, six or eleven jobs for the faithful nothing more and nothing less.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, has suggested that we devote attention to the statements on the other side of this Senate regarding the activities of the Democratic Party, who have talked on efforts being made to decide what is really being done. The Senator from Philadelphia Mr. Salus has followed his predecessor. In one breath he says the bill does nothing and in the other breath he states that it creates eleven new jobs. He neglected to tell the Senate that the eleven new jobs are created by the fact that under this Magistrate's Bill criminal cases are restricted and controlled and regulated, so that they will be heard in central offices, where everybody may have an opportunity to be present and where there will be a check on the activities of the magistrates so that there will not be so many discharges and so much political influence in the obtaining of these discharges of criminal cases, where the City saving is the result. Of the eleven jobs to which he refers, ten of them are assistant district attorneys who would be appointed by Republican district attorneys. If the jobs are deserving political jobs they will go to the other side of the house, not to Democrats. He does not call attention to the fact that this bill is an aid for the betterment of the magistrates' system in Philadelphia, and notwithstanding the fact that whatever jobs are created they will be appointed by a Republican Administration. Those who feel keenly on this subject and who are interested in it have foregone the question of political privileges and left those appointments to the District Attorney, and have merely attempted to set up a system, or rather correct a system which exists now and is a stench in the nostrils of all decent citizens of Philadelphia. We are going through the process now of trying five magistrates of the remaining fourteen or fifteen who have been on trial in Philadelphia for misconduct in office. Only recently another man was tried before a magistrate and was discharged, and the excuse was that while he discharged the parties to the controversy, he did not know that he was not doing the proper thing when he discharged them, because the doctor was not there to testify. That man, I understand, and my recollection is was a Democratic magistrate, and I hold no brief for him, but we have five or six more to try on the same changes, Republicans and Democrats, and it is time that this thing was stopped, and that the magistrates' system be put on a basis where we will know that we will get decent and honest decisions. This bill is aimed at that. My friends on the other side can become active now trying to get assistant district attorneys.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, it makes little difference whether these positions are for Republicans or Democrats. In the first place, I notice that some of these positions are to be created by the Controller. There are four positions by the Controller.. There is one position by the chief magistrate and six assistants by the chief magistrate. The Controller in Philadelphia does not happen to be a Republican. The Chief Magistrate in Philadelphia happens to be a Republican. The thought and hope of our Democratic friends is that in next November there will be a few more deserving Democrats elected, and then the Chief Magistrate will be a Democrat, but that is not the question involved. If all these appointments were to go to Republicans and to none other than Republicans, I would oppose this bill at this time for the simple reason that in the City of Philadelphia we cannot meet our obligations now, and why add additional obligations for men for political jobs.

Mr. President, I have read in the papers of Philadelphia, and other papers, where four men on relief have been brought before a magistrate and there it has been found out that those poor men, in addition to getting their relief, have saved one hundred or two hundred dollars and put it on the side in the bank for, maybe some future use for the benefit of himself, his family and the hungry children who sit in his back kitchen so that perhaps when relief is off he will have a few dollars left to buy them bread and butter, and lo and behold, we see these men held up in the public papers as "chislers", because they are trying, maybe, to put a dollar on the side for their lovely children. Now, they are not "chiselers" and they should not be charged with being "chiselers", they should be looked upon, maybe, as the better class of people on relief, but those who will take public funds or jobs from the poor are the "chiselers". I am sure as soon as the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania begins to take the "chislers" off their pay-rolls and feed the hungry and the poor, the sooner we will have peace and tranquillity and happiness among our hungry people. We sat in this Chamber and we heard the cry up there (referring to the gallery) "sixty-four cents a day; stop robbing our treasury and you can give us poor unfortunates our sixty-four cents a day." Who are the unfortunate men? They are the unfortunate people, and this session of the legislature has read of the high-salaried men on the pay-rolls, who are an expense of millions of dollars during this present session. Who are the "chiselers"? "Who are the chiselers"? Those who are stealing the Commonwealth's money in particular offices, where they do not earn the money, or the poor unfortunates that sat in the gallery and cried "give me sixty-four cents a day"? This is part of the "chiseling" game, and I do not blame them that there is nearly revolution and revolt in this country.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I can suggest to the Senator from Philadelphia that if the people who pay taxes would try to pass an Act of this legislature eliminating 367 unnecessary employees, there will be more than sufficient money left, more than seven hundred thousand dollars, and that would easily take care of the twenty-two thousand dollars, the expense of this bill, but the Receiver of Taxes, along with you Republican members from Philadelphia are very anxious to save the taxpayers' money, so they are busily engaged now in trying to save that seven hundred thousand dollars in jobs, and at the same time hunting up new taxes to try to make up the thirty million dollar indebtedness which the City of Philadelphia has—it is thirty-seven million dollars now. If the creditors proceeded to judgment they would put the City of Philadelphia into bankruptcy and they are busily engaged in hiring high-priced lawyers to stop this legislature from eliminating the office of the Receiver of Taxes and turning the duties over the City Treasurer and save this seven hundred thousand dollars annually. It appears there are eight hundred and sixty-eight thousand dollars worth of bad bills on the books of the City of Philadelphia and there is not a change to collect a dollar. This Act provides that there shall be a man stationed in the Controller's office so that when the taxpayer pays a bill, he must come in contact with the Controller, where the taxes are paid and the registered owner of the property in the City of Philadelphia and the assessment record on that property; and it restricts the "straw" bails; all those things together with some other things to which we have not referred are set up in this bill as a corrective measure,—the added expense will now run into hundreds of thousands of dollars in these straw bails alone. I suggest that the Senators vote favorably on this bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am in a very embarrassing position, one magistrate in one of the wards in my district is now in jail for embezzlement and my predelictions are entirely with this bill, if it will help that condition, and after listening to the patched oratory of my colleague from Philadelphia and the talks of my neighbors, I have reduced the choice, and instead of going into the wash-room I am going to vote "No."

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30

Dando,	Jacobs,	McGinnis,	Shapiro,
Dent,	Jaspan,	Mundy,	Sipe,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1398 (House Bil No. 1086), on third reading entitled:

An Act to fix the compensation of the assistant cutodians of the Senate chamber and the hall of the House of Representatives go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1405, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two hundred two of the act approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws six hundred eighty-two) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending, revising and cosolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire-insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carriers by such companies, associations and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties and repealing existing laws" by authorizing stock insurance companies, other than life, to transact any or all of the classes and kinds of insurance mentioned in said section, subject to certain conditions.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1450, (House Bill No. 1962), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Internal Affairs for the completion of certain geologic and topographic surveys and studies and the publication of the results thereof and also the republication of certain surveys and studies in order to make the same available to the citizens of the State and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, when this bill came over from the House and was very carefully considered by the committee and reported to the floor, I was hoping that I would be permitted to vote in favor of the bill but after the bill had come to the floor of the Senate and was on third reading, an amendment had been placed to it which destroys the primary intent of the bill as it came from the House, and I am indeed sorry at this late hour that I did not perceive that the amendment placed in the bill on third reading had the effect of destroying the original intent of the bill. The records will show that I attempted to receive from the proponent of the amendment the courtesy of allowing the bill to go over, so that we might weigh the amendment and see to what extent it affected the bill as it stood on he calendar. The bill was intended to pay the salaries of the district attorneys in certain counties of the Commonwealth, and I was in full accord with the bill for that purpose, but the amendment placed in the bill now departs from that original purpose, and the amendments go to the extent of dealing with vacancies that might occur in the office of District Attorney. In talking about this bill and the office of District Attorney, may I call the attention of the members of his Senate to the fact that at this present time there is on the law books of this Commonwealth and a decision of our Supreme Court, which is tantamount to abrogating home rule or local administration of the District Attorney. The decision of the Supreme Court decides that the Attorney General of this Commonwealth may, without any cause whatsoever, under the Common Law power enter a county in this Commonwealth and gently displace the District Attorney and assume the duties of that office. Now, for many years this county code, or this bill that is before us, in its original form, provided that any vacancy in the office of the District Attorney would be filled by an appointment by the Court of Common Pleas of that particular County, recognizing local interest and the local rules of submitting to the judges of the court of Common Pleas to select for the appointment to that office an attorney whom they knew to be competent and fit to fill that office. The bill with the amendments in it now I do not know the motives of the gentleman that offered the amendments, but the amendments to the bill deal not with the increasing of any salaries, but may I read it so that you may know just what departure there has been from the original intent of the bill?

"Section 247. The said Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Filling of vacancies'. 'If any vacancies shall occur either by death, resignation, removal from office or from the County, or otherwise, the judges of the Court of Common Pleas shall supply such vacancy by appointment of a competent person to fill the office during the balance of the unexpired term..

Mark you this:

'Provided, however, that the counties of the fourth class the Governor shall supply such vacancies by appointment as aforesaid'.

Now, why single out counties of the fourth class and take that power out of the Courts of those counties and place it in the hands of the Governor is indeed alarming and hard to understand. If it is proper to take the power of appointment out of the Common Pleas Courts of counties of the fourth class, why not make the Act uniform and have it apply to all classes of counties in this Commonwealth?

Mr. President, we members of this Senate have gone on record in many matters, we have ripped out public officials, we have curbed their powers in many instances, but I can see no lawful justification, no reason why counties of the fourth class of this Commonwealth should be singled out and the power to appoint to vacancies in the office of District Attorney, taken from the Courts of Common Pleas and placed in the hands of the Governor. Probably somebody may say that I am slightly biased in this matter, due to the fact that in my county I have the honor to say that the majority of our court was elected on the Democratic ticket, and that they are honorable men and would exercise that power with decency and honesty conformably to the Constitution and the laws of this Commonwealth. Why that power should be taken from them now I do not know. I know of no vacancy that exists in the office of the District Attorney in any county of the fourth class, and yet, probably my talk on this bill will have just as much effect as my colleagues of the Democratic faith who argued on their bills have had. However, I will add, in the final hours of this Senate my plea to you gentlemen is to be fair and honest, and to be decent, and if you think that there is just, honorable and honest justification for the passage of this bill with this amendment, do not fail in your consciences, and vote for the bill. I hope and I trust that your consciences will follow the path that my conscience is following at this time, and say by your vote that there is no justification why counties of the fourth class should be singled out and the judges of those counties deprived of their rights to fill vacancies in the office of the District Attorney, while leaving that same power in the Courts of Common Pleas of all other counties.

MOTION TO RESOLVE INTO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Mr. President, I am going to make a last honest effort to put this bill in the form where we can vote for it, and I shall move at this time that this Senate resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, for the purpose of striking out these objectionable features, and I make that motion at this time, Mr. President.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thinks the motion should be put in writing, the proposed amendment, if it is a special amendment. Is it the thought of the Senator to make that motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, they are special strike-out amendments which will not require a reprinting, as I understand the rule.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the bill go over in its order until the Senator prepares his amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 488. (House Bill No. 99), as follows:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and thirty-six) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder" by changing adding to and increasing the schedules of compensation prescribing and changing certain presumptions and rules of evidence increasing the requirements to be met by employers desiring to be self-insurers conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers and insurance carriers including the cost of administering the workmen's compensation system including the rehabilitation of employes providing for the payment of compensation for certain second injuries and for the rehabilitation

Section 302 (a) In every contract of hiring made after December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and fifteen and in every contract of hiring renewed or extended by mutual consent expressed or implied after said date it shall be conclusively presumed that the parties have accepted the provisions of article three of this act and have agreed to be bound thereby unless there be at the time of the making renewal or extension of such contract an express statement in writing from either party to the other that the provisions of article three of this act are not intended to apply and unless a true copy of such written statement accompanied by proof of service thereof upon the other party setting forth under oath or affirmation the time place and manner of such service be filed with the department within ten days after such service and before any accident has occurred Every contract of hire oral written or implied from circumstances now in operation or made or implied on or before December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and fifteen shall be conclusively presumed to continue subject to the provisions of article three hereof unless either party shall on or before said date in writing have notified the other party to such contract that the provisions of article three hereof are not intended to apply and unless there shall be filed with the department a true copy of such notice together with proof of service within the time and in the manner hereinabove prescribed Provided however That the provisions of this section shall not be so construed as to impair the obligations of any contract now in force In the employment of minors article three shall be presumed to apply unless the said written notice be given by or to the parent or guardian of the minor It shall not be lawful for any officer or agent o fthis Commonwealth or for any county city borough town or township therein or for any officer or agent thereof or for any other governmental authority created by the laws of this Commonwealth to give such notice of rejection of the provisions of this article to any employe of the Commonwealth or of such governmental agency

[(b) After December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and fifteen an employer who permits the entry upon premises occupied by him or under his control of a laborer or an assistant hired by an employe or contractor for the performance upon such premises of a part of the employer's regular business entrusted to that employe or contractor shall be conclusively presumed to have agreed to pay to such laborer or assistant compensation in accordance with the provisions of article three unless the employer shall post in a conspicuous place upon the premises where the laborer's or assistant's work is done a notice of his intention not to pay such compensation and unless there be filed with the department within ten days thereafter and before any accident has occurred a true copy of such notice together with proof of the posting of the same setting forth upon oath or affirmation the time place and manner of such posting and after December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and fifteen any such laborer or assistant who shall enter upon premises occupied by or under control of such employer for the purpose of doing such work shall be conclusively presumed to have agreed to accept the compensation provided in article three in lieu of his right of action under article two unless he shall have given notice in writing to the employer at the time of entering upon such employer's premises for the purpose of doing his work of his intention not to accept such compensation and unless within ten days thereafter and before any accident has occurred there shall have been filed with the department a true copy of such notice accompanied by proof of service thereof upon such employer setting forth under oath or affirmation the time place and manner of such service And in such cases where article three binds such employer and such laborer or assistant it shall not be in effect between the intermediate employer or contractor and such laborer or assistant unless otherwise expressly agreed

Section 303 Such agreement shall constitute an acceptance of all the provisions of article three of this act and shall operate as a surrender by the parties thereto of their rights to any form or amount of compensation or damages for any injury or death occurring in the course of the employment or to any method of determination thereof other than as provided in article three of this act Such agreement shall bind the employer and his personal representatives and the employe his or her wife or husband widow or widower next of kin and other dependents]

Section 304 Any agreement between employer and employe for the operation or non-operation of the provisions of article three of this act may be terminated prior to any accident by either party upon sixty days notice to the other in writing if a copy of such notice with proof of service be filed in the department as provided in section three hundred and two of this article

Section 305 Every employer liable under this act to pay compensation shall insure the payment of compensation in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund or in any insurance company or mutual association or company authorized to insure such liability in this Commonwealth unless such employer shall be exempted by the [Bureau] department from such insurance An employer desiring to be exempt from insuring [the whole or any part of] his liability for compensation shall make application to the [Bureau] department showing his financial ability to pay such compensation whereupon the [Bureau] department if satisfied of the applicant's financial ability shall [by written order make] upon the payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) issue to the applicant a permit authorizing such exemption Whenever an application for an exemption shall be filed by or on behalf of more than one employer every such employer applicant shall be required to pay the fee prescribed by this section in order to obtain a permit The department shall establish a period of twelve (12) calendar months to begin and end at such times as the department shall prescribe which shall be known as the annual exemption period Unless previously revoked all permits issued under this section shall expire and terminate on the last day of the annual exemption period for which they were issued Permits issued under this act shall be renewed upon the filing of an application and the payment of a renewal fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) The [Bureau] department may from time to time require further statements of the financial ability of such employer and if at any time it should appear to the department that such employer [appear] is no longer able to pay compensation shall revoke its [order] permit granting exemption in which case the employer shall immediately subscribe to the State Workmen's Insurance Fund or insure his liability in [a] any insurance company or mutual association or company as aforesaid

Every employer liable under this act to pay compensation shall post and maintain in a conspicuous place in and about his place of business a notice that he has secured the payment of compensation to his employes and their dependents in accordance with the provisions of this section Such notice shall be in such form as shall be prescribed by the department and among other things shall set forth the name of the employer's insurance carrier or that he has been exempted by the department from carrying insurance as the case may be

If any employer shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section with respect to posting and maintaining the notice required by this act such employer shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25) and costs of prosecution

If any employer fails to comply with the provisions of this section with respect to insuring or securing an exemption from insurance or in any applications filed under this section shall furnish the department with a false or fraudulent statement of outstanding incurred liability for compensation or any other false or fraudulent statement such employer [shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and] upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding shall for every such failure or false or fraudulent statement [shall] be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than [five] three hundred dollars [($500)] ($300) and costs of prosecution and upon failure to pay such fine and costs shall be sentenced to undergo [or] imprisonment for a period of not more than [six] three months [or both at the discretion of the court] Every day's violation and every false or fraudulent statement shall constitute a separate offense It shall be the duty of the [Bureau] department to enforce the provisions of this section and it shall investigate all violations that are brought to its notice and shall institute prosecutions for violations thereof

In any proceeding against an employer under this section a certificate of non-insurance issued by the official Workmen's Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau and a certificate of the department showing that the defendant has not been exempted from obtaining insurance under this section shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated

For the purposes of this section minor children working for their parents shall be conclusively presumed to be emancipated

Section 306 The following schedule of compensation is hereby established for injuries resulting in total disability

(a) For the first five hundred weeks after the seventh day of total disability sixty-five per centum of the wages of the injured employe as defined in section three hundred and nine but the compensation shall not be more than [fifteen] eighteen dollars per week nor less than [seven] twelve dollars per week [and shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of sixty-five hundred dollars] Provided That if total disability shall continue for a period of four weeks or more the employe also shall be entitled to receive compensation for the first seven days of total disability Should total disability become permanent then in addition to the compensation provided for five hundred weeks and beginning at the expiration of the five hundred weeks the sum of thirty dollars per month shall be payable during such permanent total disability prior to death Provided however that such monthly payments shall cease if the person receiving compensation accepts other public funds contributed to by the employer which equal or exceed the amount of compensation payments Nothing in this clause shall require payment of compensation after disability shall cease [Should partial disability be followed by total disability the period of five hundred weeks mentioned in this clause of this section shall be reduced by the number of weeks during which compensation was paid for such partial disability]

(b) For disability partial in character (except the particular cases mentioned in clause (c) sixty-five per centum of the difference between the wages of the injured employe as defined in section three hundred and nine and the earning power of the employe thereafter but such compensation shall not be more than [fifteen] eighteen dollars per week This compensation shall be paid during the period of such disability but not for more than four hundred weeks Such compensation shall begin upon the termination of total disability if any total disability resulted from the injury and upon the termination of compensation for permanent injuries compensable under section three hundred six (c) if the partial disability shall result from injuries other than the permanent injury compensated for under clause (c) of this section If the partial disability shall continue for a period of four weeks or more the employee shall also be entitled to receive compensation for the first seven days of partial disability should total disability be followed by partial disability the period of four hundred weeks mentioned in this clause shall be reduced by the number of weeks during which compensation was paid for total disability In cases of partial disability the actual earnings of an employe after the date of injury may along with other evidence be received as evidence of the extent of his earning power but if such employe has no such earnings the referee may in the interest of justice fix such earning power as shall be reasonable having due regard to the character of his previous employment and the nature of his injury and his partial disability

(c) For all disability resulting from permanent injuries of the following classes the compensation shall be exclusively as follows

For the loss of a hand sixty-five per centum of wages during [one hundred and seventy-five] two hundred weeks

6 If there be neither widow widower children nor dependent parent entitled to compensation [the following] or if the widow widower children or dependent parent are not receiving the maximum compensation payable under this act then to the brothers and sisters until the age of eighteen if actually dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of his death fifteen per centum of wages for one brother or sister and five per centum additional for each additional brother or sister with a maximum of twenty-five per centum such compensation to be paid to their guardian or if there be no guardian to such other person as may be designated by the board as hereinafter provided but the provisions of this paragraph in connection with other provisions of this section shall not be deemed to require the payment of compensation in excess of eighteen dollars per week in any one case

7 Whether or not there be dependents as aforesaid the reasonable expense of burial not exceeding [one hundred and fifty two hundred dollars which shall be paid by the employer or insurer directly to the undertaker (without deduction of any amounts theretofore paid for compensation or for medical expenses)

Compensation shall be payable under this section to or on account of any child brother or sister only if and while such child brother [and] or sister is under the age of [sixteen] eighteen unless such child brother or sister is dependent by reason of disability in which case such compensation shall be paid to or on account of such child brother or sister until he or she reaches the age of twenty-one No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widow unless she was living with her deceased husband at the time of his death or was then actually dependent upon him for support No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widower unless he be incapable of self-support at the time of his wife's death and be at such time dependent upon her for suport The terms "child" and "children" shall include stepchildren and adopted children and children to whom he stood in loco parentis if members of decedent's household at the time of his death and shall include posthumous children Should any dependent of a deceased employe die or remarry or should the widower become capable of self-support the right of such dependent or widower to compensation under this section shall cease Provided however That upon remarriage of any widow other than a non-resident alien widow the compensation of such widow shall continue as hereinbefore provided for [one-third of the period during which compensation then remains payable to her] two years from the data of such remarriage If the compensation payable under this section to any person shall for any cause cease the compensation to the remaining persons entitled thereunder shall thereafter be the same as would have been payable to them had they been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the death of the deceased

The wages upon which death compensation shall be based shall not in any one case be less than [twelve] eighteen dollars and fifty cents per week

This compensation shall be paid during five hundred weeks except that in the case of a widow if she shall remain unmarried compensation shall continue after said period of five hundred weeks at the rate of five dollars per week for life and in the case of children entitled to compensation under this section the compensation of each child shall continue after said period of five hundred weeks until such child reaches the age of eighteen at the rate of twenty-five per centum of wages but not in excess of five dollars per week if there is one child thirty-five per centum of wages but not in excess of eight dollars per week if there are two children fifty per centum of wages but not in excess of ten dollars per week if there are three children seventy-five per centum of wages but not in excess of fifteen dollars per week if there are four children or more

The Board may if the best interest of a child or children shall so require at any time order and direct the compensation payable to a child or children or to a widow or a widower on account of any child or children to be paid to the guardian of such child or children or if there be no guardian to such other person as the Board as hereinafter provided may direct If there be no guardian or committee of any minor dependent or insane employe or dependent on whose account compensation is payable the amount payable on account of such minor dependent or insane employe or dependent may be paid to any surviving parent or to such other person as the Board may order and direct and the Board may require any person other than a guardian or committee to whom it has directed compensation for a minor dependent or insane employe or dependent to be paid to render as and when it shall so order accounts of the receipts and disbursements of such person and to file with it a satisfactory bond in a sum sufficient to secure the proper application of the moneys received by such person

Section 308 Except as hereinafter provided all compensation payable under this article shall be payable in periodical installments as to wages of the employe were payable before the accident

All compensation payable under this article shall be made payable only to employes or their dependents or their guardians or such other persons as may be designated by the Board

Any person copartnership association or corporation who or which violates any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay for each violation a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00)

Section 309 Wherever in this article the term "wages" is used it shall be construed to mean the money rate at which the service rendered is recompensed under the contract of hiring in force at the time of the accident [and] except that if the injured employe was at the time of the injury a minor and his disability shall continue after he shall have reached the age of twenty-one years his average weekly wage for the purpose of determining the compensation payable under this act shall be determined on the basis of the earnings that such minor if not disabled probably would earn at the age of twenty-one (21) years In determining such probable earnings due consideration shall be given to the employe's aptitude education and experience fitting him for any employment not only in the trade or business in which he was engaged at the time of the injury but in any other trade or business In determining such probable earnings the referee and the Board shall have the right to receive into evidence as competent testimony the earnings of other employes of similar aptitude education and experience engaged in a similar trade or business and findings based upon such testimony shall be final The term "wages" [shall not include gratuities received from the employer or others nor shall it include amounts deducted by the employer under the contract of hiring for labor furnished or paid for by the employer and necessary for the performance of such contract by the employe but] shall include board and lodging received from the employer Whenever the employe receives board and lodging as a part of his wages the board shall be rated at fifty cents per day and board together with lodging shall be rated at one dollar per day for the purpose of computing wages In seasonable occupations the employe's weekly wages shall be taken to be one-fiftieth of the total wages which he has earned from all occupations during the year immediately preceding the accident unless it be shown that during such year by reason of exceptional causes such method of computation does not ascertain fairly the earnings of the employe in which case the period for calculation shall be extended so far to give a basis for the fair ascertainment of his average weekly earnings in continuous employments if immediately prior to the accident the rate of wages was fixed by the day or hour or by the output of the employe his weekly wages shall be taken to be five and one-half times his average earnings at such rate for a working day and using as a basis of calculation his earnings during so much of the preceding six months as he worked for the same employer Provided however That if the employe regularly and habitually worked more than five and one-half days per week the weekly wage shall be found by multiplying his average earnings for working day by six six and one-half or seven according to the customary number of working days constituting an ordinary week in his occupation or trade Where the employe is working under concurrent contracts with two or more employers his wages from all employers shall be considered as if earned from the employer liable for compensation

In cases where the employe has been in the employ of the employer less than one full week and by reason of the shortness of time during which the employe has been in the employment of the employer or the nature or terms of the employment it is impracticable to ascertain the average weekly wages as hereinbefore provided the average weekly amount which during the six months previous to the injury has been earned by other persons employed by the same employer under similar contracts of hiring or if there are no persons so employed by other persons employed by other employers under similar contracts of hiring under similar conditions shall be taken as the basis for the ascertainment of the weekly wages of such employe

Section 308 Compensation under this article to alien dependent widows and children not residents of the United States shall be two-thirds of the amount provided in each case for residents and the employer may at any time commute all future installments of compensation payable to alien dependents not residents of the United States by paying to such alien dependents the then value thereof calculated in accordance with the provisions of section three hundred and [sixteen] fourteen of this article

Alien widowers parents brothers and sisters not residents of the United States shall not be entitled to any compensation

Non-resident alien dependents may be officially represented by the Consular officers of the nation of which such alien or aliens may be citizens or subjects and in such cases the Consular officers shall have the right to receive for distribution to such non-resident alien dependents all compensation awarded hereunder and the receipt of such Consular officers shall be a full discharge of all sums paid to and received by them

Section 311 Unless the employer shall have actual knowledge of the occurrence of the injury or unless the employe or [some one] someone in his behalf or some of the dependents or [some one] someone in their behalf shall give notice thereof to the employer within [fourteen] thirty days after the accident no compensation shall be due until such notice be given or knowledge obtained but if the employe or other beneficiary shall show that his delay in giving notice was due to his mistake or ignorance of fact or of law or to his physical or mental disability or to fraud misrepresentation or deceit or to any other reasonable cause or excuse then compensation shall be allowed unless the employer shall show that he did not know and by reasonable diligence could not have learned of the accident and that he was prejudiced by the delay in which case he shall be relieved to the extent of such prejudice [and unless such knowledge be obtained or notice given within ninety days after the occurrence of the injury no compensation shall be allowed]

Section 312 The notice referred to in section three hundred and eleven hereof shall be substantially in the following form

To (name of employer)

You are hereby notified that an injury of the following character (.....) was suffered by (name of employe injured) who was in your employment at (place) while engaged as (kind of employment) on or about the (.....) day of (.....) Anno Domini (.....) and that compensation will be claimed therefor

Date ..... Signed (.....)

But no variation from this form shall be material if the notice be sufficient to inform the employer that a certain employe by name received an injury the character of which is described in ordinary language in the course of his employment on or about a time specified and at or near a place specified

Section 313 The notices referred to in section three hundred and two and section three hundred and eleven hereof may be served personally upon the employer or upon the manager or superintendent in charge of the works or business in which the accident occurred or by sending them through the registered mail to the employer at his or its last known residence or place of business or if the employer be a corporation either foreign or domestic then upon the president vice-president secretary or treasurer thereof Knowledge of the occurrence of the injury on the part of any of said agents shall be the knowledge of the employer

Section 314 At any time after an injury the employe if so requested by his employer must submit himself for examination at some reasonable time and place to a physician or physicians legally authorized to practice under the laws of such place who shall be selected and paid by the employer If the employe shall refuse upon the request of the employer to submit to the examination by the physician or physicians selected by the employer the Board may upon petition of the employer order the employe to submit to an examination at a time and place set by it and by the physician or physicians selected and paid by the employer or by a physician or physicians designated by it and paid by the employer and if the employe shall without reasonable cause or excuse disobey or disregard such order he shall be deprived of his right to compensation under this article The Board may at any time after such first examination upon petition of the employer order the employe to submit himself to such further examinations as it shall deem reasonable and necessary at such times and places and by such physicians as it may designate and in such case the employer shall pay the fees and expenses of the examining physician or physicians and the reasonable traveling expenses and loss of wages incurred by the employe in order to submit himself to such examination The refusal or neglect without reasonable cause or excuse of the employe to submit to such examination ordered by the Board either before or after an agreement or award shall deprive him of the right to compensation under this article during the continuance of such refusal or neglect and the period of such neglect or refusal shall be deducted from the period during which compensation would otherwise be payable

The employe shall be entitled to have a physician or physicians of his own selection to be paid by him participate in any examination requested by his employer or ordered by the Board

Section 315 In cases of personal injury all claims for compensation shall be forever barred unless within [one year] two years after the accident the parties shall have agreed upon the compensation payable under this article or unless within [one year] two years after the accident one of the parties shall have filed a petition as provided in article four hereof In cases of death all claims for compensation shall be forever barred unless within [one year] two years after the date of death the parties shall have agreed upon the compensation under this article or unless within [one year] two years after the date of death one of the parties shall have filed a petition as provided in article four hereof where however payments of compensation have been made in any case or an employer has failed to report to the department the occurrence of an injury to his employe as required by law said limitations shall not take effect until the expiration of [one year] two years from the time of the making of the last payment or the filing of such report as the case may be

Section 316 The compensation contemplated by this article may at any time be commuted by the Board at its then value when discounted at five per centum interest with annual rests disregarding the probability of the beneficiary's death upon application of either party with due notice to the other if it appear that such commutation will be for the best interest of the employe or the dependents of the deceased employe and that it will avoid undue expense or undue hardship to either party or that such employe or dependent has removed or is about to remove from the United States or that the employer has sold or otherwise disposed of the whole or the greater part of his business or assets Except as provided in section three hundred and ten hereof and in this section no commutation of compensation shall be made

Any person partnership association or corporation who or which shall commute or attempt to commute any compensation directly or indirectly in violation of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or to undergo imprisonment for a period of not more than six (6) months or both in the discretion of the court No person partnership association or corporation shall be entitled to receive credit for any moneys paid in violation of this section and any such payment shall be considered as a gratuity

Section 317 At any time after the approval of an agreement or after the entry of the award a sum equal to all future instalments of compensation may (where death or the nature of the injury renders the amount of future payments certain) with the approval of the Board be paid by the employer to any savings bank trust company or life insurance company in good standing and authorized to do business in this [State] Commonwealth and such sum together with all interest thereon shall thereafter be held in trust for the employe or the dependents of the employe who shall have no further recourse against the employer The payment of such sum by the employer evidenced by the receipt of the trustee noted upon the prothonotary's docket shall operate as a satisfaction of said award as to the employer Payments from said fund shall be made by the trustee in the same amounts and at the same periods as are herein required of the employer until said fund and interest shall be exhausted In the appointment of the trustee preference shall be given in the discretion of the Board to the choice of the employe or the dependents of the deceased employe Should however there remain any unexpended balance of any fund after the payment of all sums due under this act such balance shall be repaid to the employer who made the original payment or to his legal representative

Section 318 The right of compensation granted by this article of this act shall have the same preference (without limit of amount) against the assets of an employer liable for such compensation as is now or may hereafter be allowed by law for a claim for unpaid wages for labor Provided however That no claim for compensation shall have priority over any judgment mortgage or conveyance of land recorded prior to the filing of the petition award or agreement as to compensation in the office of the prothonotary of the county in which the land is situated Claims for payments due under this article of this act shall not be assignable and (except as provided in section five hundred and one of article five hereof) shall be exempt from all claims of creditors and from levy execution or attachment which exemption may not be waived

Section 319 Where a third person is liable to the employe or the dependents for the injury or death the employer shall be subrogated to the right of the employe or the dependents against such third person less reasonable attorney's fees and other proper disbursements but only to the extent of the compensation payable under this article by the employer Any recovery against such third person in excess of the compensation theretofore paid by the employer shall be paid forthwith to the employe or to the dependents and shall be treated as an advance payment by the employer on account of any future installments of compensation

Section 320 (a) If the employe at the time of the accident is a minor under the age of eighteen years employed or permitted to work in violation of any provision of the laws of this Commonwealth relating to minors of such age compensation either in the case of injury or death of such employe shall be double the amount that would be payable to such minor if legally employed The amount by which such compensation shall exceed that provided for in case of legal employment may be referred to as "additional compensation"

(b) The employer and not the insurance carrier shall be liable for the additional compensation Any provision in an insurance policy undertaking to relieve an employer from such liability shall be void

(c) Where death or the nature of the injury renders the amount of future payments certain the total amount of the additional compensation subject to discount as in the case of commutation shall be immediately due and payable It shall be deposited subject to the approval of the Board in any savings bank trust company or life insurance company in good standing and authorized to do business in this [State] Commonwealth

Where the amount of the future payments of compensation is uncertain the Board shall upon the approval of the agreement or the entry of an award determine as nearly as may be the total amount of payment to be made and the additional compensation so calculated shall immediately upon such determination become due and payable by the employer The amount may be redetermined by the Board and any increase shall then become due and payable and any excess which shall be shown to have been paid shall be returned to the person paying the same Upon determination of the amount due it shall be deposited as above provided Payments of compensation out of deposits shall be made to the employe or dependents as payments of other compensation are made Provided however That the Board may in its discretion and upon inquiry as in cases of commutation accelerate such payments

(d) The provisions of the foregoing paragraph (c) shall not apply to employers who are exempted by the [bureau] department from the necessity of carrying insurance

(e) Possession of an employment certificate duly issued and transmitted to the employer in accordance with the provisions of the child labor law and receipt thereof duly acknowledged by him shall be conclusive evidence to such employer of his legal right to employ the minor for whose employment such certificate has been issued

(f) The possession of an age certificate duly issued and transmitted to the employer by the school authorities of the school district in which a minor resides shall be conclusive evidence to the employer of the minor's age as certified therein

(g) If neither party has elected not to be bound by the provisions of article three of the act to which this act is an amendment in the manner prescribed by section three hundred and two of said act they shall be held to have agreed to be bound by the provisions of this act and to have waived any other right or remedy at law or in equity for the recovery of damages for injuries occurring under the circumstances herein described

Section 321 In the case of an employe who dies as the result of an injury received in the course of his employment and who leaves no dependents entitled to receive in excess of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) compensation under this act the employer or his insurance carrier as the case may be shall pay the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) to the department or the difference between the amount paid to such dependents and the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) In order to enforce payment of such sum the department shall have power to file with the Board a claim for the same in like manner as any claim for compensation may be filed under this act

(b) One-fourth of the amount received in each case under this section by the department but not however in excess of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) shall be paid by it into the Federal Rehabilitation Fund of the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue which amount shall be credited to a ledger account to be known as the industrial rehabilitation account All moneys credited to the industrial rehabilitation account are hereby appropriated to the department for all expenses incurred by the department under the rehabilitation laws of this Commonwealth for the rehabilitation of injured employes who are entitled to compensation under this act and who are as a result of their injuries totally or partially incapacitated for renumerative employment in the line of employment in which they were employed at the time of injury

(c) The balance of any amount received by the department under this section shall be paid by it into the State Workmen's Insurance Fund of the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue which amount shall be credited to a ledger account to be known as the second injury reserve account All amounts credited to the second injury reserve account are hereby appropriated to the department for the payment of the compensation provided in clause (g) of section three hundred and six of this act

Whenever at the end of any fiscal year of the Commonwealth after the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-five the total amount credited to the second injury reserve account shall exceed a sum equivalent to three times the average annual incurred liability of the account to employes or their dependents during the three preceding fiscal years the surplus amount shall upon requisition of the department be transferred to the Federal Rehabilitation Fund of the State Treasury and credited to the industrial rehabilitation account in such fund All amounts so transferred shall be available and are hereby appropriated to the department for the same purposes for which moneys credited to such account are appropriated by subsection (b) of this section

Section 407 On or after the [tenth] seventh day after any accident shall have occurred the employer and employe or his dependents may agree upon the compensation payable to the employe or his dependents under this act but any agreement made prior to the [tenth] seventh day after the accident shall have occurred or permitting a commutation of payments contrary to the provisions of this act or varying the amount to be paid or the period during which compensation shall be payable as provided in this act shall be wholly null and void It shall be unlawful for any employer to accept a receipt showing the payment of compensation when in fact no such payment has been made

All agreements made in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be in writing and signed by all parties in interest

It shall be unlawful for any employer to procure or to cause to be procured the signature of any employe or of the dependents of any employe or of other persons in interest to any agreement or supplemental agreement which is not complete in every material respect and any employer so doing shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each offense

All agreements for compensation and all supplemental agreements for the modification suspension reinstatement or termination thereof and all receipts executed by any injured employe of whatever age or by any dependent to whom compensation is payable under section three hundred seven and who has attained the age of sixteen years years shall be valid and binding unless modified or set aside as hereinafter provided

Section 408 All agreements for compensation may be modified suspended reinstated or terminated at any time by a supplemental agreement approved by the [board] department if the incapacity of an injured employe has increased decreased recurred or temporarily or finally terminated or if the status of any dependent has changed

Section 409 Whenever an agreement or supplemental agreement shall be executed between an employer and an employe or his dependents as provided by this act such agreement shall be executed in triplicate Two copies thereof signed by all parties in interest shall be mailed or delivered to the [board] department within thirty days after execution by the claimant It shall be the duty of the [board] department to examine the agreement to determine whether it conforms to the provisions of section four hundred and seven to notify the parties thereto of its validity or invalidity under the aforesaid section within thirty days after the copies of the agreement have been mailed or delivered to it and if the agreement be approved to send to the employe together with such notification of its approval a copy of the agreement Provided however That any payment made in accordance with any agreement prior to the receipt of notice of invalidity shall discharge pro tanto the liability under article three of this act of the employer making such payments

Whenever an agreement or a supplemental agreement is disapproved by the department the employer shall pay to the employe compensation on the basis of such agreement to such extent as the agreement would if approved require Compensation on the basis of such agreement shall be paid until such time as the employer's liability for compensation is finally determined under the provisions of this act Any payments made by an employer in accordance with such agreement shall discharge pro tanto his liability for such compensation as may be subsequently determined to be due the employe under the provisions of this act

Any employer who shall fail to mail or deliver to the department two copies of any agreement or supplemental agreement within thirty days after such agreement or supplemental agreement is executed by the claimant shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each such failure

Section 410 If after any accident the employer and the employe or his dependent concerned in any accident shall fail to agree upon the facts thereof and the compensation due under this act the employe or his dependents or the department for and on behalf of such employe or his dependents whenever an agreement or supplemental agreement has been disapproved by the department or it shall otherwise deem it to be in the interests of justice to do so may present a claim for compensation to the board All allegations contained in the claim petition must be separately and specifically admitted or denied by the defendant Claimant shall have a right upon a petition to the referee and his order thereon to inspect the premises where the claimant's alleged injury was received

Whenever any claim for compensation is presented to the board other than claims of non-resident alien dependents and is finally adjudicated in favor of the claimant the amounts of compensation actually due at the time the first payment is made after such adjudication shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum beginning fourteen days after the date of the accident and such interest shall be payable to the same person as the compensation is payable

In case any claimant shall die before the final adjudication of his claim the amount of compensation due such claimant to the date of death shall be paid to the dependents entitled to compensation or if there be no dependents then to the estate of the decedent

Section 411 Whenever the employer and the employe or his dependent shall on or after the [tenth] seventh day after any accident agree on the facts on which a claim for compensation depends but shall fail to agree on the compensation payable thereunder they may petition the board to determine the compensation payable Such petition shall contain the agreed facts and shall be signed by all parties in interest The board shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition and shall notify all parties in interest As soon as may be after such hearing the board shall award or disallow compensation in accordance with the provisions of this act

Section 412 If any party shall desire the commutation of furtue installments of compensation he shall present a petition therefor to the board

Section 413 The board or a referee designated by the board may at any time review and modify or set aside an original or supplemental agreement upon petition filed by either party with the board or in the course of the proceedings under any petition pending before such board or referee if it be proved that such agreement in any material respect is incorrect

The board or referee designated by the board may at any time modify reinstate suspend or terminate an original or supplemental agreement or an award upon petition filed by either party with such board upon proof that the disability of an injured employe has increased decreased recurred or has temporarily or finally ceased or that the status of any dependent has changed Such modification reinstatement suspension or termination shall be made as of the date upon which it is shown that the disability of the injured employe has increased decreased recurred or has temporarily or finally ceased or upon which it is shown that the status of any dependent has changed [Provided That except in the case of eye injuries an agreement or an award can only be reviewed modified or reinstated if a petition is fled with the board within one year after the date of the last payment of compensation with or without an agreement

The board or referee to whom any such petition has been assigned may subpoena witnesses hear evidence make findings of fact and award or disallow compensation in the same manner and with the same effect and subject to the same right of appeal as if such petition were an original claim petition

The filing of a petition to terminate or modify a compensation agreement or award as provided in this section shall operate as a supersedeas and shall suspend the payment of compensation fixed in the agreement or by the award [in whole or] to such extent as the facts alleged in the petition would if proved require except that the filing of a petition relative to a change in or termination of the disability of an injured person shall not act as a supersedeas unless such petition contains an affidavit by a physician that he has examined the claimant a percentage estimate of the extent of disability and that the petitioner in his opinion is entitled to the relief prayed for in the petition Payment must be made up to date of the filing of the petition to terminate and in the case of a petition to modify in accordance with the per centum of liability admitted in such petition In any such action to terminate or modify the burden of proof shall be upon the party filing such petition No petition to terminate or modify an existing agreement or award shall be filed while said agreement or award is being adjudicated

Section 414 Whenever a claim petition or other petition is presented to the board the board shall by general rules or special order either direct it to be heard by one or more members of the board or assign it to a referee for hearing Provided however that petitions presented under sections four hundred and eleven and four hundred and twelve shall be heard by one or more members of the board

The [secretary] department shall serve upon each adverse party a copy of the petition together with a notice that such petition will be heard by the board or the referee to whom it has been assigned (giving his name and address) as the case may be and if the petition shall have been assigned to a referee shall mail the original petition to such referee together with copies of the notices served upon the adverse parties

Section 415 At any time before an award or disallowance of compensation or order has been made by a referee to whom a petition has been assigned the board may order such petition heard before it or one or more of its members or may reassign it to any other referee Unless the board shall otherwise order the testimony taken before the original referee shall be considered as though taken before the board or substituted referee

Section 416 Within ten days after a copy of any petition has been served upon any adverse party he may file with the secretary of the board if the petition has been directed to be heard by the board or with the referee if the petition has been assigned to a referee an answer in the form prescribed by the board

Every fact alleged in a petition not specifically denied by an answer so filed by an adverse party shall be deemed to be admitted by him But the failure of any adverse party or of all of them to deny a fact so alleged shall not preclude the board or referee before whom the petition is heard from requiring of its or his own motion proof of such fact

Section 417 As soon as may be after the twelfth day after notice that a petition has been directed to be heard by the board has been served upon the adverse parties thereof the board shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition If a petition be assigned to a referee he shall twelve days after notice that such petition has been assigned to him has been served upon the adverse parties fix a time and a place for hearing the petition Such hearing shall not be less than five nor more than fourteen days after the mailing of notice thereof by the referee The secretary of the board if the petition has been directed to be heard by the board or by one or more of its members or the referee to whom the petition has been assigned shall serve upon all parties in interest a notice of the time and place of hearing and shall serve upon the petitioner a copy of any answer of any adverse party

Section 418 The board if a petition is directed to be heard by it or by one or more of its members or the referee to whom a petition is assigned for hearing may subpoena witnesses order the production of books and other writings and hear evidence and shall make in writing and as soon as may be after the conclusion of the hearings such findings of fact conclusions of law and award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the petition and answers and the evidence produced before it or him and the provisions of this act shall in its or his judgment require The findings of fact made by the board in any petition heard by it or by one or more of its members or upon a hearing de novo shall be final except as hereinafter provided and the findings of fact made by a referee to whom a petition has been assigned or any question of fact has been referred under the provisions of section four hundred and nineteen shall be final unless an appeal is taken as provided in this act or unless the board shall under the provisions of section four hundred and twenty-five of this article grant a hearing de novo or a rehearing

Section 419 The board may refer any question of fact arising under any petition including a petition for commutation heard by it to a referee to hear evidence and report to the board the testimony taken before him or such testimony and findings of fact thereon as the board may order The board may refer any question of fact arising out of any petition assigned to a referee to any other referee to hear evidence and report the testimony so taken thereon to the original referee

Section 420 The board or a referee if it or he deem it necessary may of its or his own motion either before during or after any hearing make an investigation of the facts set forth in the petition or answer The board or referee with the consent of the board [may] shall whenever it shall be deemed in the interest of justice to do so appoint one or more impartial physicians or surgeons to examine the injuries of the plaintiff and report thereon or he may employ the services of such other experts as shall appear necessary to ascertain the facts The report of any physician surgeon or expert appointed by the board or by a referee shall be filed with the board or referee as the case may be and shall be a part of the record and open to inspection as such

The board shall fix the compensation of such physicians surgeons and experts which when so fixed shall be paid by the employer to the physician surgeon or expert If any employer shall fail to pay such cost promptly the physician surgeon or expert may proceed to collect the same in the manner provided in this act for the collection of awards of compensation

Section 421 All hearings before the board or one or more members thereof or before a referee shall be public

Section 422 Neither the board nor any of its members nor any referee shall be bound by the technical rules of evidence in conducting any hearing or investigation but all findings of fact shall be based only upon competent evidence

If any party or witness resides outside of the Commonwealth or through illness or other cause is unable to testify before the board or a referee his or her testimony or deposition may be taken within or without this Commonwealth in such manner and in such form as the board may by special order or general rule prescribe The records kept by a hospital of the medical or surgical treatment given to an employe in such hospital shall be admissible as evidence of the medical and surgical matters stated therein but shall not be conclusive proof of such matters

Section 423 Any party in interest may within twenty days after notice of a referee's award or disallowance of compensation shall have been served upon him take an appeal to the board on the ground (1) that the award or disallowance of compensation is not in conformity with the terms of this act or that the referee committed any other error of law (2) that the findings of fact and award or disallowance of compensation was unwarranted by the evidence or was procured by fraud coercion or other improper conduct of any party in interest The board may upon cause shown extend the time provided in this article for taking such appeal or for the filing of an answer or other pleading

In any such appeal the board may disregard the findings of fact of the referee and may examine the testimony taken before such referee and if it deem proper may hear other evidence and may substitute for the findings of the referee such findings of fact as the evidence taken before the referee and the board as hereinbfore provided may in the judgment of the board require and may make such disallowance or award of compensation or other order as the facts so found by it may require

Section 424 Whenever an appeal shall be based upon an alleged error of law it shall be the duty of the board to grant a hearing thereon The board shall fix a time and place for such hearing and shall serve notice thereof on all parties in interest

As soon as may be after such hearing the board shall either sustain or reverse the referee's award or disallowance of compensation or make such modification thereof as it shall deem proper

Section 425 Whenever an appeal shall be taken on the ground that the referee's award or disallowance of compensation was unwarranted by the evidence or because of fraud coercion or other improper conduct by any party in interest the board may in its discretion grant a hearing de novo before the board or one or more of its members or assign the petition for rehearing to any referee designated by it or sustain the referee's award or disallowance of compensation If the board shall grant a hearing de novo it shall fix a time and place for same and shall notify all parties in interest

As soon as may be after any hearing de novo by the board it shall in writing state its findings of fact and award or disallow compensation in accordance with the provisions of this act

Section 426 The board upon petition of any party and upon cause shown at any time before the Court of Common Pleas of any county of this Commonwealth to [whom] which an appeal has been taken under the provisions of section four hundred and twenty-seven of this article shall have taken final action thereon may grant a rehearing of any petition upon which the board or referee has made an award or disallowance of compensation or other order or ruling or upon which the board has sustained or reversed any action of a referee The time for taking appeals shall be suspended pending the determination of the first petition for rehearing in those cases in which such petition is filed within twenty days from notice of decision of the Workmen's Compensation Board two years after the board has made such award disallowance or other order or ruling or has sustained or reversed any action of the referee If the board shall grant a rehearing of any petition from [the board's] its action on which an appeal has been taken to and is pending in the Court of Common Pleas of any county of this Commonwealth under the provisions of section four hundred and twenty-seven of this article the board shall file in such court a certified copy of its order granting such rehearing and it shall thereupon be the duty of such court to cause the record of the case to be remitted to the board Provided however That nothing contained in this section shall limit or restrict the right of the board or a referee designated by the board to review modify set aside reinstate suspend or terminate an original or supplemental agreement or an award in accordance with the provisions of section four hundred thirteen of this article

Section 427 Any party may appeal from any action of the board on matters of the law to the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the accident occurred or of the county in which the adverse party resides or has a permanent place of business or by agreement of the parties to the Court of Common Pleas of any other county of this Commonwealth Such appeal must be brought within twenty days after notice of the action of the board has been served upon such party unless any Court of Common Pleas to which an appeal lies shall upon cause shown extend the time herein provided for taking the appeal The party taking the appeal shall at the time of taking the appeal serve upon the adverse party a written notice thereof setting forth the date of the appeal and the court in which the same is filed and shall file either with his notice of appeal or within thirty days thereafter such exceptions to the action of the board as he may desire to take and shall specify the findings of fact if any of the board or of the referee sustained by the board which he alleges to be unsupported by compentent evidence

Upon filing of the notice of an appeal the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas to which the appeal has been taken shall issue a writ of certiorari directed to the [Workmen's Compensation Board] board commanding it within ten days after service thereof to certify to such court its entire record in the matter in which the appeal has been taken The writ so issued shall be mailed by the prothonotary to the [Bureau] department at Harrisburg together with a copy of the exceptions The board shall within ten days after such service certify to such court its entire record in the matter in which the appeal has been taken including the notes of testimony

Any court before whom an appeal is pending from any action of the board may remit the record to the board for more specific findings of fact if the findings of the board or referee are not in its opinion sufficient to enable it to decide the question of law raised by the appeal

If the Court of Common Pleas of any county of this Commonwealth shall affirm an award or order of the board or of a referee sustained by the board fixing the compensation payable under this act the court shall enter judgment for the total amount stated by the award or order to be payable whether then due and accrued or payable in future installments If such court shall sustain the appellant's exceptions to a finding or findings of fact and reverse the action of the board founded thereon the court shall remit the record to the board for further hearing and determination in which the procedure shall be the same as that hereinbefore provided in this article in the case of a petition presented to the board except that the board may order that any part of the testimony taken in the original proceedings may be considered as though taken in such further hearing

The prothonotary of any Court of Common Pleas to which an appeal has been taken from the board shall send to the board a certificate of the judgment of the court as soon as rendered with a copy of any opinion which may be filed in the case and within five days shall give notice of such judgment and the date thereof by registered mail to each attorney-at-law appearing in the case at the address given by the attorney in the pleadings and if no attorney-at-law has appeared by registered mail to the party or parties not represented by counsel At the end of the period hereinafter allowed for an appeal from the judgment of the court the record of the board shall be remitted to it by the prothonotary unless an appeal shall have been taken to the Superior Court as hereinafter provided If such appeal shall be taken the record shall be remitted to the board by the prothonotary on its return from the appellate court

Any party may appeal to the Superior Court from the judgment of the Court of Common Pleas within thirty days after entry of said judgment irrespective of the amount involved Such appeal shall be taken and prosecuted in the same manner and form and with the same effect as is provided in other cases of appeal to the Superior Court and the record so certified shall contain all that was before the Court of Common Pleas Any appeal from the action of the board to a Court of Common Pleas and from it to the Supreme Court shall take precedence over all other civil action The judgment of the Superior Court shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is allowed by the Supreme Court as in the case of other judgments of [that tribunal] the Superior Court

Section 428 At any time after the approval of a compensation agreement or after an award or order has been made by the board or referee the department the employe or dependent entitled to compensation thereunder may file a certified copy of the agreement and the order of the board approving the same or of the award or order with the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county and the prothonotary shall enter the total amount of compensation stated in the agreement award or order to be payable to the employe or his dependents whether then due and accrued or payable in future installments as a judgment against the employer or other party liable under such agreement or award Such judgment shall be a lien against property of the employer or other party liable under such agreement or award and execution may issue thereon forthwith

Wherever after an accident any employe or his dependents shall have entered into a compensation agreement his employer or shall file a claim petition with the board he may file a certified copy thereof with the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county The prothonotary shall enter the amount stipulated in any such agreement or claimed in any such petition as judgment against the employer If the agreement be approved by the Department or compensation awarded as claimed in the petition the amount of compensation stipulated in the agreement or claimed in the petition shall be a lien as of the date when the agreement or petition was filed with the prothonotary Pending the approval of the agreement or the award of compensation no other lien which may be attached to the employer's property during such time shall gain priority over the lien of such agreement or award but no execution shall issue on any compensation judgment before the approval of the agreement or the award of compensation on the said petition

If the agreement be disapproved or after hearing compensation shall be disallowed the employer may file with the prothonotary of any county in which the petition or agreement is on record as a judgment a certified copy of the disapproval of the agreement or disallowance of compensation and it shall be the duty of such prothonotary to strike off the judgment

If the amount of compensation claimed be disallowed but another amount awarded the compensation judgment shall be a lien to the extent of the award as of the date of filing the petition with the prothonotary with the same effect as to other liens and the same disability to issue execution thereon as if the compensation claimed had been allowed In such cases the prothonotary shall make such modification of the record as shall be appropriate

If the compensation payable under any agreement or award upon which judgment has been entered under the provisions of this section shall be modified suspended reinstated or terminated by a supplemental agreement executed under the provisions of section four hundred and eight or by an award or order made under the provisions of section four hundred and thirteen any party to such judgment at any time after such agreement has been approved by the Department or after the expiration of the time allowed for an appeal from the award or order may file with the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county in which the judgment is on record a certified copy of such supplemental agreement award or order and it shall thereupon be the duty of the prothonotary to modify suspend re-instate or satisfy such judgment in accordance with the terms of such supplemental agreement award or order

Execution may issue by first filing with the prothonotary an affidavit that there has been a default in payments of compensation due on any judgment for compensation entered prior to the approval of the compensation agreement or an award on petition as soon as such agreement shall have been approved by the department or such award made as evidenced by the approval of the board of the award or by a certified copy thereof

Execution shall in all cases be for the amount of compensation and interest thereon due and payable up to the date of the issuance of said execution with costs and further execution may issue from time to time as further compensation shall become due and payable until full amount of the judgment with costs shall have actually been paid

Section 429 If any party against whom a compensation agreement award or other order fixing the compensation payable under this act has been filed or record in any county of this Commonwealth in accordance with the provisions of section four hundred and twenty-eight of this article or against whom judgment has been entered by the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county on any award or order of the board or a referee shall at any time present to the board receipts or copies thereof certified by any referee showing the payment of compensation as required by the agreement or award in full to the date of presentation to the referee the board shall issue a certificate to such party in the form prescribed stating the extent to which the judgment on the agreement or award has been reduced Upon the presentation of such certificate to the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of any county in which such agreement or award has been filed of record as a judgment or in which judgment on an award has been entered by the prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas it shall be the prothonotary's duty to mark such judgment satisfied to the extent of the payments so certified and upon the presentation to such prothonotary of a certificate issued by the board under the provisions of section three hundred and seventeen of this act it shall be the duty of the prothonotary to mark such judgment fully satisfied

Section 430 The lien of any judgment entered upon any award shall not be divested by any appeal If however the party appealing from the award shall file with the board a bond in such amount and in such form as the rules and regulations of the board shall direct the appeal shall pending its decision excuse the payment of so much of the compensation as is contested therein but if the final decision on appeal shall sustain the award it shall be the duty of the employer by whom such award is payable to make payments of compensation as from the date of the original award If on appeal the award is sustained as to a part it shall be the duty of the employer by whom such part is payable to make payments as from the date of the original award In case the award is annulled on appeal it shall be the duty of the prothonotary

tary of any county in which such award has been entered as a judgment to mark it satisfied

Section 431 The cost of the prothonotary for entering the amount of compensation as provided in this act or making a modification of the record or marking the judgment satisfied shall be allowed taxed and collected as upon a confession of judgment on a judgment note

Section 432 It shall be the duty of the prothonotary of each Court of Common Pleas and of the Supreme and Superior Court of the Commonwealth to make a monthly report to the board of the disposition of all appeals taken to such court under the provisions of this article

Section 433 A document on file in the [bureau] department or with the board or any referee or part of the record of any proceedings taken under Articles III and IV of this act shall be proved by a copy thereof certified by the Department under the seal of the Department or certified by the chairman of the board and attested by the secretary of the board under seal of the board as the case may be

Section 434 A final receipt given by an employe or dependent entitled to compensation under a compensation agreement or award reciting that the disability or dependency has terminated shall be prima facie evidence of the termination of the employer's liability to pay compensation under such agreement or award Provided however That the board or referee designated by the board may at any time within six hundred weeks from the date of the injury set aside a final receipt upon petition filed with the board if it be proved that at the time of the execution of the receipt the injured employe was not in fact able to return to work without loss of earning power or that the employe had a condition which resulted from the accident which condition existed at the time the compensation agreement was executed and which was not covered by such agreement or that the employe had an existing disability at the time the final receipt was taken

Payments shall be made by the employer or insurance carrier on every agreement or award other than for a definite period until a final receipt has been filed with and approved by the department or until a petition to terminate or modify has been filed under section four hundred and thirteen

Section 435 Any hospital institution physician surgeon or other person who has furnished surgical medical dental or nursing services hospital treatment artificial appliances medicines or supplies for which the employer is made liable under the provisions of this act shall be deemed a party in interest and have standing with consent of the claimant before the board or any referee designated by the board and the courts of this Commonwealth to present a claim for remuneration for such services hospital treatment artificial appliances medicine and supplies and have the same heard and determined and shall be entitled to receive an award for such remunerations Any such claimant shall be entitled to enforce any such award in the same manner as claimants of compensation are entitled to enforce awards of compensation

Section 436 The board or a referee designated by the board or any court of this Commonwealth in granting an award of compensation to an injured employe or his dependents or in affirming or modifying and affirming such an award or in reversing the disallowance of such an award shall in addition to such compensation include in such an award or judgment expert's fees if any rendered in any such proceeding payment of which may be enforced in the same manner as the payment of an award may be enforced under the provisions of this act

Section 437 Any claimant may appear in person or be represented by counsel learned in the law or he may be represented by a member of his duly recognized union or labor organization Such labor representative shall be selected by said union or labor organization and duly approved by the department to practice before any referee or the Board and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, there have been quite a few inquiries from members of the Senate who have expressed their confidence in the work of the committee, and have asked me to prepare a resume of the contents of this bill, so, therefore, with their permission and yours, I would like to read from the third resume paragraph what is contained in this bill as it now stands.

The most important feature of any Compensation Act is the amount to be paid to the injured workman. Your Committee, studying the Compensation Act, House No. 99, has tried after diligent study to provide maximum amounts consistent with the employers' ability to pay. Certain features of the Act not pertaining to workmen's benefits, although increasing the cost, have been stricken out of the Bill. We have tried to give Pennsylvania workmen a liberalized Compensation Act comparable, with all things considered, to any Industrial State Compensation Act in the United States.

We have endeavored to keep from straying too far afield in procedure in order that rulings and decisions handed down by the various boards and courts in the twenty odd years of compensation experience in Pennsylvania would still be applicable and thus save thousands of dollars and much valuable time that otherwise would be consumed in litigations and appeals.

Following are the most important changes offered for your consideration:

MINIMUM PAYMENTS

We have increased the minimum payment from seven ($7.00) to twelve ($12.00). Unlike most minimums, this is an absolute minimum and when taken into serious consideration, it will be found to be the highest in the entire nation. This really benefits more of the workmen in the State than any other single feature in House Bill No. 99. This means that any employee receiving $18.00 a week or less will receive a $12.00 weekly compensation payment, a standard far exceeding our present law of $7.00 a week or wage.

MAXIMUM PAYMENTS

The next important feature is the maximum payment. We have increased this from fifteen dollars ($15.00) to eighteen dollars ($18.00). This represents a very substantial increase when the method of computing payments is taken into consideration. Compensation payments are figured on a basis of two-thirds of the full weekly wage. (Romick Decision). Therefore, based on a five and a half day week, $18.00 represents a weekly wage of $27.00 or approximately $5.00 a day and representing a standard of $5.88 over the present average wage in Pennsylvania of $21.12 a week.

Thus, by setting this figure, your Committee has materially reduced costs and yet has given a full maximum to the vast majority of workmen in the State.

The next feature that represents a substantial increase and further liberalizes the Act is the lifting of limitations on total disability cases and making such injuries compensible for life. Add to this the elimination of the $6,500.00 maximum payments which now becomes unlimited and we find that Act No. 99 represents a very marked improvement over the existing Act and compares favorably with any other State Act now in operation.

We will summarize all liberalizing features as follows:

a. Minimum payments raised from $7.00 to $12.00.

b. Maximum payments raised from $15.00 to $18.00.

c. Life payments for total disability.

d. Maximum payments raised from $6,500.00 to unlimited amounts.

e. Partial injury payments extended from 300 weeks to 500 weeks.

f. Retroactive feature: After injury lasts four weeks, waiting period of first seven days becomes compensible.

d. Deafness made a compensible injury.

e. Toes added to specific loss list and become compensible.

f. Increases of amounts and extension on time limits in all specific losses such as arms, legs, eyes, etc.

g. Medical benefits doubled and hospitalization period trebled.

h. Benefits to dependent children increased in every instance.

i. Life payments for widows.

j. Raises age limit of dependent children from 16 years to 18 years before compensation ceases.

k. Pay benefits to dependent brothers or sisters who are crippled until age of 21 years.

l. Proceedural clauses liberalized for the benefit of the claimant.

We submit this summary with a list of the amendments as well as the original Act for your consideration.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask the Senate to vote favorably on this bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, may I ask if the original was drafted by the Department of Labor and Industry?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I understand it was.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, is it true that it increases by 360% the compensation payments?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the Committee found that was the figure agreed upon by quite a few of the operators, but the Department of Labor and Industry did not agree to that figure.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, well, it is a fair statement to make that the original draft did not reflect credit upon the Department of Labor and Industry.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I cannot answer that question.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, were the employers of agricultural and domestic service included in the act?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, that is optional with the employers of that class of labor.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, is it possible that a beneficiary may receive compensation under this bill and also under the occupational disease bill?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not think so, sir.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, but that may happen?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, for these personal injuries, as I understand it, they cannot be paid out of the same fund at the same time.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1456, (House Bill No. 2401), entitled:

An Act validating certain sheriff's sales of real estate and the title to such real estate in the hands of purchasers their heirs grantees and assigns.

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever heretofore the sheriff of any county shall have advertised the sale of any real estate in two newspapers of general circulation describing the real estate to be sold and the time and place of sale as required by law then such sale so held shall be deemed good and valid notwithstanding the fact that the sheriff failed to require an upset bid sufficient to cover all taxes and notwithstanding any other irregularity in the proceedings for the sale of such real estate and the title acquired by the purchaser his heirs grantees and assigns at or through such sheriff's sale shall be deemed good and sufficient in law to the same extent as if such irregularities had not existed Provided however That this act shall not be construed to apply to any such sales and titles heretofore or now in question in any legal proceeding

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move to amend sec. 1, page 1, lines 10, 11 and 12, by striking out the words "notwithstanding any other irregularity in the proceedings for the sale of such real estate and"; amend sec. 1, page 2, lines 1 and 2, by striking out the words "irregularities had not existed" and inserting in lieu thereof upset bid had been required: Amend sec 1, page 2, line 4, by inserting after the word "proceeding" the following: And provided further, That this act shall not discharge the lien of any tax not included in the upset price.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

The title of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

An Act validating certain sheriff's sales of real estate and the title to such real estate in the hands of purchasers their heirs grantees and assigns

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1379, (House Bill No. 826), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the preparation of the Eightieth Division History and creating a commission for such purposes

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I call at this time for consideration Senate Bill No. 1451, and renew my motion that the Senate resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of making special strike out amendments to Senate Bill No. 1451, House Bill No. 2099, Printer's No. 1212, and submit with my written motion the amendments.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, this motion which proposes the amendments which I offered to this bill in entire good faith. Contrary to the statement or suspicions of the Senator from Fayette County, there was no ulterior motive in presenting these amendments. As I explained at the time I offered them, they do not affect the existing provisions of the bill. I did have a motive in offering those amendments. It was a motive that might affect the political situation in this County, where I might have been confronted with two personal friends as opposing candidates for office. These amendments that I offered would have saved me the embarrassment of that situation. They were offered for that personal reason, and I thought I was justified in asking my Democratic colleagues to give me a chance to place these amendments in the bill and have the bill passed with the amendments. I had no personal reason for offering amendments other than I have stated. The Senator from Fayette has not seen fit to extend that simple courtesy. I call the attention of the Senate to the fact that the Senator from Fayette is doing something now, in striking out these amendments, with the entire approval of the Republican party in this County, and in this State, and he will see that every Republican member of this Senate will vote solidly for his motion. I thank him for his courtesy and consideration.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr President, that requires an answer from me. The Senator from Dauphin has failed to include in those who are in accord with the amendments the sponsor of the bill, who I inform the Senator from Dauphin, presented me with the amendments so as to restore the bill to its original form. I may also state that the Senator from Fayette has sufficient courage in his system that if he has any personal fight in his own county, he can go to the people at the ballot box and fight his fight and not ask the members of this Senate, his colleagues, to go on the spot for him.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1451, (House Bill No. 2099), entitled:

An Act to further amend sections two hundred forty-six, two hundred forty-seven, two hundred fifty-six, and two hundred sixty-two of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto;" fixing the salary and qualifications of the district attorney, and providing for the appointment and compensation of assistant district attorneys, stenographers and clerks in counties of the sixth seventh and eighth classes and providing for the filling of vacancies in the office of district attorney in counties of the fourth class.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. CAVALCANTE Mr. President, I move to amend page 1, lines 1 and 2 of title by striking out two hundred forty-seven; amend, page 1, line 13 of the title after the word "classes" strike out the balance of the sentence; amend page 2, first two sentences before section 1, strike out beginning with the word "filling" and ending with the word "class"; amend page 2, section 1, line 4, strike out at the beginning of the line the letter "S" and the dark faced bracket; amend page 2, section 1, line 4, after the word "fifty-six" strike out the dark faced bracket; amend page 2, section 1, at the end of line 4, strike out "sec-" and the beginning of line 5 ending with the word "forty-six" of the same section and page; amend page 4, line 16, beginning with the letter "S" strike out the entire sentence and all of lines 17 to 29 inclusive; amend page 6, section 256, line 22, after the word "classes" strike out the remainder of the sentence and the beginning of line 23 ending with the word "more"; amend page 7, line 14, after the word "section" strike out the letter "S" and ending with the figure "4" and insert in lieu thereof: the figure "2".

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that the Committee do now rise.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the amendments just adopted by the Senate being merely strike-out amendments, I raise the question as to whether or not the amendments can be voted upon.

The PRESIDENT. In addition to the strike outs there were some additional words put in.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I call for consideration at this time Senate Bill No. 1450, (House Bill No. 1962):

Agreeably to order,

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1127

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1127, entitled:

An Act to prohibt any person firm or corporation not directly involved in a labor strike or lockout recruiting or securing or offering to secure employment for persons to take the places of employes where a labor strike or a lock-out exists and providing for legally established employment service.

was defeated.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I second the motion?

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I voted "no".

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I voted "no".

On the question,

Will the Senator agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to state the purpose of asking the Senate to act on this bill the purpose was that I propose to offer amendments in connection with the bill.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend page 1, line 1 of Title by striking out the word "the" before the word "securing" and by striking out after the word "prohibt" and before the word "recruiting", the word "the", and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "any person, firm oc rorporation not directly involved in a labor strike or lockout;" amend page 1, line 5 of Title by striking out after the word "strike" and before the word "or" the words "is pending"; amend page 1, line 5 of Title after the word "exists" by adding "and providing for legally establish employment service"; amend page 1, line 4, after word "person", by striking out "for himself or as"; amend page 1, line 5, before the word "firm" by striking out "agent or servant of any"; amend page 1, line 5, after the word "corporation", by inserting "not directly involved in a labor strike or lockout"; amend page 2, line 3, after the word "place and before the word "em-" the word "of", and inserting in lieu thereof the word "in"; amend page 2, line 5, after the word "strike" and before "HC" by striking out "is than pending"; amend page 2, line 6, after the word "exists" by adding the following: provided that this Act shall not apply to any employment agent licensed as such under the Department of Labor and Industry or to the Pennsylvania or the United States Employment Service.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, when this bill was before the Senate this afternoon, a fair interpretation of the bill would have meant that no employees, no matter how long the strike had been pending could by himself engage other persons to take the places of those men who were out on strike. We discussed the bill on the floor of the Senate, and the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, stated what in my opinion was also the purpose of the bill, namely, to prevent the engaging of so-called strike-breakers in labor disputes. I have prepared amendments in consultation with these persons who are interested in the bill, and they have a right to be interested, and which I think suits those persons and I am sure that the Senators will be satisfied after hearing these amendments that it restricts operation of this bill to the persons and to those people engaged in the business of strike-breaking, and for that purpose I desire to ask unanimous consent to offer amendments.

The PRESIDENT. A motion should be made to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I offer the following amendments:

Mr. President, I would like to state to the Senate so that we may be able to follow these amendments that it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, not directly involved in a labor strike or lock-out to recruit any person or persons for employment or to secure or offer to secure for any person or persons any employment for the purpose of recruiting, securing or offering to secure so as to have said persons take the places of employment in an industry where a labor strike or lock-out exists, and provided that this Act was not to apply to the State Employment Service, National Employment Service or any other employment service licensed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, if a firm is directly affected by a strike, would it be impossible to employ the services of strike breaking agents under these amendments?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, no, because it does not permit any agent to give employment to any person unless he is directly involved in these strikes. That means that no person, firm or corporations can secure employees unless that firm, person, or corporations is directly involved in the strike.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, is it not true that the firm that is directly affected by the strike can hire anybody, if it so wishes?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it can hire somebody to work for it, but it cannot hire anyone to get others to work for it. The purpose of the bill and the amendments I think confined the activities of the hiring of employees through persons, firms or corporations directly involved in a strike.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, we could argue all evening and probably would not get the answer that I would like to arrive at. However, I think the bill is some improvement over the present condition, therefore I ask that the members of the Senate do vote favorably on the amendments and the bill.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator what would happen if a strike were called in a hospital in which many people were seriously ill, and there was a nurses' association that furnished all the nurses for that hospital, how they could get nurses to take care of these sick people as the bill is amended.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the hospital could hire them directly from the nurses association.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator how he is sure the hospital can hire directly.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, because they can do that under the present law, and this bill would not affect the present law in that case.

Mr. OWLET. Mr. President, if the President of the Nurses Association in obtaining the nurses for this hospital for these sick people I assume that under these amendments that they would be subject to a penalty and fine.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is not so, because in that situation the President of the hospital would not be hiring the President of the Association to procure nurses from them but he would be going direct to the Association and do the hiring himself.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, it seems to me that a bill that would in any way cripple a hospital, for instance, concerning furnishing the necessary public conveniences in attending health in any way, as this is going to do, is bad legislation and is not needed. This amendment makes the bill somewhat better than it was before, but the possibility is still there.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have no doubt if we want to change our idea, that we can find many arguments against this bill. I was opposed to this bill because I believed it would interfere with the proper management of hospital business, but I do believe that people who are jockeying for position, by lawful means, have a right to demand that no unlawful means be used to interfere with their coming to a lawful agreement and understanding in labor differences. This bill, the purpose of which is to prevent the importation of strikebreakers into a community, would be a great benefit not only to industry, but to labor, because that kind of difference is the thing which brings about violations and unlawfulness. A stranger that is imported here has no interest in the situation or in the community in which he is employed; his real job, for which he is paid, is, and the only job he knows, is going to break a strike. I think what we should do is look at this bill from a true standpoint. Nobody will agree that such a situation should arise in a hospital. In my forty years living in the city of Philadelphia in this Commonwealth, I know of no situation that has strikebreakers employed in a hospital, I know of no interference in the conduct of a hospital. I think labor has just as much human feeling as any member in this Senate.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President. We have heard within the last week or ten days of the plight of Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York, which seriously crippled that hospital. Now, I am just as much interested in seeing the rights of labor protected as the Senator from Philadelphia, whether he believes it or not. As I understand it, however, under this act there is no limitation of time during which a strike may be thought to be in progress. and I take it that a plot encouraged by a strike, where the men all went out to get employment, and two years may have expired, they would go to an employment agency and hire people to open up that industry, and we think the bill is not in the shape it could be and should be to correct the evil that is intended to be corrected. That evil should undoubtedly be corrected and the purpose of the bill is undoubtedly a lawful purpose, but it seems to me we are making a great mistake to open to prosecution anybody that assists in getting somebody to help in a plant, no matter how seriously needed the facilities of that industry are. It seems to me that this should be worded to protect the public against such a situation. We cannot think today of all the possibilities that may arise in a situation where this help is seriously needed. There are agencies that maintain lists of employers and of available employees and when you have a strike in a concern which furnishes something vital to a community that may tie up the whole community and everything in it, are we going to say that they cannot go to that agency and get somebody to carry on the necessary part of that work? I do not think that a proper phase of legislative enactment unless it is put in shape that would correct fully the evils sought to be corrected, namely, to prevent the agencies from making possible the employing of strik breakers.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Senator from Tioga assumes or questions the sincerity or the truthfulness. I am trying to avoid personalities, and I want to call the Senator's attention to the fact that because I objected to the word strike 'pending', this afternoon, I felt the same as he did about the question he raised, so that the words are no longer in the bill. With regard to the agency, I would like to call the Senator's attention to the amendments that I read that this bill should not affect the right of any State or National Employment agency, or any agency licensed by the state to do business by agents, so that any agent has a list of names to whom he can refer, and it is legitimately licensed agent and a licensee of the state, and did not bring in strikebreakers, it can furnish a list to the employers, that was for the purpose of protecting the agency. Certainly, if there is an agency exists that is not licensed and has a list of employees, it can only be that kind of an agency that we do not want to interfere with the strike that is pending, and it is that kind of agency against which we feel in its present form operates efficiently.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I am very much concerned about this bill in its original form, in that it applies to the suspension of persons of any industry. I want to feel sure that in the case that the suspension of sufficient men by an agreement between labor and capital, would be permitted to be maintained so that the industry would be able to operate on short notice, and on the confirmation of the negotiations association in looking this bill over, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, in this bill we have a ....

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there is nothing to stop the mine owner from going outside, from going from house to house in the community himself, or by his superintendent, or by his employees to secure men to take the place of the strikers.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for use of the Senate.

Procedure

Section 601 Abatement of Pollutions All pollutions hereinbefore declared to be nuisances or maintained contrary to the provisions of this act shall be abatable in the manner now provided by law or equity for the abatement of public nuisances In addition suits to abate pollution of any of the waters of the Commonwealth may be instituted in equity or at law in the name of the Commonwealth upon relation of the Attorney General or upon relation of any district attorney of any county or upon relation of the solicitor of any municipality affected after notice has first been served upon the Attorney General of the intention of the district attorney or solicitor to so proceed Such proceedings may be prosecuted in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County or in the Court of Common Pleas of the county where the nuisance has been or is being committed or of any county through which or along the borders of which flows the water into which such pollution has been discharged at any point above and to that end jurisdiction is hereby conferred in law and equity upon such courts provided however that no action shall be brought by such district attorney or solicitor against any municipality discharging sewage under a permit of the Board heretofore issued or hereafter issued under this act and provided further that except in cases of emergency where in the opinion of the court the exigencies of the cases require immediate abatement of said nuisances the court may in its decree fix a reasonable time during which the person or municipality responsible for the nuisances may make provision for the abatement of the same

Section 602 Preliminary Injunctions In cases where the circumstances require it or the public health is endangered a mandatory preliminary injunction or special injunction may be issued upon the terms prescribed by the court notice of the application therefore having been given to the defendant in accordance with the rules of equity practice and in any such case the Attorney General the district attorney or the solicitor of any municipality shall not be required to give bond

Section 603 Summary Proceedings All summary proceedings under the provisions of this act may be brought before any magistrate alderman or justice of the peace of the county where the offense occurred or the unlawful discharge of sewage industrial waste or pollution was maintained or in the county where the public is affected and to that end jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon said magistrates aldermen or justices of the peace subject to appeal by either party in the manner provided by law In the case of any appeal from any such conviction in the manner provided by law for appeals from summary conviction it shall be the duty of the district attorney of the county to represent the interests of the Commonwealth

Section 604 Complaints Investigations Upon complaint made in writing by any responsible person to the Board it shall be the duty of the Board through its agents to investigate any alleged source of pollution of the waters of the Commonwealth and to institute appropriate proceedings under the provisions of this act to discontinue any such pollution if the offense complained of constitutes a violation of the provisions of this act

Section 605 Appeals Any order decision rule or regulation made by the Board shall be subject to appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County within thirty days from its entry by any person or municipality but in such appeal the decision rule or regulation of the Board shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness thereof and the burden to establish the incorrectness thereof shall be upon the appellant Said court may affirm or modify any such order decision rule or regulation if it be established by the appellant that the discharge of sewage or industrial waste or the erection maintenance or operation of any treatment works is not nor likely to become inimical or injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or to the use of the water for domestic industrial or recreational purposes and if the court so finds it may set aside such order decision rule or regulation of the Board Any order (other than an order to discontinue the discharge of industrial waste) decision rule or regulation appealed from shall not be superseded by the appeal but shall be in force until the order of the court is made as above provided The setting aside of any order or decision of the Board by the court upon any such appeal shall not prevent or preclude said Board from again instituting subsequent proceedings against the same person or municipality when in its opinion the public health is endangered or animal or aquatic life destroyed or water rendered unfit for domestic industrial or recreational purposes subject to appeal as above provided

Section 606 Proceedings Where Waters Polluted from Many Sources Nothing contained in the laws of the Commonwealth shall estop the Board from proceeding under the provisions of this act against any particular municipality or person discharging sewage or industrial waste or other noxious or deleterious substance into the waters of the Commonwealth even though said waters are at the time polluted from other sources

Section 607 Public Records Evidence All papers records and documents of the Board and applications for permits pending before the Board shall be public records open to inspection during business hours and copies of all such public records and the rules and regulations of the Board certified by the Secretary of Health shall be received in evidence in all courts and elsewhere

Section 608 Existing Rules Regulations and Orders All rules and regulations heretofore adopted by the Board and all orders made and actions taken by the Board or the Secretary of Health under the provisions of law repealed by this act shall continue in force with the same effect as if such laws had not been repealed subject however to modification change or annulment as may be deemed necessary by the Board in order to comply with the provisions of this act

Section 609 Application and Permit Fees The Board is hereby authorized to fix and collect from persons and municipalities a reasonable filing fee for applications filed and for permits issued

ARTICLE VII

Scope and Purpose

Section 701 Existing Rights and Remedies Preserved The collection of any penalty under the provisions of this act shall not be construed as estopping the Commonwealth or any district attorney or solicitor of a municipality from proceeding in courts of law or equity to abate pollutions forbidden under this act or abate nuisances under existing law It is hereby declared to be the purpose of this act to provide additional and cumulative remedies to abate the pollution of the waters of this Commonwealth and nothing in this act contained shall in any way abridge or alter rights of action or remedies now or hereafter existing in equity or under the common law or statutory law criminal or civil nor shall any provision in this act or the granting of any permit under this act or any act done by virtue of this act be construed as estopping the Commonwealth persons or municipalities in the exercise of their rights under the common law or decisional law or in equity from proceeding in courts of law or equity to suppress nuisances or to abate any pollution now or hereafter existing or enforce common law or statutory rights

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 2, 1937.

The House met at 2:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER, (Roy E. Furman), in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. EPHRAIM Z. GALLAGHER, offered the following prayer:

Our heavenly Father we are happy to have Thy Divine guidance during these pressing days. We are all creatures of Thine, and we best express Thy will when we work together in peace and harmony. Encourage us to recognize the good in one another and to appropriate that good to humanity's cause. We, too, would pray, Lord, that we might all ponder seriously upon the words often cited to by that venerable American citizen, who recently passed away, and who was regarded as having been the world's richest man—

There is so much good in the worst of us,
And so much bad in the best of us,
That it hardly behooves any of us,
To speak ill about the rest of us. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. REISING, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

COMMUNICATIONS

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication which was read by the Clerk:

May 28, 1937.

To the Honorable, Roy E. Furman, Speaker of the House of Representatives:

As Speaker of the House of Representatives, we respectfully request that you lay before your Honorable body, the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Independent Miners and Truckers Association, meeting at the Pulaski High School in Shamokin, Pennsylvania, on Tuesday evening May 25th, heartily support the Lauck-Angell report, and recommend its acceptance by the Governor and Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;

Resolved, That the Hobitzelle-Lynette report is deemed against the interests of all concerned in the mining region, who want work not charity, which can be supplied only by opening collieries;

Resolved, That because the Lauck-Angell report recommends the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania open collieries immediately, we pledge our support and urge that the Legislature as soon as may be, adopt this program in order to eliminate bootlegging and re-employ the men involved in our industry in legitimate mining.

EARL HUMPHREY, President.

The SPEAKER. The communications will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Legislative Journal.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HOUSE BILL No. 99.

An Act to reenact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and thirty-six) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder" by changing adding to and increasing the schedules of compensation prescribing and changing certain presumptions and rules of evidence increasing the requirements to be met by employers desiring to be self-insurers conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers and insurance carriers including the cost of administering the workmen's compensation system including the rehabilitation of employes providing for the payment of compensation for certain second injuries and for the rehabilitation of injured employes and for the payment of re-opened cases after a certain lapse of time by the Commonwealth out of moneys required to be paid into the State Treasury by certain employers and insurance carriers in death cases where there are no dependents imposing new and changing certain existing penalties and generally amending clarifying and changing the provisions of said act

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives, is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk will read the amendments as follows:

Amend Article III, section 306, page 26, line 16, by inserting after the word "period" the words "and in such additional amounts"; also same page, line 25, by inserting after the word "services" the words "(exclusive of the cost of hospital treatment and artificial appliances)"; also same line, by inserting after the word "supply" the words "during the aforesaid three months' period"; also section 320, page 49, line 17, by striking out the words "to have waived any of the right or remedy" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "is an amendment in the manner prescribed by."

Amend Article V, section 502, page 80, line 1, by striking out after the word "act" the word "and"; also same page, line 11, by inserting after the word "appropriation" the words "and until January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight the act reenacted and amended by this act"; also same page, by striking out in lines 22 to 24 inclusive, the following: "Th efirst assessment shall be for the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight"; also section 507, page 83, line 6, by striking out the word "This" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "The provisions of this"; also same page, line 8, by inserting at the end of said line after the word "eight" the following: "except the provisions of section 502 of this act which shall become effective immediately upon the nal enactment of this act and shall be retroactive to June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, it will be remembered that when this bill in its original form was being considered by this House I was the only member to rise on my feet and oppose it in the form in which it then was. The amendments which have been placed in this bill by the Senate, after much deliberation and considerable time, greatly reduce the rates and the cost of the workmen's compensation bill which we are about to vote upon. The sponsor of the bill has very kindly furnished me with a little statement with regard to what this does. This statement was prepared by the Senate Committee and sent to the Governor of the Commonwealth, informing him as to what their work had been. There is this one point, however, that it does not cover, and I ask permission to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny on that one point.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Weiss, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he has any figures as to what the percentage of increases over the old law this will be to the employers.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Jefferson kindly repeat his question?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny if he has any figures in the line of an estimate by experts as to what the increased cost will be in percentage to the employers of the State.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, this bill as amended by the Senate will increase the cost of compensation to the anthracite and bituminous operators approximately fifty-five percent. In all other industries of the Commonwealth the increase will be approximately twenty-two to thirty-five percent. Some figures have gone as high as seventy-five percent but those figures are not authentic.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny one more question. Is the gentleman from Allegheny convinced that this is about as much of an increase as could be secured safely at this time, taking into consideration all of the affairs of business in this State, and is he satisfied with these amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I must agree with the statement just made by the gentleman from Jefferson. I believe it is fair both to industry and to the working men of this Commonwealth.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, just a brief statement, it will be remembered that I estimated the increased cost of workmen's compensation under House Bill No. 99 as two hundred and fifty-six percent. The gentleman from Allegheny has very kindly furnished an estimate by experts showing that the increased cost under the amendments made by the Senate would be anywhere from thirty to fifty-five percent, which is quite a material reduction. I feel that my opposition was justified, and I would not have taken the time of the House to make this statement if it had not been for the fact that I was alone and so few voted with me. There is quite a difference between fifty-five percent increase and two hundred and fifty-six percent increase I am going to vote for the amendments of the Senate, and I wanted to get right on the record. I thank you.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to briefly state that the concurrence of the House in the Senate amendments culminates the efforts of the Democratic party to give to the workingmen of Pennsylvania and their families a liberal workmen's compensation law which began in the 1935 session, when I introduced House Bill No. 1199, an almost identical measure. I want to say that this House Bill No. 99, with the amendment of the Senate, is not as liberal in its provisions as when it passed this House on March 9, 1937, but it definitely redeems a pledge of the Democratic party to liberalize the compensation law of this Commonwealth. The principle changes in House Bill No. 99, as amended in the Senate, are as follows:

(a) Increases maximum payments from $15.00 to $18.00 per week;

(b) Increases minimum payments from $7.00 to $12.00 per week. (This will effect over 60% of workmen who only earn approximately $18.00 per week);

(c) Gives increased benefits for loss of various organs of the body; for instance: hand, arm, foot, leg, eye, disfigurement, etc.;

(d) Gives the workman disability for the first seven days of injury if disability continues for four weeks or longer;

(e) Disability payments for life paid to workmen who are permanently disabled;

(f) Payments for life to widows;

(g) Provides for indefinite medical, surgical, dental treatment and hospitalization upon petition to the Board;

(h) Maximum payments to injured workmen increased from $6500 to unlimited amounts;

(i) Raises age limit of dependent children from 16 years to 18 years.

Most important of all, the bill as amended by the Senate and now before the House for concurrence, preserves the famous "Romig" decision—and basing earnings on a five and a half day week—and this alone means millions of dollars to the workmen of this Commonwealth.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section 202 Extent of Applicability of Act to Existing Sewage Discharges Any municipality discharging sewage from any sewer system owned and maintained by the municipality and any person discharging sewage into or in such manner as to cause pollution of the waters of this Commonwealth without regard to the fact that such discharge began prior or subsequent to the twenty-second day of April one thousand nine hundred and five or whether such continued discharge has been by virtue of or without a permit issued by the Secretary of Health the Commissioner of Health or the Board in accordance with the provisions of an act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws two hundred sixty) entitled "An act to preserve the purity of the waters of the State for the protection of the public health" shall discontinue the discharge of sewage into or in such manner as to cause pollution of the waters of this Commonwealth upon the order of the Board issued pursuant to the provisions of this act at such time as the Board shall be of opinion that such discharge of sewage is or may become inimical or injurious to the public health animal or aquatic life or to the use of the water for domestic or industrial consumption or recreation and on such notice any permit heretofore granted to such municipality or person for the discharge of sewage into the waters of the Commonwealth shall be deemed to be revoked and annulled Provided however That the discharge of sewage into a stream impregnated with acid coal mine drainings be permitted when the discharge of sewage does not create a condition inimical to the public interest

Section 203 Orders to Discontinue Existing Sewage Discharges Nuisances In the case of a municipality orders to discontinue existing discharges of sewage shall be by notice in writing (after investigation and hearing and an opportunity for all persons interested therein to be heard thereon) which notice shall be served personally or by registered mail on the corporate authorities of the municipality owning or maintaining and using the sewage system The length of time after receipt of the notice within which the discharge of sewage shall be discontinued shall be stated in the notice and shall in no case exceed two years

In the case of a person orders to discontinue existing discharges of sewage shall be by notice in writing served personally on such person or by registered mail addressed to the last known post office address of the person discharging the sewage and such notice shall specify a reasonable time not exceeding one year to be fixed by the Board within which the discharge of such sewage shall be discontinued

The continued discharge of sewage by persons or municipalities after the expiration of the time fixed in any such notice is hereby declared to be a nuisance and shall be abatable and punishable as provided in this act

Section 204 Penalty Any Person who shall continue to discharge sewage or permit the same to flow into the waters of the Commonwealth contrary to the preceding provisions of this act for or after the expiration of the time fixed in any notice from the Board to discontinue an existing discharge of sewage into the waters of the Commonwealth shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars and not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense and a further fine of ten dollars for each day the offense is maintained and in default of the payment of such fine and costs the person or the member or members of any association or copartnership or the officer or officers of any corporation responsible for violation of this act shall be imprisoned in the county jail one day for each dollar of fine and costs unpaid

Section 205 Reports of Existing Municipal Sewers It shall be the duty of the corporate authorities having by law charge of the sewer system of each municipality in the Commonwealth from which sewage is being discharged into any of the waters of the Commonwealth to file with the Board from time to time upon the written demand of said Board a report of such sewer system which shall comprise such plans facts and information as the Board may require Such report shall be filed within a time specified by the Board in its written demand No municipal sewer system shall be exempt from the provisions of this act prohibiting the discharge of sewage into the waters of the Commonwealth for which a satisfactory report shall not be filed with the Board in accordance with this section The continued discharge of sewage from any such sewer system contrary to the provisions of this section is hereby also declared to be a nuisance and abatable as such

Section 206 Applications for Permits for the Discharge of Sewage Upon application duly made to the Board by the corporate authorities having by law the charge of the sewer system of any municipality or by any person the Board shall consider the case of any sewer system or the extension of any existing sewer system otherwise prohibited by this act from discharging sewage into any of the waters of the Commonwealth and shall if it finds as a fact that the discharge of sewage is necessary and not injurious to the public health or animal or aquatic life or for use for domestic or industrial consumption or recreation stipulate in a permit the conditions and the time during which such discharge into the waters of the Commonwealth may be permitted Such permit before being operative shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county wherein the outlet of said sewer system is located And in case the municipailty or person fails or neglects to record such permit the Board shall cause a copy thereof to be so recorded and shall collect the cost of recording from the municipality or person No such permit shall be construed to permit any act otherwise forbidden by any of the laws of the Commonwealth or by any decree order sentence or judgment of any court or by the ordinances of any municipality or by the rules and regulations of any water company supplying water to the public or by laws relative to navigation

Section 207 Approval of Plans Designs and Relevant Data by the Sanitary Water Board All plans designs and relevant data for the construction of any new sewer system or for the extension of any existing sewer system by a municipality or for the erection construction and location of any treatment works or intercepting sewers by a person or municipality shall be submitted to the Board for its approval before the same are constructed or erected or acquired Any such construction or erection which has not been approved by the Board by written permit or any treatment works not operated or maintained in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board is hereby also declared to be a nuisance and abatable as herein provided

Section 208 Revocation or Modification of Permits Every such permit for the discharge of sewage from a sewer system or extension or for the erection and construction of any sewer system or treatment works or intercepting sewers under the provisions of sections two hundred six and two hundred seven of this act shall be revocable or subject to modification and change by the Board on due notice (after an investigation and hearing and an opportunity for all known to be interested therein to be heard thereon) being personally on or by registered mail addressed to the last known post office address of the corporate authorities of the municipality or the person owning maintaining or using the sewer system or the person or municipality operating the treatment works The length of time after the receipt of the notice within which the discharge of sewage or the treatment of sewage in such treatment works shall be discontinued shall be stated in the notice but in no case shall it exceed two years in the case of a municipality or a reasonable time not exceeding one year in the case of a person to be fixed by the Board

Section 209 Prohibition Against Discharge of Sewage Et Cetera After Revocation of Permit On the expiration of the period of time prescribed after the service of a notice of revocation modification or change of any such permit from the Board the discharge of sewage into any waters of the Commonwealth or treated sewage from treatment works shall cease and terminate and the prohibition of this act against such discharge or treatment shall be in full force as though no permit had been granted but a new permit may thereafter again be granted as hereinbefore provided A continuation of the discharge of sewage or the treatment of sewage after revocation or in violation of any modification and change of any such permit it hereby also declared to be a nuisance and shall be punishable and abatable as herein provided

Section 210 Municipal Financing of Pollution Abatement Any municipality upon whom an order of the Board is served to abate its discharge of untreated or inadequately treated sewage shall unless said order to abate said discharge be reversed on appeal take steps for the acquisition or construction of a sewer or sewerage system or sewage treatment works or both or for the repair alteration extension or completion of an existing sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works or both as may be necessary for the treatment of its sewage in compliance with the order of the Board The cost of the acquisition construction repair alteration completion or extension of the sewer sewerage system or sewage treatment works as may be necessary to comply with said order shall be paid out of funds on hand available for such purpose or out of the general funds of such municipality not otherwise appropriated If there be no sufficient funds on hand or unappropriated then the necessary funds shall be raised by the issuance of bonds such bond issue to be subject only to the approval of the Department of Internal Affairs If the estimated cost of the steps necessary to be taken by such municipality to comply with such order is such that the bond issue necessary to finance such project would not raise the total outstanding bonded indebtedness of such municipality in excess of the constitutional limit imposed upon such indebtedness by the Constitution of this Commonwealth then and in that event the necessary bonds may be issued as a direct obligation of such municipality and retired pursuant to general law governing the issue of such bonds if the electors of the municipality shall vote in favor of the increase in indebtedness where the consent of the electors is required If the amount of such bonds necessary to be issued would raise the total outstanding bonded indebtedness of such municipality above such constitutional limitation on such indebtedness or if the consent of the electors cannot be secured or if such municipality by its corporate authorities shall determine against the issuance of direct obligation bonds then such municipality shall be requested to issue non-debt revenue bonds and provide for the payment of the interest and principal of such bonds from funds to be raised by imposing a sewer rental or charge in accordance with and as authorized by the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws twelve hundred eighty-six) entitled "An act empowering cities (except cities of the first class) boroughs incorporated towns and townships to charge and collect annual rentals for the use of certain sewers sewage systems and treatment works including charges for operation inspection maintenance repair depreciation and the amortization of indebtedness and interest thereon" or other legislation relating to the imposition and collection of such rentals and charges

The funds made available by the issuance of either direct obligation bonds or revenue bonds secured by rental charges as herein provided shall constitute a sanitary fund and shall be used for no other purpose than for carrying out such order or orders of the Board

The Attorney General at the instance of the Board may enforce this provision of the act by action of mandamus

Section 211 Revenue Bonds For the purpose of financing the cost and expense of its share of the cost and expense of constructing or acquiring or extending any sewer sewer system or sewage treatment works either singly or jointly with other municipalities a municipality may issue non-debt revenue bonds secured solely by a pledge in whole or part of the annual rentals or charges imposed for the use of such sewer sewer system or sewage treatment works Said bonds shall not pledge the credit nor create any debt nor be a charge against the general revenues nor be a lien against any property of the municipality but shall be a lien upon and payable solely from the annual rentals or charges for the use of the sewer sewer system or sewage treatment works

Section 212 Issuance and Sale of Revenue Bonds Maturity Interest When a municipality shall issue any non-debt revenue bonds the corporate authorities thereof shall sell the same to the highest bidder after public notice by advertisement once a week for three weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation published in the municipality or the county in which the municipality is situated Where bonds shall be advertised for sale as herein provided and no bids shall have been received then it shall be lawful for such municipality to sell the same at private sale for not less than par and accrued interest

All such bonds shall be payable in not more than thirty years from the date of their issue shall be issued in series payable in equal annual installments and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum

Section 213 Other Methods of Financing Preserved Anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding any municipality shall have power to issue bonds revenue certificates or other obligations to finance in whole or in part the carrying out of any order or direction of the Board without regard to the restrictions limitations or provisions of this act relating to the issuance of bonds revenue certificates or other obligations provided that such bonds revenue certificates or other obligations are issued by the municipality in accordance with the provisions of any other law This act shall be construed to provide an alternative method for the issuance of bonds revenue certificates or other obligations by a municipality and not an exclusive method therefor

ARTICLE III

Section 302 Existing Industrial Wastes Discharges All persons who at the time of the passage of this act are discharging industrial waste into any of the waters of the Commonwealth shall discontinue the discharge of such industrial waste into said waters or into any municipal sewer system on notice from the Board when after due investigation the Board shall declare the discharge of such industrial waste is or may become inimical or injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or prevent the use of waters for domestic industrial or recreational purposes provided that any discharge that is inimical and injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or to the use of the water for domestic or industrial consumption or recreational purposes shall nevertheless be deemed unlawful and a nuisance whether the Board shall so declare or not

Section 303 Information as to Kind and Character of Discharge Every person who on the effective date of this act shall be discharging or permitting to be discharged or has an establishment temporarily closed which in the future may discharge or permit to be discharged any industrial waste into the waters of the Commonwealth shall file with the Board within ninety days after the effective date of this act on forms prepared and supplied by the Board such information under oath as the Board may require with regard to such industrial waste including the kind characteristics and rate of flow thereof and concerning the treatment works if any either in operation or in contemplation It shall be the duty of such persons to apply to the Board for the forms necessary to comply with this provision The falsity of any of the information thus supplied is hereby declared to be perjury and punishable as such

Section 304 Water Surveys The Board shall have power to make a complete survey of the waters of the Commonwealth in order to ascertain the extent of pollution in each of said waters and the remedies to be employed to purify said waters It shall have power to adopt prescribe and enforce such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act as may be deemed necessary for the protection of the purity of the waters of the Commonwealth or parts thereof and to purify those now polluted and to assure the proper and practical operation and maintenance of treatment works approved by it A violation of which rules and regulations after notice shall also constitute a nuisance under this act

Section 305 Investigations and Research In addition to any powers now possessed the Board shall investigate and ascertain as far as practicable all facts in relation to the pollution of the waters of the Commonwealth by industrial waste Its agents may enter upon lands buildings and premises as may be necessary for its investigations It shall conduct scientific experiments and researches under its personal supervision or in colleges and universities for the purpose of ascertaining reasonable and practical means for the treatment of industrial waste so that when the same has been treated the effluent thereof when discharged into the waters of the Commonwealth shall not be injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or prevent the use of the water for domestic industrial or recreational purposes

Section 306 Protection of Clean Waters After the effective date of this act no municipality or person shall ever discharge drain or permit to be washed into the clean waters of this State any sewage or industrial waste "Clean waters" are hereby defined to mean waters which are at the effective date of this act unpolluted and free from any discharge or drainage of industrial waste and from any authorized discharge or drainage of sewage but the Sanitary Water Board may permit discharge into such waters of sewage or industrial waste that has been completely treated

Section 307 Regulation of Establishments Erected or Opened or Re-opened in the Future No person shall hereafter erect construct or open or re-open or operate any establishment which in its operation results in the discharge of industrial wastes which would flow or be discharged into any of the waters of the Commonwealth and thereby cause a pollution of the same unless such person shall first provide proper and adequate treatment works for the treatment of such industrial wastes approved by the Board so that if and when flowing or discharged into the waters of the Commonwealth the effluent thereof shall not be inimical or injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or prevent the use of water for domestic industrial or recreational purposes except when in the opinion of the Board such industrial waste is not inimical or injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or to the use of the water for domestic industrial or recreational purposes and shall grant a permit for the discharge of such industrial waste into the waters of the Commonwealth But no permit shall ever be issued by the Board authorizing the discharge of untreated industrial waste into the clean waters of the State as above defined Public notice of every application for a permit under this section shall be given by notice published in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the permit is applied for once a week for four weeks But any such permit shall be revocable or subject to modification and change by the Board at any time thereafter upon reasonable notice served personally or by registered mail addressed to the last known post office address of the holder of the permit and the owner or operator of such establishment may be required to install treatment works approved by the Board for the treatment of such industrial waste or for the deposition of solids in such industrial waste in the manner and to the extent as the Board may require The discharge of industrial waste into any of the waters of the Commonwealth from any such establishment contrary to the provisions of this section or without a permit or after the time fixed in the notice of the Board when a permit is revoked or in violation of any modification thereof is hereby declared to be a nuisance and to be punishable and abatable as herein provided The provisions of this section shall not apply to establishments existing at the date of the approval of this act which may hereafter be temporarily closed for a period not exceeding six months

Section 308 Approval of Plans Designs and Relevant Data by the Sanitary Water Board All plans designs and relevant data for the erection and construction of treatment works by any person for the treatment of industrial wastes shall be submitted to the Board for its approval before the works are constructed or erected Any such construction or erection which has not been approved by the Board by written permit or by treatment works not maintained or operated in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board is hereby declared a nuisance and to be punishable and abatable as herein provided

Section 309 Penalties Any person who shall discharge any industrial wastes into the waters of the Commonwealth after the Board shall have given notice to discontinue the same as provided in section three hundred two shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and a further fine of ten dollars per day for each day the offense is continued and in default of the payment of such fine and costs the person or if such person be an association or copartnership then the members thereof or if such person be a corporation then the officers thereof may be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding sixty days

Any person who shall continue to discharge any industrial waste into any of the waters of the Commonwealth contrary to the provisions of this act after conviction in a summary proceeding as above provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof in the Court of Quarter Sessions shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars and the person or if such person be an association or copartnership then the members thereof or if such person be a corporation then the officers thereof may be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of not more than one year

Section 310 Acid Mine Drainage The provisions of this article shall not apply to acid mine drainage from coal mines until such time as in the opinion of the Sanitary Water Board practical means for the removal or reduction of the polluting properties of such drainage shall become known

ARTICLE IV

Petty Pollution

Section 401 Petty Pollutions Prohibited It shall be unlawful for any person to put or place into any of the waters of the Commonwealth any explosives or to put or to allow any substance of any kind or character injurious or inimical to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or to the uses of water for industrial purposes or for recreation to be turned into or to run or flow or wash or to be emptied into any of the waters of the Commonwealth

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and in default of the payment of such fine and costs of prosecution the person or if such person be an association or copartnership then the members thereof or if such person be a corporation then the officers thereof shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of sixty days

Any person who shall continue to violate the provisions of this section after conviction in a summary proceeding as above provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof in the court of quarter sessions shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars and such person or if such person be an association or copartnership then the members thereof or is such person be a corporation then the officers thereof shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of not less than three months nor more than one year Each day during which this section is violated shall constitute a separate offence

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to apply to any sewage or industrial waste the discharge of which is regulated or prohibited by the preceding sections of this act but this section shall apply to explosives and to all other substances injurious or inimical to the public health or animal or aquatic life or to the use of the water for domestic industrial or recreational purposes and to any sewage or industrial waste the discharge of which is not regulated or prohibited by the preceding sections of this act This section shall not be construed to prohibit the use of explosives for engineering purposes when a written permit has been given therefor by proper national State or municipal authorities

Section 402 Abatement of Petty Pollutions The violation of any of the provisions of the preceding section of this act is hereby declared to constitute a nuisance and to be abatable as herein provided

Section 403 Powers of Board The Board shall have power to adopt and promulgate reasonable rules and regulations for the purpose of preventing petty pollutions and to provide for and regulate the installation and maintenance of septic tanks or other methods of treatment whenever deemed necessary by the Board

Domestic Water Supplies

Section 501 Protection of Domestic Water Supplies In addition to the powers and authority hereinbefore granted power and authority is hereby conferred upon the Board after due notice and public hearing to make adopt promulgate and enforce reasonable orders and regulations for the protection of any source of water approved by the Commissioner of Health or the Department of Health for present or future supply to the public and prohibiting the pollution of any such source of water so approved rendering the same inimical or injurious to the public health or objectionable for public water supply purposes

Section 502 Penalty Any person violating any of said orders and regulations of the Board or refusing or omitting to comply with any direction or stipulation of the Secretary of Health made in accordance with said orders and regulations after thirty days' notice thereof shall upon conviction in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and in default of the payment of such fine and costs of prosecution the person or if such person be an association or copartnership then the members thereof or if such person be a corporation then the officers thereof shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of sixty days

Any person who shall continue to violate the orders and regulations of the Board or refuse or omit to comply with any direction or stipulation of the Secretary of Health after conviction in a summary proceeding as abov provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof in the Court of Quarter Sessions shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars and the person or if such person be an association or copartnership then the members thereof or if such person be a corporation then officers thereof shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of not less than three months nor more than one year

Section 503 Public Nuisances A violation of the orders and regulations adopted by the Board pursuant to section five hundred and one of this act shall constitute a nuisance and whenever such a pollution shall be maintained or continued contrary to such orders and regulations the same may be abatable in the manner provided by this act

Procedure

Section 601 Abatement of Pollutions All pollutions hereinbefore declared to be nuisances or maintained contrary to the provisions of this act shall be abatable in the manner now provided by law or equity for the abatement of public nuisances In addition suits to abate pollution of any of the waters of the Commonwealth may be instituted in equity or at law in the name of the Commonwealth upon relation of the Attorney General or upon relation of any district attorney of any county or upon relation of the solicitor of any municipality affected after notice has first been served upon the Attorney General of the intention of the district attorney or solicitor to so proceed Such proceeding may be prosecuted in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County or in the Court of Common Pleas of the county where the nuisance has been or is being committed or of any county through which or along the borders of which flows the water into which such pollution has been discharged at any point above and to that end jurisdiction is hereby conferred in law and equity upon such courts provided however that no action shall be brought by such district attorney or solicitor against any municipality discharging sewage under a permit of the Board heretofore issued or hereafter issued under this act and provided further that except in cases of emergency where in the opinion of the court the exigencies of the cases require immediate abatement of said nuisances the court may in its decree fix a reasonable time during which the person or municipality responsible for the nuisances may make provision for the abatement of the same

Section 602 Preliminary Injunctions In cases where the circumstances require it or the public health is endangered a mandatory preliminary injunction or special injunction

may be issued upon the terms prescribed by the court notice of the application therefore having been given to the defendent in accordance with the rules of equity practice and in any such case the Attorney General the district attorney or the solicitor of any municipality shall not be required to give bond

Section 603 Summary Proceedings All summary proceedings under the provisions of this act may be brought before any magistrate alderman or justice of the peace of the county where the offense occured or the unlawful discharge of sewage industrial waste or pollution was maintained or in the county where the public is affected and to that end jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon said magistrates aldermen or justices of the peace subject to appeal by either party in the manner provided by law In the case of any appeal from any conviction in the manner provided by law for appeals from summary conviction it shall be the duty of the district attorney of the county to represent the interests of the Commonwealth

Section 604 Complaints Investigations Upon complaint made in writing by any responsible person to the Board it shall be the duty of the Board through its agents to investigate any alleged source of pollution of the waters of the Commonwealth and to institute appropriate proceedings under the provisions of this act to discontinue any such pollution if the offence complained of constitutes a violation of the provisions of this act

Section 605 Appeals Any order decision rule or regulation made by the Board shall be subject to appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County within thirty days from its entry by any person or municipality but in such appeal the decision rule or regulation of the Board shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness thereof and the burden to establish the incorrectness thereof shall be upon the appellant Said court may affirm or modify any such order decision rule or regulation if it be established by the appellant that the discharge of sewage or industrial waste or the erection maintenance or operation of any treatment works is not nor likely to become inimical or injurious to the public health or to animal or aquatic life or to the use of the water for domestic industrial or recreational purposes and if the court so finds it may set aside such order decision rule or regulation of the Board Any order (other than an order to discontinue the discharge or industrial waste) decision rule or regulation appealed from shall not be superseded by the appeal but shall be in force until the order of the court is made as above provided The setting aside of any order or decision of the Board by the court upon any such appeal shall not prevent or preclude said Board from again instituting subsequent proceedings against the same person or municipality when in its opinion the public health is endangered or animal or aquatic life destroyed or water rendered unfit for domestic industrial or recreational purposes subject to appeal as above provided

Section 606 Proceedings Where Waters Polluted from Many Sources Nothing contained in the laws of the Commonwealth shall estop the Board from proceeding under the provisions of this act against any particular municipality or person discharging sewage or industrial waste or other noxious or deleterious substance into the waters of the Commonwealth even though said waters are at the time polluted from other sources

Section 607 Public Records Evidence All papers records and documents of the Board and applications for permits pending before the Board shall be public records open to inspection during business hours and copies of all such public records and the rules and regulations of the Board certified by the Secretary of Health shall be received in evidence in all courts and elsewhere

Section 608 Existing Rules Regulations and Orders All rules and regulations heretofore adopted by the Board and all orders made and actions taken by the Board or the Secretary of Health under the provisions of law repealed by this act shall continue in force with the same effect as if such laws had not been repealed subject however to modification change or annulment as may be deemed necessary by the Board in order to comply with the provisions of this act

Section 609 Application and Permit Fees The Board is hereby authorized to fix and collect from persons and municipalities a reasonable filing fee for applications filed and for permits issued

ARTICLE VII

Scope and Purpose

Section 701 Existing Rights and Remedies Preserved The collection of any penalty under the provisions of this act shall not be construed as estopping the Commonwealth or any district attorney or solicitor of a municipality from proceeding in courts of law or equity to abate pollutions forbidden under this act or abate nuisances under existing law It is hereby declared to be the purpose of this act to provide additional and cumulative remedies to abate the pollution of the waters of this Commonwealth and nothing in this act contained shall in any way abridge or alter rights of action or remedies now or hereafter existing in equity or under the common law or statutory law criminal or civil nor shall any provision in this act or the granting of any permit under this act or any act done by virtue of this act be construed as estopping the Commonwealth persons or municipalities in the exercise of their rights under the common law or decisional law or in equity from proceeding in courts of law or equity to suppress nuisances or to abate any pollution now or hereafter existing or enforce common law or statutory rights

ARTICLE VIII

Repealer

Section 801 Repeal The following acts and parts of acts of Assembly are hereby repealed

Sections four five six seven eight nine ten and eleven of an act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws two hundred sixty) entitled "An act to preserve the purity of the waters of the State for the protection of the public health"

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2493, (Senate Bill No. 1310), entitled:

An Act to amend sections two and four of the joint resolution, approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Act No. 127), entitled "A joint resolution authorizing the appointment of a commission to make a thorough and impartial investigation into the operation of the oil industry in this Commonwealth, with special reference to the adequate, efficient and economical supplying of lubricating oils and gasoline to the people of this Commonwealth; conferring upon the commission full power to issue subpoenas; requiring the commision to make a report of its findings to the Governor, together with its recommendations, as to such regulatory legislation as may be needfull to correct any abuses and evils connected with such industry, which are prejudicial to the interests of the citizens of this Commonwealth; authorizing the commission to employ counsel and employes; and making an appropriation." by authorizing the several Courts of Common Pleas, upon application, to adjudge persons, refusing to comply with subpoenas of the commission in contempt of court; and by increasing the appropriation to the commission.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 99.

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 736), entitled "Workmen's Compensation Act of 1915," by making the present schedules of compensation compulsory upon all employers; changing, adding to and increasing the schedules of compensation; prescribing and changing certain presumptions and rules of evidence; increasing the requirements to be met by employers desiring to be self-insurers; conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry; imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers and insurance carriers, including the cost of administering the workmen's compensation system including the rehabilitation of employes; providing for the payment of compensation for certain second injuries and for the rehabilitation of injured employes, and for the payment of re-opened cases after a certain lapse of time, by the Commonwealth out of moneys required to be paid into the State Treasury by certain employers and insurance carriers in death cases where there are no dependents; imposing new and changing certain existing penalties; and generally amending, clarifying and changing the provisions of said act.

HOUSE BILL No. 1000.

An Act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto.

Whereupon,

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL No. 2037

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 2037, Printer's No. 1167, entitled

An Act to re-enact a part of section one of article three of the act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one (P. L. 20) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" providing for the removal and dismissal of policemen in cities of the second class was defeated on final passage on Tuesday, June 1, 1937, be reconsidered

Mr. SKALE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Levy, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Skale, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. SKALE. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is the bill which was defeated the other evening and which applies to Allegheny county. You will recall the question of the trial of the police and firemen in that county. Under the present system, as the gentleman from Allegheny told us the other night and which I have since confirmed, it provides a fair and equitable means for the men on the force to be tried before an impartial court by the selection of twenty-five men of equal rank or higher, who are drawn from a panel as a trial by a jury, and finally gets down to a Board of three. Under the provisions of this bill this would provide that they would have to be tried by a board selected by the Director of Public Safety. It would mean that the Director might be the judge and the jury and the accuser all at one time; it might be a board of only one member. The Director might pick out only one man. It seems to me, in fairness to the men in that city, they they ought to have the right to retain a system that I understand has worked satisfactorily for a number of years.

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the act that is before you at the present time is an act to repeal the act that we had prior to 1937. Under the act that is in force today it is impossible for a trial board to be picked to try inspectors or lieutenants. The present act requires that from a panel of twenty the board shall be picked or the jury shall be picked, which makes it impossible for a jury to be picked to try lieutenants or inspectors. Prior to 1931 this act was in effect and worked satisfactorily. However, the city of Pittsburgh, in trying to find a new solution and in trying to work out what may be a better bill, introduced the present act. After having had the prior act for seven years we found that it was not satisfactory. Council and the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, who for the past year have been carrying on a program to increase the efficiency of the police in the City of Pittsburgh, are favorable to this act and believe it will increase the efficiency, and I ask the members of the House to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Monroe familiar with the provision under the section dealing with the Department of Forests and Waters, which gives to policemen employed by the Department unlimited power of arrest, and also provides that they may be used for any other service in the Commonwealth in serving Department subpoenaes and so forth?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Monroe state the reason for that amendment, why such broad powers are given and why employes or forestry policemen or foresters should be used for such purposes?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, heretofore they had the usual police powers; under this bill they have all the usual police powers. In addition to this, of course, they are extended the general powers of police officers, which would include the items indicated by the gentleman from Delaware.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, are general policemen given the power to serve all kinds of papers in the Commonwealth?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, no, not all kinds of papers.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Monroe know that this will likely lead to considerable abuse, if we are going to adopt such a system dealing with Forestry? Why should they be placed in that position? There must be some intent to use them for some other purpose.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I will say that under this measure it would permit them to serve such papers as the Department of Forests and Waters might see fit to serve. The powers given are along broad lines. After all these men are under the control and the jurisdiction of the Department, and the gentleman from Delaware need not worry that these particular employes are going to infringe upon the work of other police officers who have powers similar to theirs.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Monroe is familiar with the fact that we have a similar experience in the Highway Department where they have men carrying mail up and down from Philadelphia and other points in the State. It seems to under this act you are opening the same door.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am not familiar with that particular situation. It do not recall that it has occurred since 1935. It may have occurred previous to that time.

Mr. TURNER. It has occurred since then, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I have no knowledge of that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I also desire to call the attention of the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, to the fact that under these amendments, as I understand them, power would be given to lease property of the state to the State Authority for a period not to exceed ninety-nine years. If I recall rightly the State Authority's term of existence was for about fifty years. The limitation the other way was to make a contract, as I recall it, for leasing for a period of thirty years. Why the ninety-nine year provision?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, as I recall the State Authority Act, it was finally amended in the House so that the term was made perpetual, their existence was made perpetual. I believe that was the last amendment that was finally written into the bill previous to its passage. So I find no discrepancy between the ninety-nine years and the perpetual existence of the State Authority.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Monroe not think that it will lead to a situation that while we are trying to work out a system to secure certain buildings and improvements to the State Authority, if you spread it over a period of ninty-nine years, we are going, not on a pay as you go basis, but we would be replacing buildings that might be dilapidated at that time and we would still be paying rent for them.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am quite frank to say that in the course of years, if the lease is made for ninety-nine years, or rather leasing that property from the State Authority, it would make the payment very, very small. In other words, the amortization of the indebtedness would of necessity be very small. However, I think the gentleman will find that the usual lease, I believe, is about thirty years.

Mr. TURNER. Therefore, do you not think that it opens the door to an opportunity for abuse? Would it not be better for the Legislature to put some limitation on it?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. There is a limitation, of course, Mr. Speaker, for ninety-nine years. I might say, Mr. Speaker, that the advantage of course, is to the taxpayers, in that the amortization is of necessity small in the length of time that it has to be paid, that is over thirty years.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I understand that that might be a New Deal reasoning, as to the spread of the time that you are going to pay it eventually. I think I understand the reasoning of the gentleman from Monroe, and he does not feel any such thing. He thinks that when you build it should be paid for within a reasonable length of time. There is no reason why it should be for ninety-nine years. In the second place, I think it will open the doors to abuse and to the expenditure of a greater sum of money than we ought to spend.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am afraid that the gentleman from Delaware is presuming too much when he says he knows my mental processes.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the statement. Maybe the gentleman has no mental processes.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of information.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, does that complete the amendments offered by the gentleman from Monroe, or has he amendments to other sections?

The SPEAKER. There are amendments to other sections. That completes the amendments to Section 1.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 4, lines 4 to 6, by striking out all of said lines, and inserting in lieu thereof: "the table of contents and sections 2, 201, 202, 203, 206, 207, 209, 210, 221, 222, 301, 303, 401, 428, 429, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 439, 444, 448, 507, 508, 511, 522, 701, 709, 712, 906, 907, 1001, 1101, 1401, 1402, 1601, 1602, 1603, 2101, 2110, 2402."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in order to shorten the proceedings for the members of the House and to relieve you of the burden of listening to the reading of the extended amendments which I have offered to Senate Bill No. 776, we are taking a little unusual procedure, but if the House will bear with me I think it will shorten the proceedings very materially. May I say, in the first place, to the membership of the House on the other side, that if you had listened to me a couple of months ago and perhaps within the last month, you would have been saved this burden tonight. I have, as you will recall, on several occasions asked the Committee on State Government to consider an economy program. I went so far as to draft such an economy program and I asked the Committee on State Government and the Governor to cooperate with me in putting across such a program. I was assured by the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, that the Committee on State Government would initiate such a program and study, and the Sterling Committee report was not to be forgotten, although it seemed that the Governor and some of my friends on the other side believe that all of the provisions for economy in the State Government are contained in the Sterling Committee report. I commend to you gentlemen the study of the Sterling Committee report, and as fine as that report is as a text book on our State Government, it does not contain many of the things that are necessary for a reorganization and a more efficient and compact organization of our State government. When this bill No. 776 appeared in the Committee on State Government, I am sure that the gentleman from Monroe and other members on that committee will not object to my making this statement, because I feel that in justice to myself and in justice to my colleagues here on the left, who have sat loyally waiting on us, that I ought to be allowed to make this statement.

I did at that time state that I had extensive amendments prepared which should not be submitted on the floor of the House, and that these amendments ought to go to the committee. As a result I was assured that there would be a sub-committee of the Committee on State Government to consider my amendments. I am still waiting on that sub-committee to consider them. We are therefore confronted with the proposition here of having to put this House through the ordeal of listening to a great number of amendments, because when you set out to amend the Administrative code you will find that it is not just a question of amending some little section, but it is a question of going through practically the whole code because here and there in other sections there are phrases and words which bear upon the question.

I am submitting and I am suggesting to the House, to shorten the proceedings that I outline what they cover, that the amendments then can be read the short way, and that this House can then proceed to act upon them. I believe in the reorganization of the State government and these amendments carry it out on this basis: that the Department of Banking and the Department of Insurance should be combined; that under the Department of Welfare all state hospitals should be transferred from the Department of Welfare to the Department of Health, and the penal and correctional institutions to a commission hereinafter suggested. The reason for that is that certain State hospitals, as you know, are now administered under the Department of Health. There is no reason why they should not be combined in the operation and management of the hospitals, and have the direction and supervision of the hospitals put into one bureau, penal and correctional institutions ought to be cared for by a commission that is created for that purpose, with the particular knowledge necessary to guide them. I cannot see that the penal and correctional institutions belong under the administration of a department with as broad a scope as the Department of Welfare.

The Department of Forests and Waters should be transferred to the Department of Internal Affairs, and the Department of Mines to the Department of Labor and Industry. The reason for transferring the Department of Forests and Waters to the Department of Internal Affairs is because there should be a bureau with a continuing policy. Under our present conditions I think we had some two or three secretaries of the Department of Forests and Waters within a two year period. The Department of Mines should be transferred to the Department of Labor and Industry. The Department of Labor and Industry inspects our manufacturing institutions. The Department of Mines has to do with the inspection of mines and with the issuance of miners' certificates and with safety measures, and therefore it should be handled within that department.

The Department of Revenue should be a part of the Treasury Department. In other words, the Treasury Department should not only be a disbursing agency it should be a collection agency. I am not going to take the time of the House, to dissertate on that tonight, but I think that those members who were here when the Department of Revenue was created, and a number of us are here now who objected to it at that time, have always felt that it was a mistake, that it belonged within the Treasury Department. Certain functions within the Department of Revenue should be greatly curtailed and the extensive work should be cut down and the work should be done by the Auditor General's Department, by whom it was intended to be done.

The State Athletic Commission should be abolished and the work carried on by a director under a non-paid commission. I am not going to expand on that here. It is too small; it is a small agency and it does not need a salaried commission to carry on its work. There is an overlapping and duplication in auditing, and, as I said before, that work ought to be carried on by the Auditor General.

As to the new Department of Assistance that is to be set up under the bills which are before the House which have not yet been passed, it seems to me we are again creating a great big bureau which I think is going to be one of the hardest departments of the whole state of Pennsylvania to control. I think we are loading on the backs of the taxpayers of Pennsylvania something that they are not familiar with now, and cannot possibly foresee. I will have something more to say about that later.

I think the Unemployment Commission ought to be carried on by the Department of Labor and Industry in connection with its unemployment insurance, old age assistance, mothers' assistance, pensions for the blind, child welfare, vocational training, so far as it is not a part of the educational problem handled by the Department of Public Instruction. I say here again we are setting up a big bureau to do work that should be carried on under a non-paid commission with a director. If we should set up county boards and allow them certain administrative functions, we cut down the administration costs. I want you to bear in mind that under the bills that are now before the House, I think the Department of Assistance is going to get something like one million five hundred thousand dollars from the state, and it is going to get about one million three hundred thousand dollars from the Federal Government in addition to that, and expects to expand about four hundred thousand dollars a month which is now being expended upon administration for relief. That, I figure out, is something over ten million dollars, in this biennium that is going to be used in the administration of that one department. I think you will all agree, if you will stop to think about it that we are building something there that we are going to regret; that we are going to fasten something on the people of the state of Pennsylvania that they do not know they are getting, and when they come to try to shake it off they will find it has a strangle hold on them and they cannot get rid of it. Now is the time to stop it and put a check on it. I am confident that over two million dollars can be saved in the expense of the operation of the department, and I think we can save more if we but take the axe now and start to chop down the expenditures instead of expending the money which we have been expending. I would ask the membership of the House to look at the general appropriation bill and see just what it costs to run the state government and the amount that is being expended in the operation and the overhead in many of our departments. If you considered that, I think you would stop and sit down and talk with me about these amendments.

Mr. Speaker, I therefore present the amendments and ask that they be read the short way in order that they may be considered by the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. McDEVITT and were as follows:

Section 1212. Forest Powers and Duties.—The Department of Internal Affairs shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) With the approval of the State Forest Commission, to acquire in the name of the Commonwealth by purchase, gift, lease or condemnation, and hold as State forests, subject to the conditions of any such lease, and subject to such reservations if any of mineral rights, stumpage rights, rights of way, or other encumbrances as the department and the State Forest Commission deem to be consistent with such holding any lands which, in the judgment of the department, the Commonwealth should regulate as State forests: The purchase price of any such lands shall not exceed ten dollars per acre except the price paid for interior holdings and farms and marginal farms along State forest lands which shall not exceed twenty dollars per acre. The amount expended for the acquisition of lands for State forest purposes in any biennial appropriation period shall not exceed the appropriation for that purpose for such period.

(b) To purchase and hold, as State forests, unseated, vacant, or unappropriated lands, lands advertised for sale for taxes, and land sold for taxes, as may now or hereafter be provided by law.

(c) To hold, manage, control, protect, maintain, utilize, develop and regulate the occupancy and use of all lands heretofore or hereafter acquired, owned, leased and maintained as State forests, together with the resources thereof.

(d) To divide the State into such convenient forest districts as it deems economical and effective, to administer, protect, develop, utilize, and regulate the occupancy and use of the lands and resources of the State forests, to protect all forest land in the State from forest fires, fungi, insects, and other enemies, to promote and develop forestry and knowledge of forestry throughout the State, to advise and assist landowners in the planting of forest and shade trees, to obtain and publish information respecting forest lands and forestry in the State, to assist in Arbor Day work, and promote and advance any other activity in local forestry which the department may deem helpful to the public interest, and to execute the rules and regulations of the department for the protection of forests from fire and depredation. It may also assign district foresters to take active charge of such forest districts, and also foresters, forest rangers, and other help, for the administration of such forest districts, as the Secretary of Internal Affairs may deem necessary, for the accomplishment throughout the State of the purposes for which the department is established.

(e) To cooperate with the authorities of townships, boroughs, and cities, of this Commonwealth in the acquisition and administration of municipal forests, as may now or hereafter be provided by law.

(f) With the advice of the State Forest Commission, to establish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the control, management, protection, utilization, development, occupancy, and use, of the lands and resources of the State forests, as the department deems proper, to conserve the interests of the Commonwealth. Such rules and regulations shall be compatible with the purposes for which the State forests are created, namely, to provide a continuous supply of timber, lumber, wood, and other forest products, to protect the watersheds, conserve the waters, and regulate the flow of rivers and streams of the State, and to furnish opportunities for healthful recreation to the public.

The net receipts, arising out of the occupancy and use of the State forests hereunder, shall be paid into the State Treasury, through the Department of Revenue, and shall belong to and form part of the State School Fund.

(g) Whenever it shall appear that the Welfare of the Commonwealth, with reference to reforesting, and the betterment of the State forests, with respect to control, managament, protection, utilization, development, and regulation, of their occupancy and use, will be advanced by selling or disposing of any of the timber on the State forests, to dispose of such timber on terms most advantageous to the State: Provided, That the department is authorized and directed to set aside, within the State forests, unusual or historical groves of rees, or natural features, especially worthy of permanent preservation, to make the same accessible and convenient for public use, and to dedicate them in perpetuity to the people of the State for their recreation and enjoyment. And the said department is hereby empowered, with the advice of the State Forest Commission, to make and execute contracts or leases, in the name of the Commonwealth, for the mining or removal of any valuable minerals that may be found in said State forests, whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the department that it would be for the best interests of the State to make such disposition of said minerals: And provided further, That any proposed contracts or leases of valuable minerals, exceeding three hundred dollars in value, shall have been advertised once a week for three weeks, in at least two newspapers published nearest the locality indicated, in advance of awarding such contract or lease. Such contracts or leases may then be awarded to the highest and best bidder, who shall give bond for the proper performance of the contract as the department shall designate.

(h) To appoint and, with the approval of the Governor, fix the compensation of a chief forest fire warden, and such district forest fire wardens, and to appoint and fix the compensation of such local forest fire wardens and other assistants, as shall be required for the prevention, control, and extinction of forest fires.

(i) To establish and administer auxiliary forest reserves in the manner and under such terms and conditions as may nor or hereafter be provided by law.

(j) To distribute young forest trees, as provided by law, to those desiring to plant them.

(k) To furnish information, and issue certificates and requisition necessary for the payment of such fixed charges, in lieu of taxes on State forests and auxiliary forest reserves, to school districts, road districts, and counties, as may now or hereafter be provided by law.

(l) To sell or exchange State forest land, as provided by law, whenever it shall be to the advantage of the State forest interests: Provided, That such action has been authorized by resolution of the State Forest Commission, unanimously adopted at a meeting at which a majority of its members are present and voting, and has been approved by the Governor.

Section 1213. Forests Powers.—The Department of Internal Affairs shall have the power:

(a) To lease for a period not exceeding ten years, on such terms and conditions as it may consider reasonable, to any citizen, church organization or school board of Pennsylvania, such portion of any State forest, whether owned or leased by the Commonwealth, as the department may deem suitable as a site for a temporary building to be used by such citizen, church, organization or school board for health and recreation, or as a site for a church or school purposes.

(b) To lease for not more than ten years small areas in State forests, whether owned or leased by the Commonwealth, deemed by it to be better suited for the growing of other crops than for the growing of forest trees. If more than one person shall apply for the same tract, the lease shall be advertised for sale in three local county papers, if there be so many, once a week for three weeks, and may then be awarded to the highest responsible bidder, but the department may nevertheless reject any or all bids. Upon the termination of any such lease, the lessee may remove buildings and fences placed thereon at his own expense, or the same may be purchased by the lessor as a part of the permanent improvement of the tract upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the department and the lessee.

(c) To grant rights of way through State forests, to individuals or corporations who may apply therefor, when it shall appear to the department that the grant of a right of way will not so adversely affect the land as to interfere with its usual and orderly administration, and when it shall appear that the interests of the Commonwealth or its citizens will be promoted by such grant. Rights of way, as used in this subsection, is hereby construed to include rights of passage and haulage for any lawful purpose, also rights of flowage or transmission for any lawful purpose.

(d) To give to street railway companies, duly incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth, upon such terms and subject to such restrictions and regulations as the department, with the advice of the State Forest Commission, may deem proper, the privilege to construct, maintain, and operate their lines of railway over, along, and upon public highways now laid out and in actual use, which lie within or border on any State forests, whenever the interests of the Commonwealth will be benefited thereby.

(e) With the advice of the State Forest Commission, to give to boroughs and other municipalities of this Commonwealth, upon such terms and subject to such restrictions and regulations as the department may deem proper, the privilege of impounding water upon any State forest, and of constructing, maintaining, and operating lines of pipes upon and through State forests for the purpose of conveying water therefrom, whenever it shall be to the public interest so to do.

(f) In all cases where there are public roads, regularly established, runnning into or through or bordering upon State forests, from time to time, to expend such reasonable sums for the maintenance, repair, or extension of such roads as may be necessary for the proper administration and protection of State forests. All expenses that may thus be incurred shall be paid in the same manner as the other expenses of the department.

(g) To enter into cooperative agreements with county, township, municipal, and private agencies, for the prevention and suppression of forest fires, as provided by law.

Section 1214. Waters.—The Department of Internal Affairs shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To study, consider, and determine upon a public policy with regard to the conservation, marketing, and equitable distribution of the water and power to be derived from the utilization of the water resources of the Commonwealth, to the restoration, development, and improvement of transportation by water, to the supply of water and power for municipal, domestic, and industrial use, and to the conservation of water resources by the aid of forestation.

(b) To investigate or examine dams, walls, wing walls, wharves, embankments, abutments, projections, bridges and other water obstructions, determine whether they are unsafe, need repair, alteration or change in their structure or location, or should be removed, notify owners to repair, alter or change the structure or location, or remove the same, repair, alter or change the structure or location or remove the same in emergencies without notice and at the cost of the owners and apply for injunctions to enforce compliance with or restrain the violation of the law in regard to the safety of dams or the derogatory effect of walls, wing walls, wharves, embankments, abutments, projections, bridges or other water obstructions upon the regimen of streams or the violation of any lawful order or notice of the department, or the Water and Power Resources Board in regard thereto. The power of the department under this paragraph shall extend to and include all types of water obstructions regardless of the date when such obstructions were constructed and whether or not the same were constructed by express of implied permission of the Commonwealth or any agency thereof.

(c) To collect such information relative to the existing conditions of the water resources of the State as, in the opinion of the department, shall be necessary for the utilization of waters, and for the conservation, purification, development, and equitable distribution of water and water power resources, and in particular, for the use of such citizens and communities as may be in need of extended facilities for these purposes.

(d) To establish and maintain gauging stations on rivers and their tributaries.

(e) To issue bulletins, during freshet and flood conditions, forecasting gauge heights, and the times thereof.

(f) To maintain a complete inventory of all the water resources of the Commonwealth; collect all pertinent data, facts, and information in connection therewith; classify, tabulate, record, and preserve the same; and, upon the basis thereof, determine, with the approval of the Water and Power Resources Board, the points at which storage reservoirs may be construed for flood control, for municipal and domestic supply, hydraulic and hydroelectric power, steam raising, steam condensation, navigation, and other utilization; and generally to devise all possible ways and means to conserve and develop the water supply and water resources of the Commonwealth for the use of the people thereof.

(g) To construct, maintain, and operate works for water storage, flood control, channel improvement, or other hydraulic purposes.

Section 1215. Cooperation with Municipalities.—The Department of Internal Affairs shall cooperate with municipalities in the construction and completion of projects and improvements for the conservation of water and the control of floods. For this purpose, the department shall have the power to use and expend any funds advanced by municipalities, under authority of law, on the projects and improvements designated, when such funds are advanced, in the same manner as it expends any funds appropriated by the Commonwealth for similar purposes.

Section 1216. Parks.—The Department of Internal Affairs shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To supervise, maintain, improve, regulate, police and preserve all parks belonging to the Commonwealth, except the Pennsylvania State Park, at Erie, Washington Crossing Park, Valley Forge Park, and Fort Washington Park.

(b) For the purpose of promoting healthful outdoor recreation and education and making available for such use natural areas of unusual scenic beauty, especially such as provide impressive views, water falls, gorges, creeks, caves or other unique and interesting features, to acquire in the name of the Commonwealth by purchase, gift, lease or condemnation, any lands which, in the judgment of the department, should be held controlled, protected, maintained and utilized as State park lands. Such lands may be purchased or accepted, subject to the conditions of any such lease, and subject to such reservations if any of mineral rights, rights of way, or other encumbrances as the department may deem not inconsistent with such holdings: Provided, however, That the amount expended for the acquisition of lands for State park purposes shall not exceed the amount specifically appropriated for such purposes.

(c) To establish such rules and regulations not inconsistent with law for the control, management, protection, utilization, development, occupancy, and use of the lands and resources of State parks as it may deem necessary to conserve the interests of the Commonwealth. Such rules and regulations shall be compatible with the purposes for which State parks are created.

(d) To see that conveniences and facilities for the transportation, shelter, comfort and education of people shall be so designed and constructed as to retain so far as may be naturalistic appearance of State park areas, surroundings and approaches, and conceal the hand of man as ordinarily visible in urban, industrial and commercial activities.

(e) To lease for a period not to exceed ten years, on such terms as may be considered reasonable to any citizen or organization of this Commonwealth, a portion of any State park, whether owned or leased by the Commonwealth, as may be suitable as a site for temporary buildings to be used for health, recerational or educational purposes, or for parking areas or concessions for the convenience and comfort of the public.

(f) To study, counsel and advise in reference to gifts of lands or money for park purposes.

(g) To counsel and advise in reference to the development of park lands by concessionairies with facilities and equipment for the accommodation and education of the public.

Section 1217. Pennsylvania State Forest School.—The Department of Internal Affairs shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To maintain and operate the Pennsylvania State Forest School at Mont Alto.

(b) For that purpose, to employ such instructors, assign such foresters for instruction, and employ such services, as may reasonably be necessary (1) to provide at the school professional education in forestry and maintain a close association of theory and practice, and (2) to train forest rangers and forest inspectors.

(c) With the approval of the Governor, to enter into a cooperative agreement with any State or semi-State educational institution for the joint use of the facilities of the school by such institution and the department as may be deemed advisable by the Secretary of Internal Affairs. Any such agreement shall provide for an equitable division between such institution and the Commonwealth of the cost of operating the school and maintaining and repairing the buildings and equipment used by it.

Section 1218. Water and Power Resources Board.—The Water and Power Resources Board shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) Subject to any inconsistent provisions in this act contained, to exercise the powers and perform the duties by law vested in and imposed upon the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania, or in and upon said board, with regard to:

1. Applications for charters for corporations for the supply of water for the public or for the supply, storage, and transportation of water and water power, for commercial and manufacturing purposes, or for any other water or water power company.

2. Agreements for the merger and consolidation of two or more such corporations heretofore or hereafter formed.

3. The sale, assignment, disposition, transfer, and conveyance of the franchises and all the property, real, personal, and mixed, of any such corporation, heretofore or hereafter formed, to any other such corporation.

4. Consents or permits for the construction of dams, and other water obstructions, or of any change therein or addition thereto, and consents or permits for changing or diminishing the course, current, or cross section, of any stream or body of water.

5. Permits for the condemnation or appropriation of waters, or for the construction of hydraulic works.

6. Applications for new or additional sources of supply of water or water power.

7. Applications by companies for approval of the construction, operation, and maintenance of tunnels under navigable rivers, to connect their power to manufacturing plants, with coal lands wherein such companies have coal mining rights.

8. The extension of time fixed by law for the beginning or completion of the construction of the works of water or water power companies, inquiry into the standing of water or water power charters, hearings as to such beginning or completion, and as to the due diligence and bona fide intent of water and water power companies to fulfill the requirements of law, and the certification of facts to the Attorney General requesting him to institute quo warranto proceedings.

(b) To hold hearings upon and decide any other matter or thing relating to water, which may be within the jurisdiction of the Department of Internal Affairs, and which the Secretary of Internal Affairs may request the board to hear and determine.

(c) To complete the construction of a dam across the outlet of Pymatuning Swamp, in Crawford County, for the purpose of establishing a reservoir, and conserving the water entering said swamp, and regulating the flow of water in the Shenango and Beaver Rivers, and, in connection with this project, to acquire, in the name of the Commonwealth, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, such lands as may be needed.

Section 1219. Geographic Boards.—The Geographic Board shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To pass upon and determine all unsettled questions concerning geographic names, which arise in the administrative departments of the State Government.

(b) To determine, change, and fix the names of mountains, rivers, creeks, and other topographic features within the Commonwealth.

In the exercise of its powers, and the performance of its duties, the Geographic Board shall cooperate with the United States Geographic Board.

Section 1220. Lake Erie and Ohio River Canal Board.—Subject to any inconsistent provisions in this act contained, the Lake Erie and Ohio River Canal Board shall continue to exercise the powers and perform the duties by law vested and imposed upon said board.

Section 1221. Pennsylvania State Park and Harbor Commission of Erie.—Subject to any inconsistent provisions in this act contained, the Pennsylvania State Park and Harbor Commission of Erie shall continue to exercise the powers and perform the duties by law vested in and imposed upon said commission.

Section 1222. Washington Crossing Park Commission.—Subject to any inconsistent provisions in this act contained, the Washington Crossing Park Commission shall continue to exercise the powers and perform the duties by law vested in and imposed upon the said commission.

Section 1223. Valley Forge Park Commission.—Subject to an inconsistent provisions in this act contained, the Valley Forge Park Commission shall continue to exercise the powers and perform the duties by law vested in and imposed upon the Commissioners of Valley Forge Park.

Section 1224. Fort Washington Park Commission.—The Fort Washington Park Commission shall have the power, and its duty shall be, to supervise, maintain, improve, regulate, police, and preserve Fort Washington Park, Montgomery County.

Section 1225. State Forest Commission.—The State Forest Commission shall have the power:

(a) To consider, study, and advise, in the work of the Department of Internal Affairs, relating to forests and parks. For this purpose, the commission shall have access, at any time, to all books, papers, documents, and records pertaining or belonging to the department.

(b) To advise the department, on request, and to make recommendations, upon its initiative, for the improvement of the work of the department.

(c) To approve or disapprove the rules and regulations which the department may from time to time propose to adopt.

(d) To give or withhold its consent to any act of the department, the validity of which is, by this act, made subject to the consent of the commission.

Section 1226. Bushy Run Battlefield Commission.—The Bushy Run Battlefield Commission shall the right, from time to time, to meet for the purpose of considering and studying the work of the department with regard to the Bushy Run Battlefield State Park in Westmoreland County, and to make recommendations and render advice to the department with reference to the conduct, improvement and maintenance thereof.

Section 1227. Powers of Forest Officers.—The persons employed, under the provisions of this act, by the Department of Internal Affairs for the protection of the State forests shall, after taking the proper official oath before the clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions of any county of the Commonwealth, be vested with the same powers as are, by existing laws, conferred upon constables and other peace officers, to arrest on view, without first procuring a warrant therefor, persons detected by them in the act of trespassing upon any forest or timber land within this Commonwealth, under such circumstances as to warrant the reasonable suspicion that such person or persons have committed, are committing, or are about to commit any offense or offenses against any of the laws now enacted or hereafter to be enacted for the protection of forests and timber lands. Such officers shall likewise be vested with similar powers of arrest in the case of offenses against the laws or rules and regulations enacted or established, or to be enacted or established, for the protection of the State forests, or for the protection of the fish and game contained therein: Provided, That the above-mentioned rules and regulations shall have been previously conspicuously posted upon the State forests. Said officers shall further be empowered, and it shall be their duty, immediately upon any such arrest, to take and convey the offender or offenders before a justice of the peace or other magistrate having jurisdiction, for hearing and trial or other due process of law; Provided, further, That this act shall extend only to the case of offenses committed upon the State forests, and lands adjacent thereto, and the powers herein conferred upon said officers shall not be exercised beyond the limits thereof, except where necessary for the purpose of pursuing and arresting such offenders, or of conveying them into the proper legal custody for punishment as aforesaid.

Section 1228. Powers of Chief Forest Fire Warden.—The Chief Forest Fire Warden shall, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Internal Affairs have the power, and his duty shall be:

(a) To take such measures for the prevention, control, and extinction of forest fires, as will assure a reasonable protection from fire to woodlots, forest, and wild land within the Commonwealth;

(b) To supervise and manage the forest fire wardens throughout the Commonwealth, and, when necessary, to appoint persons who shall serve without compensation as special or as ex officio fire wardens. Such special or ex officio fire wardens shall have the same powers as local forest fire wardens, but their duties may be changed or extended by the chief forest fire warden. Any special or ex officio forest fire warden, appointed as herein provided shall be entitled to receive the necessary expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties as fire warden;

(c) To report to the Secretary of Internal Affairs, at such times as the secretary shall require, covering all places of the work done under his direction;

(d) To collect, with the assistance of the fire wardens under his supervision, data as to location, area, and fire hazards, of woodlots, forest and wild lands, within the State, as to forest fires and losses resulting therefrom, and uch other data as he may desire to present to the department or to the police;

(e) To plan and to put into operation and maintain a system of fire towers and observation stations, which shall cover the regions subject to forest fires, and, to purchase the necessary materials and equipment and hire the necessary labor therefor;

(f) During dry seasons, whenever necessary, to appoint certain forest fire wardens as patrolmen for regions subject to great fire risk;

(g) To enter into agreements with persons, associations, or corporations, upon satisfactory terms, for forest fire prevention or control;

(h) To conduct educational work in relation to the protection of forests from fire;

(i) To approve and transmit to the Secretary of Internal Affairs all correct bills for expenses incurred by him or under his supervision;

(j) To declare a public nuisance any property which by reason of its condition or operation is a special forest fire hazard, and, as such, endangers other property or human life. He shall notify the owner of the property, or the person responsible for the condition declared a public nuisance, and advise him of the abatement of such public nuisance. In case of a railroad, such notice shall be served upon the superintendent of the division upon which the nuisance exists.

(k) To collect and arrange information coscerning violation of law relating to the protection of forests from fire, and present the same to the Secretary of Internal Affairs, who shall file it with the Department of Justice for legal action;

(l) To issue, to persons appointed forest fire wardens, certificates of appointment, and, when deemed advisable, to issue badges to such persons.

Section 1229. Powers of District Forest Fire Wardens.—Each district fire warden shall have the power, and his duty shall be:

(a) To establish headquarters at some advantageous place within his district;

(b) To act as the field representative of the Chief Forest Fire Warden;

(c) To collect and forward to the Chief Forest Fire Warden such data within his district as may be required by the Chief Forest Fire Warden;

(d) To make recommendations to the Chief Forest Fire Warden for the appointment of local fire wardens, the location of towers, the employment of patrolmen, the region to be patrolled, and such other matters as may come to his attention which would tend to improve the protective system;

(e) To arrange for annual meetings of fire wardens within his district for instruction in forest fire matters;

(f) To report to the Chief Fore Fire Warden conditions existing within his district, which are or may become forest fire hazards, and to serve notices for the correction or removal fo such conditions, after and when issued by the Chief Forest Fire Warden;

(g) To receive, audit and, if correct, approve the reports and accounts of the local fire wardens, before submitting them to the Chief Forest Fire Warden;

(h) To act as an inspector of the work of the local fire wardens and render assistance to them:

(i) To conduct educational work, and develop cooperation between local agencies and the Department of Internal Affairs for the prevention and suppression of forest fires:

(j) To perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of Internal Affairs and the Chief Forest Fire Warden.

Section 1230. Powers of Local Forest Fire Wardens.—It shall be the duty of each local forest fire warden:

(a) Whenever fire is discovered in or approaching woodlots, forests, or wild lands, whether the same be owned by individuals, corporations, or by the Commonwealth, immediately to take such measures as are necessary to extinguish the fire;

(b) Whenever fires have been combated or extinguished, to prepare a correct statement of expenses, upon forms to be furnished by the department, which must be filed with the district forest fire warden and by him forwarded to the Chief Forest Fire Warden within sixty days of the date of the fire;

(c) Promptly to investigate the cause of each fire which comes to his knowledge, collect such evidence as may be discovered relating thereto, and such other facts as he may be directed to investigate, and report the same to the Chief Forest Fire Warden;

(d) To attend an annual meeting of forest fire wardens in his district when notified, or present a reasonable excuse;

(e) When designated as a patrolman or watchman, to perform such duties as may be assigned him by the Chief Forest Fire Warden, or by the district forest fire warden.

Section 1231. Powers of all Forest Fire Wardens.—Every forest fire warden, appointed as provided in this act, shall have the power:

(a) To employ such other persons, as in his judgment may be necessary, to render assistance in extinguishing foret fires, and to compel the attendance of persons, and to require their assistance, in the extinguishing of forest fires:

(b) To administer an oath or affirmation, in order to examine any person who he believes knows facts relating to any forest fire, or who claims compensation for services rendered:

(c) To enter upon any land at any time for the purpose of performing duties in accordance with this act;

(d) To arrest on view, without first procuring a warrant, any person detected by him in the act of committing an affense against any of the laws for the protection of forests, woodlots, or wild lands, or, when he shall have a reasonable suspicion that any person is committing or about to commit some such offense. Such forest warden shall have further power to take the offender before a justice of the peace, magistrate, or other officer having jurisdiction, for hearing, trial or other due process of law:

(e) To exercise the foregoing powers, not only in the jurisdiction, for or within which he may have been appointed, but also in adjacent or other boroughs, townships, or counties."

Section 2116. Visitations and Inspections.—The Department of Health shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To make and enforce rules and regulations for the visitation, examination and inspection of all supervised institutions;

(b) To visit and inspect, at least once in each year, all State and supervised institutions; to inquire and examine into their methods of instruction, discipline, detention, imprisonment, care or treatment, the care, treatment, government or management of their inmates or those committed thereto, or being imprisoned, detained, treated or residing therein, the official conduct of their inspectors, trustees, managers, directors or other officer or officers charged with their management by law or otherwise, or having the management by law or otherwise, or having the management, care, custody or control thereof, the buildings, grounds, premises, and equipment thereof, or connected therewith, and all and every matter and thing relating to their usefulness, administration, and management, and to the welfare of the inmates thereof, or those committed thereto or being imprisoned, detained, treated or residing therein;

For these purposes, the Secretary of Health, or other officer, inspector or agent of the department, shall have free and full access to the grounds, premises, and buildings, of and to all the records, books or papers of or relating to any such State or supervised institution, and full opportunity to interrogate or interview and inmate thereof, or any person or persons committed to or being imprisoned, detained, treated or residing therein, and all persons connected with any such State or supervised institution as officers, or charged with the management, thereof, by law or otherwise, or in any way having the care, custody, control, or management thereof, or connected therewith as employes, are hereby directed and required to give to the Secretary of Health, or to such officer, inspector or agent of the department, such means, facilities, and opportunity for such visitation, examination, inquiry, and interrogation, as is hereby provided and required, or as the department, by its duly ordained rules or regulations, may require.

(c) Whenever upon the visitation, examination, and inspection of any State or supervised institution, any condition is found to exist therein which, in the opinion of the department, is unlawful, unhygienic, or detrimental to the proper maintenance and discipline of such State or supervised institution, or to the proper maintenance, custody safety and welfare of the inmates thereof, or of the persons committed thereto, or being treated, detained or residing therein, to direct the officer or officers charged by law with or in any way having or exercising the control, government, or management of such State or supervised institution, to correct said objectionable condition in the manner and within the time specified by the department; whereupon it shall be the duty of such officer or officers to comply with the direction of the department. If such officer or officers shall fail to comply with such direction, the department may request the Department of Justice to institute appropriate legal proceedings to enforce compliance therewith or the department may withhold any State money available for such institution until such officer or officers comply with such direction.

(d) To cause to be visited and examined any person found by an inquisition to be insane, and to authorize such visiting and examining by an officer or agent of the department, or any board of visitors, or by a physician, and to apply to the court having jurisdiction over the committee or guardian of such insane person, or to a judge of a Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the insane person is a resident or detained, to make such orders for the maintenance, custody, or care of the insane person, and for the care and disposition of the property of the insane person, as the case may require.

Section 2117. Appointment of Visitorial Bodies.—The Department of Health shall have the power to appoint a board of three or more members in any county of the Commonwealth, to act without compensation, as a board of visitors, to visit any supervised institution in such county in aid of and as the representatives of the department, such board to make a report of such visitation as the department may require. It shall be the duty of the officers or other persons having charge of such supervised institution to afford full facilities for such board to make an examination and inspection thereof.

Section 2118. Promotion of County Welfare Organizations.—The Department of Health shall have the power to promote the organization of county councils of social agencies, and county welfare boards, the purpose of which shall be to coordinate the social welfare activities of the counties.

Section 2119. Recommendations.—The Department of Health shall have the power, and its duty shall be, from time to time, to recommend and bring to the attention of the officers or other persons having the management of the State and supervised institutions such standards and methods as may be helpful in the government and administration of such institutions and for the betterment of the inmates therein; whereupon it shall be the duty of such officers or other persons to adopt and put into practice such standards and methods.

Section 2120. Rules and Regulations.—The Department of Health shall have the power to make and enforce rules and regulations as follows:

(a) Provided for the licensing of all houses or places in which any person can be lawfully detained as an insane person, or a person of unsound mind, upon compensation paid to or received by the owner or occupant of such house or place, directly or indirectly, for the care of such insane person or person of unsound mind, and also of all houses, places or institutions, in which more than one insane person or person of unsound mind is detained or resides, other than a jail or prison, with the right to exempt any State institution, institution under municipal authority, or any other institution;

(b) To insure the proper care and treatment of persons of unsound mind, detained in any house, place or institution, whether licensed or not; to guard against the improper or unnecessary detention of such persons; to regulate and all matters relative to their welfare; to regulate their means of communication with relatives, friends, and other persons outside the house, place, or institution of detention; and to insure to them the admission of all proper visitors, being members of their families or personal agents or attorneys;

(c) Regulating the forms to be observed warranting the commitment, transfer of custody, and discharge, of all insane persons, other than those committed by order of a court of record, and as to these, with the consent of the presiding judge of the court under whose order the person is detained;

(d) For the approval of psychopathic wards maintained by hospitals for the reception and care of persons suffering with mental disorders.

Section 2121. Transfer, Parole or Discharge of Patients.—The Department of Health shall have the power:

(a) To apply to the proper court for the transfer or removal of insane persons from county or district poorhouses, almshouses, hospitals, or in the custody of the directors or overseers of the poor, to the State hospitals for the insane;

(b) To transfer the indigent insane from State hospitals for the insane to the almshouses, poorhouses or prisons of the several counties charged with their maintenance;

(c) To transfer patients or inmates from one State hospital for the insane to another such hospital;

(d) To transfer a committed insane person from a licensed private hospital or institution to a State or licensed county hospital, and vice versa;

(e) To apply to the proper court for the removal to a hospital for the insane of any person imprisoned in a pentitentiary or prison and believed to be insane;

(f) To transfer a committed inmate from one type of institution under the supervision of department to another type of institution under its supervision;

(g) To investigate, and be heard, before an order is made in any case to remove to any place of custody, other than a hospital, any criminal confined in a hospital by order of any court, or any lunatic committed to a hospital after an acquital of crime.

The cost of the transfer or removal, and of the maintenance, of any insane person, transferred by or under the direction, or upon the application of the Secretary of Health, or other officer of the department pursuant hereto, shall be borne and paid in the manner provided by law in the case of any such transfer or removal.

All traveling expenses of indigent insane persons discharged by order of the department from any State hospital for the insane, from the hospital to their respective homes, shall be paid by the hospital, the amount thereof to be refunded to such hospital from the appropriation for the care and relief of such indigent insane then durrent.

(h) To order and compel the parole or discharge of any person detained in any place as insane or of unsound mind, other than a person committed after trial and conviction for crime, or by order of court, but the department shall not make any such order, unless notice be given to the person having charge of the building in which, and to the person or persons at whose instance, the patent is detained, and reasonable opportunity given them to justify a further detention, and the department has caused the case of the patient to be personally attended and examined by its officer or agent.

Section 2122. Child Welfare.—The Department of Health shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To investigate the residence of a child placed in Pennsylvania from unlicensed sources in another State, to return such child to the State of its legal residence, and to enter into appropriate contracts with such State relative thereto;

(b) To exercise any other powers and perform any other duties with regard to the bringing into this Commonwealth dependent, delinquent, or defective children, which may now or hereafter be authorized or imposed by law upon the department;

(c) To make and enforce such rules and regulations for the effective enforcement of this section as shall be deemed advisable and appropriate.

Section 2123. Mental Health.—The Department of Health shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

To administer and enforce the laws of this Commonwealth relative to the prevention of mental diseases, mental defects, epilepsy, and inebriety, the admission and commitment of mental patients to hospitals for mental diseases and institptions for mental defectives and epilepsy and the transfer, discharge, escape, interstate rendition, and deportation of mental patients.

Section 2124. Approval of Plans and Mortgages.—The Department of Health shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To approve or disapprove all plans for the erection or substantial alteration of any State or supervised institution receiving aid from the Commonwealth;

(b) To investigate, and report to the Auditor General, upon every application to the Auditor General made by any institution, corporation, or unincorporated association, desiring to give a mortgage under the provisions of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred and one), entitled "An act making mortgages given by benevolent, charitable, philanthropic, educational, and eleemosynary institutions, corporations, or unincorporated associations for permanent improvement and refunding purposes, prior liens to the liens of the Commonwealth for the appropriation of moneys; providing a method for the giving of such mortgages, and fixing the duties of the Auditor General and Board of Public Charities in connection therewith.

Section 2125. State Institutions.—With regard to State institutions, the department shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To determine the capacity of such institutions;

(b) To determine and designate the type of persons to be received by such institutions, the proportion of each type to be received therein, and the districts from which persons shall be received by such institutions;

(c) To issue requisitions upon the Auditor General for warrants, to be drawn by the Auditor General upon the State Treasurer, in favor of such institutions, for the payment, out of money specifically appropriated to the department for the purpose of the expenses of administering, operating, maintaining, and developing such State institutions;

(d) To require the submission to the department of any contract for repairs, alterations or equipment, which and such State institution desires to make, and to approve or disapprove such proposed contract. No such contract shall be valid, without the approval of the department as evidenced by the signature of the Secretary of Welfare.

(e) To fix and establish charges for all services rendered by State-owned medical and surgical hospitals.

Section 2126. Care of the Indigent.—The Department of Health shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) Whenever the General Assembly shall have specifically appropriated money to the department for the purpose, to issue requisitions upon the Auditor General for warrants, to be drawn by the Auditor General upon the State Treasurer, in favor of such hospitals, homes, and institutions as shall conform to at least the minimum standards of plant, equipment, service, administration, and care and treatment necessary for the proper care and treatment of patients or inmates, as required by the rules and regulations of the department, or established by law, in amounts computed upon the per diem rates of payment established by law for free service to indigent persons as follows:

1. The care and treatment of sick or injured persons in hospitals,

2. The care of dependent, delinquent, and defective children in homes or institutions,

3. The care of dependent adults in homes or institutions,

4. The care, and treatment of crippled children in homes or hospitals,

5. The care, treatment and removal of insane persons in county hospitals for the insane or private institutions licensed by the department,

6. The removal of non-resident dependent children,

7. The placement of dependent children through child-caring agencies,

(b) To approve requisitions issued by hospitals, homes or institutions, to which the General Assembly shall have appropriated money for the care and treatment of indigent persons, if such hospitals, homes or institutions shall conform to at least the minimum standards of plant, equipment, service, administration, and care and treatment necessary for the proper care and treatment of patients or inmates, as required by the rules and regulations of the department, or established by law, and, if such requisitions are in the amounts to which such hospitals, homes or institutions are entitled according to law;

(c) To establish rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, prescribing minimum standards of plant, equipment, service, administration, and care and treatment for State-aided institutions, and for determining the number of free days of care and treatment rendered to indigent persons by hospitals, homes or institutions.

Section 2127. Boards of Trustees of State Institutions.—The board of trustees of each State institution within the Department of Health shall have general direction and control of the property and management of such institution. It shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) Subject to the approval of the Governor, to elect a superintendent of the institution, who shall, subject to the authority of the board, administer the institution in all its departments;

(b) On nomination by the superintendent, from time to time, to appoint such officers and employes as may be necessary;

(c) To fix the salaries of its employes in conformity with the standards established by the Executive Board;

(d) Subject to the approval of the Secretary of Health, to make such by-laws, rules, and regulations for the management of the institution as it may deem wise.

The boards of trustees of the several State institutions shall exercise the foregoing powers in the management of the following institutions:

Section 2221. Powers and Duties as to Mines Transferred.—The Department of Labor and Industry shall, subject to any inconsistent provisions of this act contained, exercise the powers and perform the duties by law vested in and imposed upon the Department of Mines and the Chief of the Department of Mines.

Section 2222. Mines.—The Department of Labor and Industry shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To see that the mining laws of the Commonwealth are faithfully executed, and, for that purpose, cause lawfully qualified mine inspectors to enter, inspect, and examine any mine or colliery within the Commonwealth and the works and machinery connected therewith.

(b) To give such aid and instruction to the mine inspectors, from time to time, as may be calculated to protect the health and promote the safety of all persons employed in and about the mines.

(c) To make such examinations and investigations as may be necessary to enable it to make recommendations upon any matters pertaining to the general welfare of coal miners and others connected with mining and the interests of mine owners and operators in the Commonwealth.

(d) Through a separate bureau, to take such steps as it may deem advisable to promote the welfare of the mining and mineral interests of the Commonwealth, and the use of the mineral products of Pennsylvania. The exercise of this function shall not in any way interfere with the safety work of the department.

Section 2223. Mine Inspectors.—Subject to any inconsistent provisions in this act contained, anthracite mine inspectors and bituminous mine inspectors shall, respectively, under the direction of the Secretary of Labor and Industry, continue to exercise the powers and perform the duties by law vested in and imposed upon them.

ARTICLE XXVIII A

Powers and Duties of the Penal and Correctional Commission and its Departmental Administrative Boards

Section 2811. Powers and Duties in General.—The Penal and Correctional Commission shall, subject to any inconsistent provisions in this act contained, exercise the powers and perform the duties pertaining to penal and correctional institutions heretofore by law conferred or imposed on the Department of Welfare, the Secretary of Welfare and the former Department of Public Welfare, and Commissioner of Public Welfare.

Section 2812. Supervisory Powers.—The Penal and Correctional Commission shall have supervision over all State penal, reformatory and correctional institutions and institutions for juvenile delinquents and dependents, and all prisons and jails, and all institutions, associations and societies within this Commonwealth into whose care the custody of delinquent, dependent or neglected children may be committed, and all houses and places maintained by such institutions, associations or societies in which such children may be kept or detained.

Section 2813. Restoration.—The Penal and Correctional Commission shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To require and supervise the transfer of inmates of one penitentiary to another under any law providing therefor.

(b) To request, from any or all magistrates, chiefs of police, sheriffs, district attorneys, courts, judges, probation officers, and all others concerned in the control, apprehension, trial, and punishment of criminals and delinquents in this Commonwealth, periodical reports as to the number and kind of crimes reported, the numbers, age, sex, color, nativity, and offenses of criminals and delinquents arrested, tried, and otherwise disposed of, the sentences imposed, and whether executed or suspended, the number placed on probation, and the reasons therefor, the number of probation officers, and the nature of the oversight exercised over those placed on probation, and, for the purpose of verifying the reports so made, the deparement shall have the power to make such further inquiry or investigation as may seem to it necessary, and it shall be the duty of all such magistrates, and other officers, to make such reports, at such time or times, and to furnish such facilities for investigation and such cooperation, as the department may require.

Section 2814. Inmate Labor.—The Penal and Correctional Commission shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) To establish, maintain, and carry on industries in the Eastern State Penitentiary, the Western State Penitentiary, the Rockview Penitentiary, the new Eastern State Penitentiary at Graterford, the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory at Huntingdon, and such other penal or correctional institutions of this Commonwealth as it may deem proper, in which industries all persons sentenced to such institutions, who are physically capable of such labor, may be employed at labor for not to exceed eight hours each day, other than Sundays and public holidays. Such labor shall be for the purpose of doing printing, or of manufacturing and producing supplies or for the preparation and manufacture of building material for the construction or repair of any State institution, or in the work of such construction or repair, or for the planting of seed trees, or the performance of other work in State forests, or for the purpose of industrial training, or instruction, or in the manufacture and production of crushed stone, brick, tile and culvert pipe, or other material suitable for draining roads of the State, or in preparation of road building and ballasting material.

(b) To determine the amount, kind and character of the machinery to be erected in each of the said penitentiaries, reformatory or other penal or correctional institutions of the Commonwealth, and the industries to be carried on therein, having due regard to the location and convenience thereof with respect to other institutions to be supplied, to the machinery therein and the number and character of inmates.

(c) To contract to sell or sell the articles manufactured or produced in the said industries carried on in the said penitentiaries, reformatory, or other penal or correctional institutions, which cannot be used therein, to the Commonwealth, or to any county, city, borough, township, school district, or poor district thereof, or to any State institution, or to any educational or charitable institution receiving aid from the Commonwealth, or to the Government of the United States, or any department, bureau, commission or agency thereof, or to any other state or political subdivision thereof, or to any institution receiving aid from the Government of the United States or of any other state.

(d) To arrange for the employment of inmates of such institutions, at such work or labor, within or upon the grounds of such institutions, as may be necessary for the maintenance of the institutions or the raising of food products therefor.

(e) To charge to each such institution such rate per diem, as may be paid by the department to such inmate hereunder for his services, for the work or labor of each inmate engaged in work or labor within or upon the grounds of such institution for the maintenance of the institution or the raising of food products therefor.

Also to collect from each such institution, for any manufactured supplies or products used by it, the same price per article used as it would receive upon the sale of such article in similar quantities to the Commonwealth, or any other agency to which it is authorized to sell articles manufactured or produced by inmate labor. All amounts collected by the Penal and Correctional Commission from such institutions hereunder shall be paid into the Manufacturing Fund in the State Treasury, and all such amounts shall be considered a part of such institutions' maintenance expense.

(f) To charge to each such institution, in like manner, for the labor of all inmates engaged in preparing materials for the construction of buildings, or in doing construction work, such payments to be made by the institutions out of funds available for construction work. All moneys received hereunder shall be paid into the Manufacturing Fund.

(g) To pay into the Manufacturing Fund the proceeds of all sales of manufactured products made under this section, and all moneys received for the labor of inmates in State forests or elsewhere than on the grounds of the institutions. This clause shall not, however, apply to the sale of surplus food products, or products of the soil as elsewhere in this act permitted.

(h) To pay, out of the Manufacturing Fund, for the machinery, equipment, and material required or used in the carrying on of the industries in the said penitentiaries, reformatory, or other institutions, under the provisions hereof, and all salaries of superintendents, managers, salesmen, clerks, and others employed in the management of the industries, and the wages, as hereinafter provided, for the labor of the inmates of said penitentiaries, reformatory, or other institutions in such industries.

(i) To require that an account shall be kept by the proper officers of each said penitentiary, reformatory, and other correctional institution, of the labor performed by inmates. In such account, shall be shown the time each inmate is actually engaged in work, the rate of wage at which he is to be paid, which shall be regulated by the department. In no case shall the amount be less than ten cents for each day of labor actually performed. The rate of compensation shall be based, both upon the pecuniary value of the work performed, and also on the willingness, industry, and good conduct of the inmate. All amounts payable to inmates hereunder shall be paid to the institution out of the Manufacturing Fund, to be disbursed or held by such institution in the manner following:

Three-fourths of the amount of wages payable to an inmate of such penitentiary, reformatory, or other institution, or the entire amount, if the inmate so wishes, shall constitute a fund for the relief of any person or persons dependent upon such inmate, and shall be paid, upon the order of the board of trustees of the penitentiary, reformatory, or other institution, in which the inmate is a prisoner, to the person or persons establishing such dependency to the satisfaction of such board, at such time or times as said board may order.

All sums credited to any inmate, and not paid to a dependent or dependents, shall be paid to the inmate on his discharge from the penitentiary, reformatory, or other institution in which he was a prisoner: Provided, however, That, subject to the rules and regulations of the board of trustees of the penitentiary, reformatory, or other institution in which such inmate is a prisoner, the whole or any part of said sum may be paid to him during his imprisonment for his present needs, such rules and regulations to be subject to the approval of the department.

(j) To have and exercise supervision over the labor employed in the aforesaid industries and to make rules and regulations for carrying on such industries.

(k) To the extent to which it is unable to provide work for every physically able inmate of such institutions, to authorize the several boards of trustees of such institutions to permit inmates to engage in such work or industries as the Penal and Correctional Commission may approve, and which they are able to provide from other sources, but all such work shall be performed, the products thereof sold, and the proceeds thereof disposed of, under the rules and regulations of the commission covering the same.

(l) To supervise the establishment, in other State institutions, of industries classes in occupational thereby and other means for the employment and training of inmates or patients.

Section 2815. Boards of Trustees of State Institutions.—The board of trustees of each State institution within the Penal and Correctional Commission shall have general direction and control of the property and management of such institution. It shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

(a) Subject to the approval of the Governor, to elect a superintendent or warden of the institution, who shall, subject to the authority of the board, administer the institution in all its departments.

(b) On nomination by the superintendent or warden, from time to time, to appoint such officers and employes as may be necessary.

(c) To fix the salaries of its employes in conformity with the standards established by the Executive Board.

(d) Subject to the approval of the Penal and Correctional Commission to make such by-laws, rules, and regulations for the management of the institution as it may deem wise.

The boards of trustees of the several State institutions shall exercise the foregoing powers in the management of the following institutions:

Board of Trustees of Eastern State Penitentiary, of Eastern State Penitentiary at Philadelphia;

Board of Trustees of Western State Penitentiary, of Western State Penitentiary at Pittsburgh, and of the State Penitentiary at Rockview;

Board of Trustees of Pennsylvania Industrial School, of Pennsylvania Industrial School, at Huntingdon;

Board of Trustees of State Industrial Home for Women, of State Industrial Home for Women at Muncy;

Board of Trustees of Pennsylvania Training School, or Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza.

Section 2816. New Pennsylvania Industrial School and Maximum Security State Prison.—Upon the erection, construction and completion of the new Pennsylvania Industrial School and the Maximum Security State Prison, pursuant to law, the Penal and Correctional Commission shall manage and control the same, and shall have such powers and duties with respect thereto as are provided by law.

ARTICLE XXVIII B

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. (sec. 2504-A), page 24, line 6, by striking out the word "amendment" and inserting in lieu thereof "appointment"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

Mr. McARDLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 3, page 25, line 11, section 2504-A, by striking out before the word "or" and after the word "pay" the heavy faced brackets.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am glad to agree with the amendments from the Democratic side. I think that the amendments give to the members of this House an opportunity to help Governor Earle fulfilled his campaign pledge that the government employes would not be asked by political organizations for a contribution. It is bad enough that government employes generally be asked by political organizations to contribute, but when you permit those who are engaged in relief work to do so and thus drag relief into politics it is a whole lot worse. I think that the amendments which are now before the House should be adopted.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am constrained to oppose the amendments introduced by the gentleman from Allegheny and so ably defended by the gentleman from Dauphin. However, the gentleman from Dauphin and the gentleman from Allegheny both lose sight of one very important thing. This bill as it now stands prohibits the collection or solicitation of funds from the employes in this new Department of Assistance. However, if any individuals in that Department of Assistance feel that the ideals of any political party are such that they desire to do more than lip service to those ideals and perhaps to the accomplishment of that party and substantiate that feeling by a contribution, all that this amendment would do would be to allow them to pay such a contribution; it does not insist that they should do so. The bill as drawn will not allow those employes to be solicited. The bill as drawn will not allow those employes to be forced or to be coerced into making contributions, but if any individual in any phase of activity, in any walk of life, desires to contribute something towards the ideals of any political party, it would be impinging upon their right to say that they cannot do so. Two years ago we were confronted with a somewhat similar situation in the amendments to the Mothers' Assistance Act, and in that instance and at that time the Republican majority in the Senate, as well as the Republican mincrity in this House, all agreed that in conformity with the act as drawn, in the Philadelphia City Charter that any organization or any individual, so far as contributions were concerned to any ideals, represented by any political party, would defeat the right of that individual or organization to do so. I ask that the membership of the House vote down the amendments of the gentleman from Allegheny because in voting them down we are giving the people an opportunity to adequately express the ideals for which their particular party stands.

Mr. McARDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from York, I ask the members of the House to vote for this amendment, and I would like to call his attention to the fact that this bill passed by a Democratic Senate, sent over here with the amendment that we just proposed in the bill. Mr. Cohen knows, or at least should know, that there are very few people employed by the state or any other political subdivision who make voluntary contributions. This amendment prohibits the practice of forcing people to give a percentage of their pay to carry out political campaigns. That is the purpose of my amendment and I ask the members of the House to vote for the amendment.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire of the gentleman from York whether he said there was something in this bill which prevented the employes from being solicited for political contributions.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, on page 25, line 11, it makes it unlawful to solicit or receive a contribution for political purposes.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, that the provision which the gentleman from York has just read prevents the employe from soliciting, but it does not prevent the Chairman of the Democratic party, for example, from soliciting those employes. Is that not correct?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I do not think it is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from York please explain where and how he could read into this section or any other part of the act the fact that employes could not be solicited for political contributions?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, it say that the employes shall not solicit nor receive contributions for political purposes. That is what it says on page 25, line 11.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 3 (sec. 2504-A), page 22, lines 10 and 11, by striking out the following: "fairly revealed the degree of fitness of each applicant for the desired class of employment"

Amend section 3 (sec. 2504-), page 22, line 11, by inserting the following: "be practical in their character and so far as may be possible shall relate to those matters directly bearing on, and which will fairly test the relative capacity and fitness of persons examined to discharge, the duties of the service into which they seek to be appointed, but no applicant shall be required to be possessed of any scholastic education or training in order to be permitted to take any examination, or to be appointed to any position"

Amend section 3 (sec. 2504-A), page 22, line 16, by inserting after the word "test" the following: "except that in the final rating of all applicants, persons who were engaged in the military or naval service of the United States during any war in which the United States was engaged, and who have an honorable discharge from such service, shall receive in addition to all other ratings an additional five percentum, and any such person who shall have been disabled by wounds or in any other manner while engaged in such service (so long as he is able to perform the work of the employment for which he is examined), shall be rated an additional five per centum over and above the five per centum hereinbefore set forth, and in either case, the total per centum mark or grade thus obtained shall determine the standing of any such persons on any list of eligibles"

Amend sections 3 (sec. 2504-A), page 22, by inserting between lines 16 and 17 the following: "(c) The qualifications shall be such as will best promote the most efficient administration of public assistance and shall provide that persons applying for positions in the offices designated by the secretary as central administrative offices (which shall include all those having jurisdiction throughout the State), shall be citizens of the United States, and shall have been legal residents of Pennsylvania for a period of not less than one year before making application, and persons applying for positions in district offices (which shall include all those whose jurisdiction is limited to a particular district) shall be citizens of the United States, and shall have been legal residents of Pennsylvania for a period of not less than one year, and in the district in which such office is located for a period of not less than six months before making application"

Amend section 3 (sec. 2504-A), page 24, line 6, by striking out after the word "provisional" the word "amendment", and inserting in lieu thereof the word "appointment"

Amend section 3, (sec. 2501-A), page 19, line 20, by inserting after the word "need" the following: "and as may be required for blind pensions"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, these amendments are exactly the same as those which were adopted by this House in connection with the Unemployment Insurance Act in House Bill No. 190, which was signed by the Governor recently, and unanimously adopted by the House and the Senate, and I ask that the House unanimously adopt the same amendments to this measure.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The fourth to the sixth sections inclusive and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 4 The employes of the Bureau of Assistance of the Department of Welfare and of local boards as defined in section two thousand five hundred one-A of the act amended by this act shall upon the effective date of this act become provisional employes of the Department of Public Assistance or of such local boards as the case may be but such employment shall be continued beyond June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight only if such employes shall have passed non-competitive examinations given by the Employment Board as provided for in section two thousand five hundred four-A of the act amended by this act

Section 5 Constitutional Construction The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions are declared unconstitutional the decision so holding shall not be construed as impairing any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein

Section 6 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven

An Act to amend the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177) entitled, "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges, abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards and commissions, defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions and officers, fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers, providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," as amended, by establishing a Department of Public Assistance and a State Board of Public Assistance and defining their powers and duties, providing for the employment and removal of all persons employed by the Department of Public Assistance by the State Board of Public Assistance and by any board established by law and authorized to provide assistance in one or more counties only and by changing the powers of the Department of Welfare.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2332, (Senate Bill No. 69), entitled:

An Act to protect the obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages and owners of property affected thereby and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof by prohibiting for certain periods the foreclosure sale of mortgaged property at less than its fair market value and prescribing the method of fixing the fair market value of said property

The first section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That hereafter before any execution shall issue against the mortgaged premises on the foreclosure of any mortgage or on a judgment entered on any obligation secured by mortgage the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall either (1) file a statement in the court having jurisdiction over such execution certifying under oath that he or they release and discharge the obligors and guarantors and any other parties liable directly or indirectly on the mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby from all personal liability on the mortgage debt interest costs taxes and municipal claims or (2) petition the court having jurisdiction to issue such execution to fix the fair market value of the property to be sold Said petition shall be signed and sworn to by the plaintiff or plaintiffs

The second section was read as follows:

Section 2 The petition shall set forth

(a) The location by address or description of the mortgaged real estate to be sold the name or names of the mortgagors and all other persons known to petitioner to be or who may be directly or indirectly liable to petitioner or any other person for the payment of said mortgage debt

(b) A statement of the fair market value of said property and shall name as respondents and state the addresses of the obligors and guarantors and any other persons directly or indirectly liable to petitioner and the owners of the property affected thereby for the payment of said mortgage debt or any obligation securing or guaranteeing such mortgage debt

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 2, page 2, lines 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, and 25, by striking out all of section (b) on the said lines, and by inserting in lieu of said deleted section (b), the following: "(b) a statement of the fair market value of said property and (c) shall name as respondents and state the addresses of the obligors and guarantors and any other persons directly or indirectly liable to petitioner for the payment of said mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The third to the fifth sections inclusive were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 3 The court shall thereupon fix a date for hearing on said petition not less than fifteen days after the filing thereof and said petition shall be served upon each and all of the persons named therein as respondents at least ten days prior to the date fixed for hearing At any time prior to the hearing any respondent or other person in interest may appear and answer setting up in his answer his interest in the proceedings and answering the averments of the petition

Section 4 Said petition may be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff of any other county specially deputized for that purpose upon the respondents named therein

(a) By handing an exact copy thereof to each of them personally or

(b) By leaving an exact copy thereof at the residence of each of them with an adult member of his family or

(c) If service cannot be had in either of the above methods and the return of the sheriff is that the respondent or respondents or any of them cannot be found in this county or State said respondent or respondents may be served by publishing in the legal newspaper of the county and one newspaper of general circulation in the county at least fifteen days prior to the day fixed for the hearing of such petition a notice to the said respondent or respondents of the filing of said petition and of the time and place fixed for hearing thereon Provided however That if there be no legal newspaper in the county then in one newspaper of general circulation in said county

Any obligor guarantor mortgagor and any other person liable directly or indirectly for the payment of the mortgage debt and any owner or owners of the property affected thereby who is not joined as a party defendant nor served with a petition as provided in this section shall be deemed to be discharged from all personal liability to the petitioner on the mortgage debt interest and costs but any such failure to serve the petition shall not be deemed to affect or impair the validity of any execution sale or the title secured thereby

Section 5 Return of the service of any petition shall set forth particularly the time place and manner of service and shall be filed before the time fixed for hearing No hearing shall be had until the court shall be satisfied that service has been made upon all the respondents in any of the methods herein provided

The sixth section was read as follows:

Section 6 At such hearings any party in interest may introduce into evidence testimony of the fair market value of the premises to be sold

If no answer be filed within the time provided for in this act or if an answer be filed which does not contravert the allegation of the fair market value of the property as averred in the petition the plaintiff or plaintiffs may file in the court a statement under oath releasing the obligors and guarantors and any other persons liable directly or indirectly for the mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby from personal liability to the extent of the fair market value as averred in the Petition Whereupon the court shall order the sale to be proceeded with forthwith

If no answer be filed within the time herein provided for or if an answer be filed contraverting the averment in the petition as to the fair market value of the property and no testimony be produced at the hearing supporting such denial of the fair market value and no such declaration of release is filed by the plaintiff or plaintiffs prior to the hearing the court shall determine and fix as the fair value of the property and amount thereof alleged in the petition to be the fair market value

If answer be filed alleging as the fair market value an amount in excess of the fair market value of the property as averred in the petition the plaintiff or plaintiffs may agree to accept as the fair market value of the property the value set up in the answer and in such case may file under oath a declaration releasing the obligors and guarantors and any other persons liable directly or indirectly for the mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby from personal liability to the extent of the fair market value as averred in the answer Whereupon the court shall order the sale to be proceeded with forthwith If an answer shall be filed and testimony produced setting forth that the fair market value of the property is more than the value stated in the petition the court shall deermine and fix the fair market value of the premises which shall in no event exceed the amount of the mortgage debt interest costs taxes and municipal claims and for such purpose may appoint no more than three appraiers to assist the court in determining said fair value

After the hearing and the determination by the court of the fair market value of the property to be sold the execution may issue but said property shall not be sold for less than the fair market value so determined and fixed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 105, page 4, lines 9 to 27, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines, and inserting in lieu thereof:

"Section 105. Referendum, and Effect Thereof.

A. No county, and no city of the first or second class, shall be created an institution district, and no existing poor district shall be abolished, as provided by this act, unless there shall first have been submitted to the electors of each county, except of the first and second classes, and in counties of the first class to the electors of the various existing local poor districts only, and in counties of the second class to the electors of the county other than those residing in any city of the second class, and in any such city of the second class to the electors of such city, in the manner provided by the election laws, the question whether the existing county, city or local poor districts shall be abolished and a county or city institution district created, managed by the county commissioners, and. in counties of the first class, by the City Department of Public Welfare, and, in cities of the second class, by the City Department of Public Welfare.

B. Such question shall be submitted to the electors as hereinbefore provided at any general or municipal election whenever a petition, signed by electors equal in number to five per centum of the highest vote cast in the county or city or local poor districts for any office at the last preceding general or municipal election asking for the submission of said question is filed with the county commissioners. Such petition shall be filed at least sixty days before the election at which it is to be submitted.

C. The said question shall be printed on separate official ballots by the county commissioners, and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers, so that said ballot may be supplied to each voter. In districts where voting machines are used, such question shall appear on the face of the machine, if it is properly equipped for such purpose.

D. The votes cast on such question shall be counted by the election officers, and returns thereof made by them and by election officers where voting machines are used, as provided by the election laws. The return board shall compute said returns for the county, city or local poor districts.

E. If a majority of the electors of any county, or city of the second class, or local poor districts in any county of the first class, shall vote in favor of creating an institution district, then on the first Monday of January next succeeding such election, a county or city institution district shall be created, and the existing poor district or districts shall be abolished: Provided, however, That any existing inter-county poor district shall be abolished only as to the county or counties voting in favor of the institution district.

F. If such question shall be defeated, it may again be submitted, but not oftener than once in four years."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to take just a few moments to explain to the members of this House the object of the amendments. I wish to explain that this amendment, together with the others that are to follow, does substantially this: it substitutes the poor boards in place of the county commissioners until such time as the respective counties decide by popular vote that those duties may in the future be performed by the county commissioners. I want to point out to the members particularly on the Democratic side of this House that it in no way affects the program or the thoughts of Governor Earle in his efforts to unify assistance in Pennsylvania. The only difference is that the poor boards of Pennsylvania would carry on the work that Senate Bill No. 876 would have the county commissioners perform. All of the phases of State activity proposed in the so-called Goodrich plan would still be carried on by the State of Pennsylvania, and all of the duties and functions of the so-called "out door relief" that are proposed to be exercised by Ctate agencies, will not cost Pennsylvania one cent under the proposed change. Every phase of the program would be carried out as enunciated by Governor Earle.

I wish to point out to the members of this House, particularly to the Democratic members of this House, that we are carrying out the Democratic theories if we adopt the amendments that I have offered to this House. I do wish to impress upon my Democratic colleagues that home rule, the right to determine what we desire, has been the principle upon which the Democratic party has been built; the principle upon which we have attained our success; it is the principle that has brought our party down through the entire history of this country, and the failure to observe it has been the cause of the destruction of other political parties. I wish to call to the attention of the Democratic members of the House and to refresh their minds that this is the principle of the Democratic party, as enunciated by Thomas Jefferson, whom you are all inclined to follow, and you all desire to be called his followers. That principle, Mr. Speaker, is this:

"It is not by the consolidation or concentration of powers, but by their distribution, that good government is effected. Were not this country already divided into states, that distribution must be made that each might do for itself what concerns itself directly, and what it can so much better do than a distant authority. Every state is again divided into counties, each to take care of what lies within its local bounds; each county again into townships or wards, to manage minuter details, and every ward into farms, to be governed each by its individual proprietor. It is by this partition of cares, descending in graduation from general to particular, that the mass of human affairs may be best managed for the good and prosperity of all."

Mr. Speaker, it is indeed refreshing to find that all segments of the Democratic party have not lost sight of the precepts laid down by Thomas Jefferson and which have been followed by Democrats generally heretofore. Instead of ripping out the poor boards of Pennsylvania, my amendment leaves it to the voters of Pennsylvania to determine, and not the men here in Harrisburg, to decide what kind or form of government we should have.

Mr. Speaker, one of the most surprising things brought to me is that this Administration would endeavor to rip out the poor boards after commissions appointed by this House have gone forward and investigated local governments and have always came back with the same story, which is in favor of local government and local control.

I am reading from the first report of the Local Government Commission to the General Assembly of 1937.

"The Commission found very cordial support for its adherence to the long established principles of home rule in local affairs. Pronounced sentiment in favor of retention of the existing system of local government was manifested at all hearings of the Commission. The Commission recognizes the soundness of our traditional principle of local home rule and regards its outstanding feature to be the preservation to local communities of the right to determine local governmental policies. The Commission believes that local government should be protected from proposals which seek to undermine its fundamental nature and those which seek to use the home rule as the cloak to stultify the sound development and improvement of our local governmental system and its adjustment to changing economic conditions. Local government is the training school for the future leaders of the State and nation."

Again may I call to the attention of the members of the House that there was a Joint Legislative Committee appointed by the House and Senate to investigate this very story. That committee has not yet made a report, but I can say in all confidence that had that committee made a report that report would have been against the ripping out of local poor boards. I say very frankly to the members of this House that the committee report was not made out of deference to the statement of Governor Earle in which he stated he desired the poor boards ripped out. But I say frankly to you men and women here tonight, if you are here representing your constituency, not people here in Harrisburg, but the voters back home, to whom you must answer and to whom you are responsible, the question before you tonight is whether you feel that your people are fit to govern, whether your people can determine and decide whether or not they want their affairs administered by a local poor board, or whether or not they want such affairs administered here in Harrisburg, and I submit to the members of this House that these amendments are giving to the people back home that confidence that certainly we should place in them, a confidence that we believe that they are able to determine and decide what is best for them. It is a good, sound, solid Democratic principle, and, Mr. Speaker, I ask the support of the members of this House on the amendment.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as I understand the amendments, presented by the gentleman from Monroe they seek to provide local option for the local districts to decide whether or not they wish to continue their poor boards. Just let us analyze the situation with which we are confronted. By a series of bills which we have before us for enactment, and which according to all indications will be enacted, we are taking away from the poor boards their supervision and their function in the service of out door relief. In addition to that, the poor boards have left but one function, the maintenance of the indigent homes and hospitals for the care of those who are unable to reside in homes outside of these indigent homes. The only function that the poor boards will have after the enactment of these laws is the function which I have indicated. After taking away out door relief, after taking away the functions that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have been forced to assume, functions which the poor boards could not meet in the dire days of the depressions, the poor boards are then left with one solitary function, the maintenance of those homes, and the problem before us now is should we give to the electorate back home the opportunity to decide whether or not the people shall continue the poor boards for that singular function, or whether that singular function can be administered by an agency already in existence, an agency which I know in the counties is assuming that function now, the maintenance of the county homes. Our county commissioners throughout the Commonwealth can take that additional function upon their shoulders without any great hardship. The problem with which we are confronted is whether or not we are going to give to the people back home the opportunity to vote on that problem. That problem is not a serious one. That problem is not a problem in which we as members of the Legislature should lack the courage to represent our people in our elective duties to voice their thoughts in the Halls of the Commonwealth. That problem is a problem which we are elected here to assume, and I say to you, members of the House, the problem is not whether or not we should allow the people back home to continue to decide whether or not the poor boards should be continued, but the problem with which we are confronted is whether or not the functions of the poor boards should be taken from them or whether they should be left with the poor boards, and if we have decided to take those functions away from the poor boards then there is nothing left for this House to do except to abolish the poor boards and give that single remaining function to the county commissioners where it can be justifiably placed. It is no impingement upon the doctrine of home rule. I just wish to read to the membership of the House the very statement that the gentleman from Monroe read, in commenting upon the first report of the Local Government Commission. I am quoting as follows: "The Commission believes that the local government should be protected from proposals which seek to undermine its fundamental nature," and I agree with that one hundred percent. I further agree with the language of the report of that committee which says that "The Commission believes that the local government should be protected * * * from those seeking to use the home rule principle as the cloak to stultify the sound development and improvement of our local governmental system and its adjustment to changing economic conditions." Should we allow those people to use that cloak to stultify our local government? Are we hiding behind the issue of home rule to prevent the development of an adequate system of relief? Are we hiding behind the feigned issue of home rule to deprive the people of this Commonwealth of an adequate system in the administration of such affairs?

I say to the membership of this House that we are elected to perform a duty, and in that duty we must be courageous. We are elected to perform that duty and not to shift it back to the people who elected us, and I say to the membership of this House, both Democratic and Republican, that the greatest service you can do for the people who elected you is to assume that obligation tonight and to vote down the amendments of the gentleman from Monroe.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ACHTERMAN and Mr. LaRUE.

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

Article II, section 201 was read as follows:

ARTICLE II

Institution Districts in Cities of the First and Second Class

Section 201 First Class City Institution Districts Abolition of Existing Offices of Poor Directors and Auditor In every city of the first class the offices of poor director and of poor auditor of each poor district created by local law or remaining in existence as a former borough or township poor district are hereby abolished except to the extent necessary to liquidate the affairs of the district Title to the real and personal property of each such district is hereby transferred to and vested in the city and its powers and obligations are hereby vested in and imposed on the city Thereafter the laws as to the care of dependents shall be administered throughout each city of the first class by the department of public welfare of the city and each such city shall constitute an institution district for the purposes of this act Such district shall not exist as an entity separate and apart from the city but shall be administered as a department of the city government The city shall employ each of the present paid poor directors of such districts until his present term of office shall expire in the liquidation of the affairs of the district and in the administration of this act paying him his present annual salary and if he now receives no fixed annual salary then such salary as may be fixed by the tax levying body of the city As soon as the affairs of each such district have been liquidated it shall cease to exist

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 201, page 5, line 6, by inserting after the word "class" the following: "where the electors of the local poor districts of the county shall have voted to create a city institution district"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the remainder of my amendments.

On the question recurring,

Settlement and Removal

Section 501 Settlement (a) A legitimate person is first settled in the institution district of birth unless the father shall then have a known settlement elsewhere in which case the first settlement of such person is in the institution district where the father was then settled

(b) An illegitimate person is first settled in the institution district of birth unless the mother shall then have a known settlement elsewhere in which case the first settlement of such person is in the institution district where the mother was then settled

(c) The settlement of a person in an institution district continues until a new one is acquired in this Commonwealth or elsewhere A settlement is lost only by acquiring a new one

(d) Except as hereinafter otherwise provided every adult and every emancipated minor whether married or single legitimate or illegitimate may acquire a new settlement in any institution district of this Commonwealth or in the Commonwealth by coming bona fide to establish a permanent abode therein and continuing to reside therein for one whole year if such person or minor is of sufficient mental ability to make a bargain and is not or does not become a public charge during said year

(e) The settlement of a married woman during coverture follows that of her husband and continues after his death in the institution district or place where he was last settled but she may thereafter acquire a new settlement for herself If the husband has no known settlement then she is settled whether he be living or dead in the district or place where she was last settled The settlement of a woman after divorce absolute or from bed and board or desertion by the husband or withdrawal by the wife from cohabitation with the husband on account of his cruelty inebriety or lack of support continues in the district or place where the husband was last settled but she may acquire a new settlement for herself

(f) A minor whether legitimate or illegitimate cannot be emancipated before age sixteen and becomes emancipated absolutely at age twenty-one if then of sufficient mental ability to make a bargain After age sixteen and before age twenty-one a minor of sufficient mental ability to make a bargain may become emancipated by his own acts or the acts of the parent stepfather or stepmother having had the custody When a person is emancipated he or she is capable of establishing a new settlement

(g) A minor whether legitimate or illegitimate who is so mentally deficient as to be unable to make a bargain cannot be emancipated after age sixteen and such a person does not become emancipated at age twenty-one and so long thereafter as said mental condition continues The settlement of such a person shall at all times during mental disability be ascertained as provided in clauses (h) and (i) of this section for the settlement of minors not emancipated.

(h) Before emancipation the settlement of a legitimate minor is and remains that of the father unless

(1) The father is dead and the mother acquires a new settlement in which case it follows that of the mother or

(2) The father deserts his family in which case it follows that of the mother or

(3) The mother withdraws from cohabitation with the husband on account of his cruelty inebriety or lack of support in which case it follows that of the parent having the custody or

(4) The parents are divorced either absolutely or from bed and board in which case it follows that of the parent having the exclusive custody but where custody is divided between the parents the settlement remains that of the father or

(5) Both parents are dead and the minor is in the custody of a stepfather or stepmother in which case it follows that of the stepfather or stepmother having the custody

(i) Before emancipation the settlement of an illegitimate minor at all times follows that of the mother and in case of her death before emancipation of such minor continues in the institution district or place in which she was last settled until such person establishes a new settlement after emancipation

(j) If a person has no known settlement in this Commonwealth and cannot for any reason whatever be removed into the state or country where settled he shall have a quasi-settlement in the institution district where he or she becomes a public charge which district shall if he be a dependent be liable for his or her support otherwise such liability shall be upon the Commonwealth

(k) If a person becomes a public charge in an institution district other than the one in which settled such institution district if he be a dependent otherwise the Commonwealth shall be liable for support until the institution district state or country of settlement is discovered and removal to such institution district state or country takes place Any institution district of settlement shall be liable to the institution district in which the person becomes a dependent for the cost of care advanced and the expenses of removal

Section 502 Removal to District of Settlement In case any person does not have a settlement in the institution district wherein he has become or is likely to become a dependent it shall be the duty of the local authorities to notify the local authorities of the district of his settlement of the facts If the local authorities so notified refuse or neglect to receive him or to make arrangements for his proper care and to pay the amount advanced the local authorities furnishing such care may apply to the court of quarter sessions of their county or to any judge thereof by petition asking for a citation to the local authorities so refusing or neglecting requiring them to appear before such court at a time specified therein and to show cause why an order should not issue for the removal of such dependent into their institution district The said court shall proceed to hear and determine the cause upon its merits and their decree shall be final unless an appeal therefrom be taken within thirty days

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2378, (Senate Bill No. 883), entitled:

An Act relating to public assistance providing for and regulating assistance to certain classes of persons designated and defined as dependent children aged persons blind persons and other persons requiring relief providing for the administration of this act by the Department of Public Assistance and county boards of assistance hereby created for this purpose authorizing the Department of Public Assistance to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States government for assistance to such persons providing for the liquidation of the State Emergency Relief Board Boards of Trustees of the Mother's Assistance Fund and Boards of Trustees of Pension Fund for the Blind and repealing laws relating to mothers' assistance pensions for the blind old age assistance and the State Emergency Relief Board

The first to the sixth section inclusive were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Short Title This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Public Assistance Law"

Section 2 Definitions As used in this act unless otherwise indicated

"Assistance" means assistance in money goods shelter services or burial provided from or with State or Federal funds for indigent persons who reside in Pennsylvania and need assistance to enable them to maintain for themselves and their dependents a decent and healthful standard of living and for indigent homeless or transient persons The word assistance shall be construed to include pensions for those blind persons who are entitled to pensions as provided in this act

"Local Board" means any county board of assistance established under the provisions of this act and shall include any county relief board or board of trustees of the Mothers' Assistance Fund or board of trustees of Pension Fund for the Blind until abolished in accordance with law

The masculine pronoun includes the feminine

Section 3 Administration of Act This act shall be administered by the Department of Public Assistance and the local boards in the several counties of this Commonwealth

Section 4 General Powers and Duties of Department of Public Assistance The Department of Public Assistance shall have the power and its duty shall be

(a) To allocate to the local boards on the basis of need and as may be required for blind pensions funds with which to provide assistance and funds for administrative expenses and as may be needed from time to time to keep a reasonable revolving fund in the hands of local boards which shall be used by the executive director for the furnishing of assistance in emergency cases upon application to him or under the direction of any member of the local board

(b) To establish with the approval of the State Board of Public Assistance rules regulations and standards consistent with law as to eligibility for assistance and as to its nature and extent

(d) To supervise the local boards and to establish for such boards rules regulations and standards consistent with law

(e) To cooperate with other agencies including any agency of the United States or of another state in all matters concerning the powers and duties of the department under this act and particularly in projects for child welfare for the relief of persons in areas of special need and for the care of transient and homeless persons and to make such reports in such form and containing such information as the Social Security Board of the United States Government or any other agency of the United States may from time to time require and to comply with such provisions as such board or agency may from time to time find necessary to insure the correctness and verification of such reports

(f) To receive and to supervise the disbursement of funds provided by the Federal government or from any other source for use in this Commonwealth for assistance

(g) To gather and study current information constantly and to report at least annually to the Governor as to the nature and need of assistance as to the amount allocated to each local board and as to the work of each local board and to cause such reports to be published for the information of the public

(h) To report at least annually to the Governor as to the cost of living in the various counties as related to the standards of assistance and the amounts allocated for assistance and to cause such reports to be published for the information of the public

(i) To collect and report to the Governor and to cause to be published for the information of the public information as to the work of the department

(j) To direct and supervise the liquidation of the affairs of the Boards of Trustees of the Mother's Assistance Fund the Boards of Trustees of Pension Fund for the Blind and the State Emergency Relief Board

Section 5 Establishment of County Boards of Assistance

(a) For each county of the Commonwealth there is hereby established a county board of assistance to be known as the County Board of Assistance which shall be composed of men and women to be appointed as hereinafter provided The members of the board shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for necessary expenses No member of a board shall hold office in any political party Not all of the members of a board shall belong to the same political party

(b) Each board shall be composed of eleven members in counties of the first and second classes and of seven members in other counties In each county having a board of seven the Governor shall with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate appoint two members to serve for the term ending December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight two members to serve for the term ending December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine and three members to serve for the term ending December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred forty In each county having a board of eleven the Governor shall in the same manner appoint three members to serve for the term ending December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight four members to serve for the term ending December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine and four members to serve for the term ending December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred forty After the original appointments any vacancy caused by the expiration of a term shall be filled by an appointment in the manner above provided for a term of three years and any vacancy otherwise caused shall be filled for the duration of the unexpired term by appointment in the same manner No member of a board shall be eligible to serve for more than two consecutive terms

(c) Each board shall elect from among its members a chairman and a secretary

Section 6 Rules and Regulations The State Board of Public Assistance shall have the power to promulgate rules and regulations concerning the administration of this act including the establishment of standards of eligibility for assistance and its nature and extent

The County Boards shall determine the eligibility of an applicant under the standards so established subject to the right of appeal as provided under subsection (d) of section seven of this act

The seventh section was read as follows:

(e) To supervise the administration of any other public function related to assistance or to the work of the Department of Public Assistance or of the County Board of Assistance which shall be committed to the board by a political subdivision of the Commonwealth with the approval of the State Board of Public Assistance

(f) To receive and spend contributions from any source for purposes related to assistance or to the work of the Department of Public Assistance

(g) To make recommendations to the Department of Public Assistance as to rules regulations and standards as to eligibility for assistance and as to its nature and extent

(h) To study report and interpret its policies problems and work to the Department of Public Assistance and to the public

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 7, page 7, line 12, by inserting after the word "law" the following: "Provided, That all appointees of county boards shall have been residents of the county for which appointed at least one year"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I am informed by the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, that this amendment is contained in House Bill No. 877. It was placed in the bill this evening, and is unnecessary in this bill.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Moomaw, to determine whether that is correct.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MOOMAW. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, does the amendment which the gentleman from Franklin made to Bill No. 877 provide that a person who has made an application for employment to the local boards should be a resident of that district for a period of six months?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, my amendment provided that he should be a resident of the State of Pennsylvania one year and a resident of the district for a period of six months prior to the date of the application for employment.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the provisions of bill No. 877 relate to employes of the Department of Welfare. It is my opinion that it is necessary to place this section in this bill in order to make it apply to the employes of the local boards. I, therefore, think in order to carry out the intention of Mr. Moomaw, that this amendment should be adopted in this bill, and I ask the members of the House to vote "aye".

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the statement of the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, I might say that if you will make a very close study of Senate Bill No. 877 you will find that the provisions which I have placed in Senate Bill No. 877 are applicable to both the employes in the Department of Public Assistance at Harrisburg and also those employes who may be employed by the Local Boards in any one of the counties. I believe, in fact I am positive, that my amendment covered the same thought that the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, has on the matter.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The eighth section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 8 County Boards of Review Each County Board of assistance shall from time to time appoint such board of review as it sees fit and proper to hear and determine appeals by employes of the board from orders of demotion and of removal

The ninth section was read as follows:

Section 9 Eligibility for Assistance Except as hereinafter specifically otherwise provided in the case of pensions for the blind all persons of the following classes shall be eligible to receive assistance in accordance with rules regulations and standards established by the Department of Public Assistance with the approval of the State Board of Assistance as to eligibility for assistance and as to its nature and extent

(a) Dependent Children A dependent child is defined as any child under the age of sixteen who (1) resides with his mother and has been deprived of the support of his father by his father's death continued absence from home or physical or mental incapacity and (2) has resided in this Commonwealth for one year immediately preceding the date of application for assistance or has been born in this Commonwealth within one year immediately preceding the date of such application of a mother who has resided in this Commonwealth for one year immediately preceding the birth of the child

(b) Aged Persons An aged person is defined as one who (1) is seventy years of age or more or who after December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine is sixty-five years of age or more (2) resides in this Commonwealth and has so resided therein for five years during the nine years immediately preceding the date of making application for assistance and has so resided continuously for one year immediately preceding the date of making such application (3) is not at the time of receiving assistance an inmate of a public institution and (4) has not conveyed or transferred his real or personal property of the value of five hundred dollars ($500.00) or upwards without fair consideration within two years preceding the date of making such application

Absence in the service of the Commonwealth or of the United States shall not be deemed to interrupt residence of an aged person in the Commonwealth if a domicile has not been acquired outside the Commonwealth

(c) Blind Persons A blind person is defined as one who (1) is twenty-one years of age or more (2) has three-sixtieth or ten-two hundredths or less normal vision (3) has resided in the Commonwealth for at least five years during the nine years immediately preceding his application for a pension and has resided therein continuously for one year immediately preceding the application (4) is not receiving assistance as an aged person during the period for which he is receiving assistance as a blind person (5) is not at the date making application an inmate of any prison jail insane asylum or any other public reform or correctional instituion The pension of a blind person shall be thirty dollars ($30) per month Provided That any blind person with an actual income of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) or upwards and any blind person having real property with an assessed valuation of over five thousand dollars ($5,000) is not entitled to such pension And provided further That where a blind person has an income of less than twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) per year the pension shall be fixed in such amount so that the combined income and pension shall not exceed twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) a year And provided further That the Local Board of Assistance may upon application authorize grants of additional sums not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) to meet the cost of medical and surgical treatment for conditions which if relieved may restore useful vision to those who are blind No person shall be denied a pension because of the fact that he or she is not a citizen of the United States In the event that any Act of Congress providing Federal aid toward pension for the blind requires the recipients to be citizens no such Federal aid moneys shall be expended in the payment of pensions to non-citizens but such persons shall receive pensions out of moneys appropriated by this Commonwealth

(d) Other persons who have resided in Pennsylvania for at least one year immediately preceding the date of application for assistance and need assistance to enable them to maintain for themselves and their dependents a decent and healthful standard of living

(e) Any person within any group defined in this section who has a quasi-settlement in this Commonwealth until he is removed to his place of legal settlement

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 9, page 9, lines 25 and 26, by striking out the words "seventy years of age or more, or who, after December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine is"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I am informed that this amendment will impose upon the Commonwealth an additional expenditure of ten million dollars. I haven't heard any suggestion whereby those funds could be raised. I haven't heard of any suggestion from the sponsor of the amendment of any means whereby the income of the Commonwealth could be increased to a sum necessary to provide for the expenditure to which this amendment would expose the Commonwealth. I can clearly remember the situation which was presented to the House in the 1935 session. At that time the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, presented identically the same amendment. He did so in identically the same manner without presenting with those amendments an adequate tax bill. So, if there is any sincerity in the desire to decrease the age from seventy to sixty-five that should be accomplished by a tax measure which will increase the revenues of the Commonwealth so that the payment can be made.

I further wish to point out to the membership of the House that under our present act individuals from the age of sixty to seventy are taken care of under the State Emergency Relief Fund, and will be taken care of out of the general funds under the appropriation to the Department of Assistance for the maintenance of indigent relief. While individuals from seventy to sixty-five are not taken care of quite as adequately as they are under the old age pension, nevertheless they are taken care of, and I ask the membership of this House to vote down the amendments of the gentleman from Dauphin.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from York has stated that there is no way to raise this money and that there is an estimated cost to the Commonwealth of ten million dollars on account of this amendment. As a matter of fact, from the best information which we have available from Dr. DeSchweinitz, the Director of Public Assistance, we find that the estimate is between seven and one half million dollars and ten million dollars, and from the experience which we have had in the past from these estimates we find that they are plenty high. As a matter of fact, if we continue the local home rule of poor boards and permit them to continue to operate in the manner in which they are operating now, we could adopt this amendment, and have a system without throwing the budget of the Commonwealth out of balance, and we could raise the money necessary. That is the plan which I suggest to the gentleman from York. It is a plan which is workable, which can be carried out and which will enable the poor people between the ages of sixty-five and seventy to get their just dues provided for in the Federal Social Security law. I want to call to the attention of the members of the House that the Social Security law provides an age of sixty-five and not seventy. We are losing here, if we refuse to reduce the age limit to sixty-five, millions of dollars in Federal funds which is available for Pennsylvania, if we would adopt this amendment to this bill. It will not throw the budget out of balance if you will follow it up by defeating the poor board bill or by amending it so that it will provide that the work of the poor boards shall be continued. It will not throw your budget out of balance one cent and you can go ahead and spend the money. There are only seventeen states in the United States which have not reduced their age limit to sixty-five. I think that Pennsylvania should not remain among the backward states, that they should bring their laws to conform with the Federal requirements. I think we should not throw over our shoulders, as I say, that amount of money which the Federal Government makes available to us, by refusing to adopt this amendment. Inasmuch as the budget will not be thrown out of balance if the plan which I suggest is carried out, I ask that this amendment be adopted, and, Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to support the amendments offered by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside. Like the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, in 1935 I too voted to make the age limit seventy. I did it because I knew at that time that this State did not have the funds to assume the responsibility if the age limit was sixty-five, but the story is entirely different at this time. We do have the funds if we but pause to put our house in order, and when I say put our house in order I mean to get in line with the principles laid down by Franklin D. Roosevelt, who in his Social Security plan has made sixty-five as the beginning of old age assistance, and I say very frankly, from investigations and from the hearings we have had the eight and one-half million dollars that we are using in connection with the administration of the poor boards on outdoor relief would be sufficient for us to reduce the old age limit to sixty-five. As the gentleman from Dauphin has pointed out, clearly Pennsylvania does not want to be in the category of the seventeen backward states, where we now are. I feel, Mr. Speaker, that we would be performing the greatest duty possible to the citizens of Pennsylvania if we would provide for that great class now existing between the ages of sixty-five and seventy, many of whom, of course, are on the relief rolls, and many of whom are being maintained and supported by their children at the present time, at the expense of many necessities for their children and grandchildrn, who are trying to keep them from the relief rolls in many instances, by making the law conform to what the Democratic Administration in Washington desires, that is, cut the age limit down to sixty-five. We certainly do not have any justification in coming here and being out of step with their program because we do not have enough money, Mr. Speaker, when we do have the money. We cannot justify our position either to the Federal Government in Washington or to ourselves or to our constituency. It is our bounden duty, Mr. Speaker, to see that we get in line with the principle laid down by Franklin D. Roosevelt and that we do so immediately.

It has been stated by the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, that we will get some Federal contribution for outdoor relief that the State agency advances to that group between sixty-five and seventy. We differ very thoroughly on that. We have not been able to justify that statement. As a matter of fact, some of the statements of Dr De-Schweinitz previously made were to the effect that they had a reasonable expectation of getting a Federal contribution. I point out that if we make sixty-five the age limit there will be no expectation, but there will be the mandatory proposition laid down by the Federal law that we will receive that contribution. I want the members to know that if we would use the money where we should to take care of our State obligations we will be able to assume our full responsibility, and I ask my Democratic colleagues to join with me in support of the amendments.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not the least bit impressed by the argument of the gentleman from Dauphin or the argument of the gentleman from Monroe, because both of them clearly indicate the purpose of this amendment, namely to save the poor boards. The gentleman from Dauphin says we can raise the money by not transferring the funds from the department of relief to the poor boards. The gentleman from Dauphin further says that the money and the functions retained by the poor boards will allow the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to reduce the age limit from seventy to sixty-five. The question in my mind is whether the gentleman from Dauphin wishes to reduce the age limit from seventy to sixty-five or whether the gentleman wishes to save the poor boards. I know only too well the history of the party that the gentleman from Dauphin represents on old age pensions. I sat in this House in the session of 1933, when it was necessary for the Democratic minority to join with a few liberal Republicans to discharge a Republican committee that held the old age pension bills. I know in the session of 1935 that the then Republican minority of the House again attempted to resort to subterfuge and made an about face in an attempt to reduce the age from seventy to sixty-five, again without providing the funds necessary so to do. And today that party is writing the same record, proposing a reduction of the age from seventy to sixty-five, in an attempt, not primarily to help the aged, but in an attempt to save the poor boards.

I further call attention of the membership of the House to the fact that by taking over outdoor relief, taking over that function of the poor boards, the taxpayers will be saved some ten million dollars a year. I call attention to the fact that when we assume the obligation of taking care of outdoor relief and relieving the poor boards of that obligation, that the tax millage in every county of this State should be proportionately decreased. I call attention of the members of the House to the fact that the oppressed real estate owners, the home owners and the farm owners are asking for a reduction in real estate taxes. I call your attention to the fact that when we in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania assume that obligation of outdoor relief, we are giving the taxpayers on real estate tax relief.

I question whether any individual between the age of sixty-five and seventy cannot be taken care of just as adequately under our present system as under the old age pension. There is great doubt expressed by the gentleman from Monroe as to whether we will receive a contribution from the Federal government to help the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in assuming this burden, but I say there is almost a certainty that we will receive that assistance. I say that under the Social Security Act the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is given until 1941 to assume the obligation of taking care of the aged and bringing the pension age down to sixty-five. We know only too well how this Commonwealth in the past two years has assumed this obligation, not only to the aged but to every needy group. I say to the membership of this House that unless adequate tax measures are presented by the proponents of this amendment we should not make this change, keeping in mind our responsibility to the people of this Commonwealth, keeping in mind the constitutional provision that we cannot appropriate more than one million dollars over our anticipated revenue. I call that to the attention of the membership of the House and ask you as honest and fair-minded legislators to again stand four square on this and defeat the amendment.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I had not intended to say anything in the debate on this question because I felt that the matter was adequately handled by the gentleman from Dauphin, and I thought that the remarks of the gentleman from Monroe were sufficient. But I cannot sit here and remain quiet after hearing the gentleman from York with his usual astuteness endeavoring to becloud the issue by his usual references to the past history of the Republican party. I am amazed to find the gentleman from York, who was upon the floor, if I remember rightly, in the sessions of 1933 and 1935 many times crying out for the poor and the helpless, crying out that the State of Pennsylvania should not be behind the others in the care of these people taking his present position. Tonight I hear the Democratic floor leader in this House stand up before us and say, "We haven't the money, we must send these people back to relief to get the money, instead of being entitled to the pension which we are giving to the aged in this State." While he recites the fact that in 1933 there may have been a division in this House on the part of some of the members as to the advisability of the old age pension, I call to the attention of the gentleman from York the fact that it was the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, a representative of this House, who introduced the legislation and fought for it and carried it through the sessions of 1933 and 1935. I cannot understand why the gentleman from York would try to becloud the issue by saying that we are trying to save the poor boards by this maneuver, when he has so often urged us to give to the people of Pennsylvania, the poor and the helpless, the opportunities which they should have in their care. He says that we are not sincere because we have offered no plan to raise the money. Here on the floor of this House tonight, with little attention on the part of the membership of this House, without any opportunity to go into detail, I offered a plan which would have saved the Commonwealth at least two million dollars during the next biennium.

The gentleman from York is also mindful of the fact that out of the present amount of money which we are paying for relief, which will carry some of these people, there would be an additional saving. It would not be necessary to throw the entire burden back upon the poor boards. It would not be necessary to assess any other amount if we only had a total of seven mill five hundred thousand dollars, and as the gentleman from Dauphin has stated, there is no assurance that that is the lowest figure that would be required to carry it into effect. There was a sound reason in 1933 why perhaps this money could not be raised. We felt that no other taxation should be imposed upon the people of Pennsylvania to take care of the cost of relief, and we knew not to what extent it might go. Now, we turn around the corner, and, according to our Democratic colleagues, we are back on the way to recovery, and if I understand them correctly, we are already in recovery. We have piled taxes up in Pennsylvania, we have mounted them high, and when we needed the money we have gone to the Highway Fund or some other fund to carry along when we were short of funds. So I say that the gentleman is not sincere in his opposition to the program as laid down by the Goodrich Committee. That also is natural and is his duty as floor leader, but when he tries to impugn the motives of some of the members on this side of the House, who are interested in this I cannot remain in my seat. If he would but stop to read some of the mail that I get and that probably some of the other members of the House get, if he would but listen to the appeals of those who come to our offices and say that they are in need and entitled to this old age pension, but they are not within the age limit, what are we going to do, he would change his position. These people in Pennsylvania have used the very same terms which the gentleman on the other side has used, that they are entitled to this relief at our hands. They should not be cast back upon ordinary welfare and the good-heartedness of welfare and unemployment relief of this State. They are entitled to the pension under the Federal act. We are losing these millions of dollars, which it has been said are necessary—we are losing that from the Federal Government, and we are anticipating what we must do in 1940. Therefore we should support these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. SKALE offered the following reason for his vote:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am voting "no" on the introduction of this amendment because it would increase the cost to the Commonwealth, the taxpayer, to the extent of about ten millions of dollars. While I advocated and still do so advocate that the age limit should be reduced from 70 to 65 years, nevertheless to do so at this late stage in the session after the budget has been fixed, would throw the entire program out of gear. In addition, the sponsor of the amendment has not offered a program for the raising of such additional funds which the amendment, if adopted, would necessitate.

It is my belief, and I am also reliably informed, that the people between 65 and 70 years of age who are entitled to such assistance are amply provided for in another manner.

Mr. McGEE filed the following reason for his vote:

I am voting "no" on this bill inasmuch as I believe it is impossible to raise the funds at this time.

Mr. WALSH filed the following reason for his vote:

I am voting "no" on the amendment to lower the old age limit to 65 years, because at this time the financial status of the State of Pennsylvania does not permit this.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS offered the following reason for his vote:

I desire to be recorded as voting "no" on the amendments offered by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, for the reason that it becomes vitally necessary to raise immediately $10,000,000 in additional revenue in order to reduce the age limit from 70 to 65 years.

If the funds were available without the necessity of taxing further the people or industries of this Commonwealth, I would not hesitate to vote for these amendments.

The tenth to the eighteenth sections inclusive, the preamble and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 10 Trustees for Certain Beneficiaries The Department of Public Assistance may appoint a trustee to take charge of the expenditure of assistance granted any person under this act when in its opinion such trustee is necessary In any such case payment shall be made direct to the trustee A trustee shall serve without compensation and shall be subject to such rules regulations and accounting as the department shall prescribe

Section 11 Assistance Due Deceased Beneficiaries Upon the death of any person entitled to assistance under this act the Department of Public Assistance may authorize the payment of any assistance due to such person to the spouse child father mother sister or brother (preference being given in the order named) of such deceased person as the department directs without requiring letters testamentary or of administration to be issued upon the estate of such person

Section 12 Federal Contributions Restitution

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend sec. 2, page 3, line 15, after the word "professions" by inserting "and except persons employed on operating transportation vehicles by rail, water, air and highway"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection?

Mr. YOURISHIN. I might say, Mr. Speaker, that there was a sort of a gentleman's agreement with the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane, that I would not object to offering the amendment but would ask the House to vote them down.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I appreciate the agreement of the gentleman from Luzerne County that he would not object to the offering of the amendment. I have made no objection to this amendment, of which I approve. I would like to say to the members of the House on behalf of the amendment which I have just offered, that it briefly does nothing more than this: It exempts from the operation of this bill persons who are employed on vehicles engaged in transportation. In the trucking industry in particular it is practically impossible for people who are engaged in operating vehicles to be laid off and put on and dismissed for meal periods, and all that sort of thing, in accordance with the provisions of this bill.

I am very well aware of the fact that the bill contains a provision that the Department may suspend these rules when compliance with the law creates an unnecessary hardship on any particular industry. But, let me say to you, members of the House, is it our duty as Legislators to express our judgment as to what is good for our constituent, rather than the wishes of a single department head, especially when as we well know the department head may resign or may be replaced by another person, and when the defects which we present to them in such a wide measure may lead to flagrant abuse at some other time. It is little enough that we exercise our judgment in the reservation of power in this respect, and I ask you to vote in favor of the amendment.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment that the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane, seeks to place in this bill is taken care of by the Federal regulations and in the present bill by the following language: "Where the strict application of the schedule of hours provided for by this section imposes an unnecessary hardship and violates the intent and purpose of this act the Department of Labor and Industry, with the approval of the Industrial Board may make, alter, amend and repeal general rules and regulations prescribing variations from said schedule of hours."

I might say in the trucking business we have several truck drivers' unions that have agreements with the owners whereby they work forty-eight to fifty-four hours. This bill does not prevent them from continuing on this same basis, as the Department of Labor and Industry through the Industrial Board will grant exemptions, and all of the exemptions that may be sought by industry or by any particular business can be gotten through the Department of Labor and Industry, which is a regulatory department, to take care of business and industry, where the bill imposes an unnecessary hardship.

I ask he members of the House to vote down this amendment.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Are there objections?

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2339, (Senate Bill No. 743), entitled:

An Act to amend sections five, six and twelve of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 1050), entitled 'An act creating and establishing a fund for the care, maintenance and relief of aged, retired and disabled employes of the bureau of fire in cities of the second class; creating a board for the management thereof; providing the mode and manner of payment to beneficiaries, and for the care and disposition of its funds; and providing for the transfer and payment of all moneys and securities in existing funds in similar boards superseded by the fund and board herein created," by providing for a secretary-treasurer in lieu of a secretary, and a vice president of the board; and establishing a method for determining classification of beneficiaries.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL RETURNED TO COMMITTEE

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, earlier in the day the Committee on State Government reported out House Bill No. 2431, (Senate Bill No. 783), as committed. I ask unanimous consent to withdraw the bill from the House for further consideration by the Committee on State Government.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to return this bill to the Committee on State Government? Are there objections?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from York if he will explain what this bill is?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Delaware, Senate Bill No. 783 is the bill which establishes for the Pennsylvania Motor Police a retirement system. By inadvertance the bill was reported from the Committee on State Government without correctional amendments. It was my thought to have the bill returned to the Committee on State government, where I am directed by the Chairman to re-report the bill with the correctional amendments. This will save the necessity of having the bill lie over until it appears on the calendar tomorrow, then placing the amendment in the bill requiring it to lie over for printing.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask whether this bill is necessary by reason of the proposed merger of the State Police and the Motor Patrol?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, this bill possibly is not entirely germane to the merger, but it provides a retirement system for the members of the Motor Patrol.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the members of the Motor Patrol at present do not have the retirement system, is that correct?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, so that the use of the term "Motor Patrol" has no other significance than the fact that you hope to put through a merger, the title of which will be Motor Patrol or Motor Police?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, therefore if that should not go through, this bill would still be a proper piece of legislation and would only need an amendment to take out the title "Motor Police"?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, this bill could be utilized by changing the name from Motor Police to State Highway Patrol, and could be utilized for the benefit of our present State Highway Police.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and consent is granted. The bill is returned to the Committee on State Government for amendment.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN, from the Committee on State Government, re-reported as amended, House Bill No. 2431, (Senate Bill No. 783), entitled:

An Act establishing a Pennsylvania Motor Police Retirement System providing for payments upon retirement death disability involuntary retirement and of certain medical expenses from the State Employes Retirement Fund under the Administration of the State Employes Retirment Board providing for contributions by members of the Pennsylvania Motor Police and the Commonwealth providing for the guarantee by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds providing for the subrogation of the Commonwealth to the rights of the member or dependents against certain third parties exempting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial processes and providing penalties.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until tomorrow at 3:00 p. m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 3:27 a. m.) the House adjourned until Thursday, June 3, 1937, at 3:00 p. m.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 1937. No. 70.

SENATE

THURSDAY, June 3, 1937.

The Senate met at 2 o'clock p. m.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. GEORGE WALKER BUCKNER, LL. D., offered the following prayer:

O God, Creator and Ruler, Father of our spirits, and providence over all: Thine eyes are on the sparrow—and Thou hast not forgotten us. Under a threatening sky we pray for peace. Give unto all nations a sense of kinship, of familyhood in Thee. Spare our own beloved land from the scourge of war. Forbid that we beat our plow-shares into swords, our pruning-hooks into spears. Make us, in spirit and example, leaders in the ways of peace and good will. Thy blessing be upon all the servants of the Commonwealth, upon the members of this Assembly and all associated with them in fellowship of service. May we bring our best to Thee, even to the last moments. that we may stand unashamed and unafraid before the world and before our God. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. SONES, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, as I read this bill, it has a defective title. I have called the attention of the sponsor to it and he is preparing amendments, therefore I ask that Senate Bill No. 1459, (House Bill No. 2452), entitled:

An Act to further amend section four of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149) entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" by making a further provision for the payment of the tax.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1460, (House Bill No. 2037), entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend a part of section one of article three of the act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one (P. L. 20) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" providing for the removal and dismissal of policemen in cities of the second class.

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That so much of section one of article three of the act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one (P. L. 20) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class' as relates to the removal and dismissal of policemen in cities of the second class is hereby re-enacted to read as follows

No policeman or fireman appointed under this act shall be dismissed without his written consent except by the decision of a court either of trial or inquiry duly determined and certified in writing to the city recorder which court shall be composed of persons belonging to the police or fire force equal or superior in official position therein to the accused Such decision shall only be determined by trial of charges with plain specifications made by or lodged with the director of the department of public safety of which trial the accused shall have due notice and at which he shall have the right to be present in person The persons composing such court shall be appointed and sworn by the director of the department of public safety to perform their duties impartially and without fear or favor and the person of highest rank in such court shall have the same authority to issue and enforce process to secure the attendance of witnesses and to administer oaths to witnesses as is possessed by any justice of the peace of this Commonwealth

Such charges may be of disability for service in which case the court shall be one of inquiry whose decision may be for the honorable discharge from the service of the person concerned or of neglect or violation of law or duty inefficiency intemperance disobedience of orders or unbecoming official or personal conduct in which cases the court shall be one of trial and its decisions may authorize the director of the department of public safety to impose fines and pecuniary penalties to be stopped from pay or to suspend from pay or duty or both for a period fixed by them not exceeding one year or to dismiss from the service

It shall be lawful for the director of the department of public safety at his discretion to suspend from duty before trial any person charged as aforesaid until such trial can be had with or without pay as such court shall afterward determine but no trial shall be delayed for more than one month after charge has been made.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Section?

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President I move to amend section 1, page 1, line 9, by inserting after the word "re-enacted" the following: "and amended"; amend section 1, page 1, line 10, by striking out the words "or fireman"; amend section 1, page 2, line 2, by striking out the words "city recorder" and inserting in lieu thereof "mayor"; amend section 1, page 1, line 9, by inserting after the word "of" the following: "not less than three and not more than five"; amend section 1, page 2, line 4, by striking out the words "or fire"; amend section 1, page 2, line 29, by inserting after the word "service" the following: "The right of appeal of the decision of the Trial Board shall be made within five days to the Civil Service Board".

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I move to further amend section 1, page 1, line 9, by inserting after the word "re-enacted" the following: "and amended"; amend section 1, page 2, line 2, by striking out the words: "city recorder" and inserting in lieu thereof: "mayor"; amend section 1, page 2, line 3, by inserting after the word "of" the following "seven"; amend section 1, page 2, line 4, by striking out the words: "equal or" and inserting in lieu thereof: "four persons of equal and three persons of"; amend section 1, page 2, line 11, by striking out the words: "appointed and" and inserting in lieu thereof: "drawn by lot of twenty-five names submitted, thirteen by the accused and twelve by the director".

Mr. BEAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I object to the amendments offered by the Senator from Indiana, and in order that the Senate may understand the discussion, I shall briefly give the facts covering the situation. This bill applies only to the City of Pittsburgh, and it has to do with the method by which police officers who are charged with infractions shall be tried. Under the present system when a police officer is charged with some nonfeasance or misfeasance, of duty, he is given notice of the charges made against him, and on the day appointed he appears before a board. Now, that board is selected in the following manner: here are 25 names of brother officers selected; each name is inscribed on a piece of paper and these 25 names are deposited in a box, then some disinterested person picks out of those 25 names and selects seven, then the police officer has the right of challenge as to two of those members, and the Director of Public Safety, who has charge of this, has the right to challenge two on his account, so that when the challenges are over, there is a board of three to try their brother police officer, and in order to sustain a decision the verdict must be unanimous. We have tried this system for years in Pittsburgh, and it has not been successful so far as the general public is concerned—I understand that fellow officers have some hesitancy of mind in trying their brother officers.

Now, under the present bill, when it comes to the selection of a trial board, the Directors of Public Safety selects three men to try the offending officers, and the amendments offered by the Senator from Indiana changes that number of three to seven, but still has the selection from 25; in other words, we have the same question, putting it back to where it was originally.

This bill, as sponsored by Mr. Sarraff, of the House, has the approval of the Mayor of Pittsburgh, the amendments have his approval, and I think the Senate of Pennsylvania can safely go along with what the Mayor and City Fathers of what Pittsburgh want.

The amendments I have offered simply give the policemen the same opportunity and as any other man when he is accused, it is alike under the policemen or firemen system, it permits on this trial board of seven, four members of his peers. Now, these people only ask that four out will be possible for a man to be tried by his superiors, and under the American system of Government, our entire jury system, a person is entitled to be tried by a jury of his peers. Now, these people only ask that four out of a board of seven may be of equal rank, and three of superior rank. Now, that changes the present set-up; in other words, they are willing to go before a board composed of their peers, but not handicapped by the heads of departments; for if it were to be a trial by his superiors, he could hardly expect to receive as fair treatment by that jury as he would by a jury composed partly of his fellow officers. I think these amendments should be sustained.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I know very little about the police system in Pittsburgh, but from the argument of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen, and the explanation of his amendments, it strikes me as to whether or not they are going back to the jury system in Allegheny County. In other words, under the present system, by the clear explanation of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen, there are 25 names drawn from the whole list of police officers, and from those 25 names, seven names are drawn with the usual right of challenge by the accused and the accuser. Now, if that is not the fundamental system of selecting men to try cases, I am sure I do not know what is.

Now, Mr. President, I ask whether you are going to have an independent police force in the City of Pittsburgh, or if the Director of Public Safety cannot pick the jury, and this gives him the right to pick it, and yet he cannot do it.

Now, this must be another "must" bill, because I understand it has been held in committee since March 27, 1937, and the Committee in the House did not dare to bring it out apparently they brought it out at the last minute, with the usual heat thrown on, just to control the police in the City of Pittsburgh, it is obvious on the face of it.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, the Senator from Tioga has a privilege so wide that he can go up and down the state as far west, as far as the different sections of the compass point I am quite certain that if Senator Owlett was a resident of the City of Pittsburgh and knew what conditions were, and knew the evil of this bill is trying to cure, he would not oppose the bill. The Senator from Tioga is not entirely familiar with our conditions, he does not know that we are trying to do with the policemen what we now do with the coroner. The coroner is now there under a system which is opposed by the Senator from Tioga. I do not want to take up too much of the time of the Senate, I can only say that the representatives in this Chamber, from Allegheny County, and also the representatives in the lower Chamber from Allegheny County, are in accord with this proposition, and so are the city folks back home.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I just want to say to my good friend and colleague, the Senator from Allegheny County, that I do not claim to know anything about the conditions in the City of Pittsburgh, but I do think that we can read an Act, and when an Act provides that a jury that has been selected by the usual American method, cannot be attacked by one man, that is not the American system, and it does open the door to that one man controlling the police force, and that is all that I object to in this bill. The man that I talked to as representing the policemen of Pittsburgh explained to me that the police force in Allegheny County is out of politics, that they have no complaints of the treatment of their present Mayor, but they do not want to get in the position where the heat can be put on them as we have observed it put on here in the Legislature, and put them into politics.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to inquire whether the Senator from Indiana has accepted the amendment of the Senator from Allegheny? There is nothing in the amendments offered by the Senator from Indiana, that strikes out the amendments offered by the Senator from Allegheny. If the Senate would adopt the amendments of the Senator from Allegheny, I think the printing department will be delayed so much that we will hold the mup in their work. It seems to me the only way we could do that now is vote down the amendments of the Senator from Indiana, and to plan new ones at some other time.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, may I ask whether the amendments offered by the Senator from Allegheny were adopted?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, that the amendments were agreed to as offered by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen, and we are now voting on the amendments offered by the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT and Mr. GELDER and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—15

Bean,	Ealy,	Howell,	Salus,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Scarlett,

Haluska,	Lanius,	Rodgers,	Thompson,
Henney,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second and third sections of the bill were read as follows and agreed to.

Section 2 The act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 38) entitled as amended "An act regulating the removal or dismissal of policemen and firemen in cities of the second class A and the removal of policemen in cities of the second class" and its amendments are hereby repealed in so far as they relate to cities of the second class

Section 3 this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

The title of the bill was read as follows:

An Act to re-enact a part of section one of Article Three of the act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws 20) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" providing for the removal and dismissal of policemen in cities of the second class.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. KILGALLEN Mr. President, I move to amend title page 1, line 1 of title, by inserting after the word "re-enact" the following: and amend.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1461, (House Bill No. 2002) entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand eighty-three) entitled "An act requiring all persons contracting with the Commonwealth or any department or officer thereof or any municipal corporation division or sub-division of the Commonwealth to accept the provisions of the State Workmen's Compensation Act and to insure the said contractor liability thereunder or secured an exemption from insurance in accordance with the terms of the said act in respect to such contract" by making the Commonwealth or municipality or division or sub-division thereof liable for payment of compensation to persons injured while employed under a contract executed in violation of the provisions of this act

The first and third sections of the bill were read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws 1083) entitled "An act requiring all persons contracting with the Commonwealth to accept the provisions of the State Workmen's Compensation Act to insure the said contractors' liability thereunder or secure an exemption from insurance in accordance with the terms of the said act in respect to such contract" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 [Any] If any contract is executed in violation of the provisions of this act [shall be null and void] the Commonwealth or any municipal corporation division or sub-division of the Commonwealth being a party thereto shall be regarded as the employer and shall become liable to pay compensation to any person entitled to compensation under the laws of the Commonwealth as the result of employment pursuant to such contract.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move to amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 3), page 2, lines 14 to 18, by striking out the words "the Commonwealth or any municipal corporation di-" in line 14, and all of lines 15 to 19 inclusive, and inserting in lieu thereof "it shall be voidable at the option of the Commonwealth or municipal corporation as the case may be"

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed,

On the question,

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO THE RETIREMENT OF THE HONORABLE JOHN B. KELLY, SECRETARY OF REVENUE OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time, and ask its immediate adoption.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 3, 1937.

Whereas, The Honorable John B. Kelly has announced his intention of retiring from the office of Secretary of Revenue, at the close of the present session of the General Assembly; and

Whereas, He has served the Commonwealth in the capacity of Secretary of Revenue with much honor; and

Whereas, He will be remembered for his strenuous efforts to make the highways of this Commonwealth safe, not only for motorists, but also for pedestrians; and

Whereas, He will also be remembered for the fair and impartial manner in which he administered the tax laws; and

Whereas, He was loved by his friends and respected by his enemies; therefore be it

Resolved, (If the House of Representatives Concur), That the General Assembly, hereby expresses its sincere regret that the Hon. John B. Kelly finds it necessary to retire from the office of Secretary of Revenue and to resume his private business affairs; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the wish of the members of the General Assembly, that he shall have success, good health and much happiness in any new venture.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, in February last, in the town of Hershey, Pennsylvania, a disgraceful riot occured. That riot arose out of an industrial dispute. I do not intend to express any opinion as to the merits of that dispute, but out of the riotous conduct of the mob, on that occasion, criminal acts were perpetrated. In one instant, one man an American citizen, over sixty years of age, was beaten over the head with an iron pipe by three assailants, whom he knew and identified. That victim made complaints before an Alderman in this City, presented his testimony, identified his assailants, charging them with aggravated assault and battery. The defendents offered no testimony in extenuation of their unlawful conduct; they put in no defense. They were held to appear before the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Dauphin County Court at its June term. The case was presented before the Grand Jury in the Dauphin County Court, and the Grand Jury ignored the bill of indictment and put the costs upon the prosecutor.

Mr. President, it seems to me that a situation like that, if it is permitted to pass unchallenged may affect the very foundations of our Democratic Government. Desiring to protest against that State of affairs, I have prepared a Resolution, which I will read with the indulgence of the indulgence of the Senate:

RESOLUTION URGING THE FAIR AND IMPARTIAL ENFORCEMENT OF THE CRIMINAL LAWS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH IN CASES ARISING OUT OF INDUSTRIAL AND PRIVATE DISPUTES

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. KUNKEL offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, June 3, 1937.

Whereas, A riot occurred at Hershey, Pennsylvania, April 7, 1937 in which Petio Foschetti, an American citizen and resident of the country for 32 years, and faithful employee of the Hershey Chocolate Company for fifteen years, was attacked by three men, named William Spinner, Jack Wetzel and George Brandt; and

Whereas, Pietro Foschetti made information against the said assailants before an alderman of the city of Harrisburg, charging these with the crime of aggravated assault and battery; and

Whereas, At the hearing before an alderman the defendents were indisputably identified as the individuals who attacked the prosecutor, striking him with an iron pipe and beating him with a blackjack and club, so that his head was badly cut and he was rendered partly unconscious; and

Whereas, At said hearing before the alderman, the defendents presented no defense and offered no testimony in extenuation of their unlawful assault, and were accordingly each held under $500 bail for the June session in the Dauphin County court; and

Whereas, The Grand Jury, whose proceedings are secret, has this day, to wit; June 3rd, 1937, ignored the Bill of Indictment and the injured prosecutor has thus been denied the use of the process of the criminal law which contemplates public trial in open court by an impartial jury, and in addition the Grand Jury imposed upon the prosecutor all the costs in the case and

Whereas, From the said recital of facts, it appears that the Grand Jury of Dauphin County, by its actions, has failed to apply criminal laws of this state in a case arising out of industrial dispute and on the contrary has deliberately and openly seen fit to penalize an American citizen who sought only impartial enforcement of the criminal law; therefore be it

Resolved, that the criminal laws of this Commonwealth should be fairly and impartially enforced in cases arising out of industrial disputes as well as in cases arising out of private disputes, and in all other cases irrespective of the circumstances or situations giving rise to unlawful acts, and that if subversive influences, economic or social prejudices or predilections are permitted to effect the impartial administration of the criminal law, democratic institutions under our Amreican system may eventually be endangered.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I would suggest that this go to the Committee on Rules.

The PRESIDENT. Objection is made, and it has been suggested that the Resolution go to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator, from Mercer, Mr. Law.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, what is the objection to immediate consideration of that Resolution?

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, simply that I think it would be advisable that the Resolution be studied. The Resolution is of considerable length, and I think that it is hardly fair, in view of the fact that this is something that just happened, today, to act on it without study.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I tried to read the Resolution so that everybody would understand it. There is nothing about it that requires study, it simply upholds the proposition of equality before the law; and I see no objection to its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDENT. Objection has been made, and the Resolution has been referred to the Committee on Rules.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULES

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I move that the rule requiring unanimous consent be suspended, and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the resolution.

The PRESIDENT. May I suggest to the Senator from Dauphin that the Rules Committee can meet immediately after the Session; and report can be made promptly, if that is satisfactory?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I am very willing to take the suggestion but I see absolutely no necessity for a Committee studying an investigation on the simple proposition set forth in this resolution.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, wil state his point of order.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, the resolution has already been referred to the Committee. There is nothing before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, is well taken. The resolution has been referred.

HOUSE MESSAGE

CONGRESS MEMORIALIZED TO PASS THE SHEPARD HOUSE BILL FOR THE REMOVAL OF ABNORMAL PROFITS DURING TIME OF WAR

He also presented an extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 27, 1937.

Whereas, The Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are strongly in favor of the removal of abnormal profits during time of war and

Whereas, It is their belief that war should be prosecuted with special privilege to none and on the basis of equal service for all and

Whereas, There is now pending in the Federal Congress a bill which would not only accomplish these desirable results but by its enactment into law would do much towards the preservation and promotion of peace and therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorialize the Congress of the United States to pass the Shepard House Bill (Senate Number 25 House Number 1954) at the earliest possible moment and be it further

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to each of the members elected from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the House of Representatives and to the Senate of the Congress of the United States.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection?

The Chair hears none.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. TURNER (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 96,

In the House of Representatives, June 2, 1937.

Whereas, early in this session the Governor of the Commonwealth promised prompt and full investigation of charges that 57,000 tons of sub-standard material had been purchased for road purposes in Erie County, being widely quoted in the newspapers as saying that if "any member of my Administration does a thing that isn't honest and righthe'll mighty soon cease to be a State official"; and

Whereas, in the face of persistent rumors that attempts are being made to cover up this scandal the Governor has been silent as to his findings, and

Whereas, within the past week the Pennsylvania Citizens Committee, over the signature of John P. Guyer, repeating the Erie charges and drawing the Governor's attention to widely circulated reports of other serious irregularities in the State government, has recommended a Grand Jury investigation; and

Whereas, the Governor has not up to this time seen fit to reply to this public letter; and

Whereas, these charges and persistent reports are destructive of popular confidence in government and reflect upon the integrity of all persons connected with the State government; now therefore, be it

Resolved, (If the Senate concur), that a legislative committee, to consist of three members of the Senate, two members of the majority and one of the minority, to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate; and four members of the House of Represntativs, two to be members of the majority and two of the minority, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, is hereby created and authorized to investigate fully and impartially the charges herein specifically mentioned and to be empowered to investigate as well all charges of a similar nature, especially those enumerated in the Pennsylvania Citizens Committee letter to the Governor, and to make such report and recommendations as the findings warrant; to the next Session of the Legislature, and to the Governor if that be deemed necessary in the judgment of the committee; and be it further

Resolved, that the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases, and be it further

Resolved, that said committee shall have power to sit after the adjournment of the legislative session of 1937, and be it further

Resolved, that an appropriation of $5,000. to cover the expenses of this committee be included in the General appropriation bill.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL No. 2057.

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 2, 1937.
